

GUST FRONT

A detailed science fiction illustration of a planet's surface. A large, complex orbital station or space station is positioned in the foreground, partially obscuring the view of the planet. The planet's surface is rugged and appears to be a mix of brown and grey tones. In the upper right, a bright sun or star is visible, casting a strong glow over the scene. Several smaller spacecraft or satellites are visible in the sky, some appearing to be in motion. The overall atmosphere is one of a high-tech, futuristic environment.
