Luna Julie Anne Peters:

Luna (National Book Award Finalist) Julie Anne Peters, 2008-09-15 A groundbreaking novel about a transgender teen selected as a National Book Award Finalist Regan's brother Liam can't stand the person he is during the day Like the moon from whom Liam has chosen his female name his true self Luna only reveals herself at night In the secrecy of his basement bedroom Liam transforms into the beautiful girl he longs to be with help from his sister's clothes and makeup Now everything is about to change Luna is preparing to emerge from her cocoon But are Liam's family and friends ready to welcome Luna into their lives Compelling and thought provoking this is an unforgettable novel about a transgender teen's struggle for self identity and acceptance Luna Julie Anne Peters, 2004 With the help of his sister Liam secretly transforms himself into a girl when evening falls but although he wants to present his female persona to the world he fears the reaction of the rest of his family Teaching, Affirming, and Recognizing Trans and Gender Creative Youth sj Miller, 2016-06-21 Winner of the 2018 Outstanding Book by the Michigan Council Teachers of English Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title for 2018 Winner of the 2017 AERA Division K Teaching and Teacher Education Exemplary Research Award This book draws upon a queer literacy framework to map out examples for teaching literacy across pre K 12 schooling To date there are no comprehensive Pre K 12 texts for literacy teacher educators and theorists to use to show successful models of how practicing classroom teachers affirm differential a gender bodied realities across curriculum and schooling practices This book aims to highlight how these enactments can be made readily conscious to teachers as a reminder that gender normativity has established violent and unstable social and educational climates for the millennial generation of lesbian gay bisexual transgender intersex a gender a sexual gender creative and questioning youth Keeping You a Secret Julie Anne Peters, 2005-05-04 National Book Award finalist Julie Anne Peters delivers a moving modern classic love story with a coming out theme now with a fresh redesigned cover With a steady boyfriend the position of Student Council President and a chance to go to an Ivy League college high school life is just fine for Holland Jaeger At least it seems to be But when Cece Goddard comes to school everything changes Cece and Holland have undeniable feelings for each other but how will others react to their developing relationship This moving love story between two girls is for fans of Nancy Garden's classic young adult coming out novel Annie on My Mind With her characteristic humor and breezy style Peters has captured the compelling emotions of young love Unpacking the Loaded Teacher Matrix sj Miller, Linda Norris, 2007 What issues in English teacher education are sidestepped because they are too loaded to address What aren't we talking about when we discuss classroom management censorship standardized tests media literacy social justice issues the standards and technology What really matters to novices entering the profession The authors in this book wrestle with the disparities between preservice English teacher instruction and secondary school space as the two collide and describe the tools that preservice English teachers need to negotiate and navigate between theory and practice This book answers these questions and offers groundbreaking insights about liberatory pedagogy for how teacher educators can mentor preservice teachers on touchy issues providing them with tools to reach today's students Gender Identity Cynthia L. Winfield, 2007 Using case studies as examples explains how hermaphrodites and transgendered individuals can have different gender identities than those assigned at birth and describes the legal and surgical options open to them Gender Issues and Philosophy Education Markus Tiedemann, Bettina Bussmann, 2023-01-31 With this volume a gap in the philosophical didactics is closed A historical section initially introduces authors who have determined the gender discourse and at the same time a critical discussion This is followed by an overview of sexual and gender diversity its basics and differentiations Theoretical papers then deal with the relevance of gender research for the self understanding of philosophical education Finally practice specific contributions demonstrate how topics and aspects of the gender problem can be prepared for different age groups and school types With 2 lesson plans Naked Reading Teri S. Lesesne, 2006 Teri draws on her extensive experience as a teacher and consultant to examine ways that educators can help interest kids in books and keep them reading during this crucial period BOOK JACKET

Millennial Teachers Heidi Hallman, 2016-10-04 Drawing on narratives of five beginning teachers Millennial Teachers explores the tensions in teachers young careers and how changing social economic and technological conditions of our current era both afford and constrain teachers identities and in contexts in which they work Examining case studies of beginning teachers Hallman draws a generational portraits of novice teachers and identifies the challenges inherent in transitioning from pre service teacher to in service teacher This book synthesizes these teachers views on a range of topics and provides an understanding of the evolving pressures and possibilities of future teachers of the millennial generation

Twenty-First-Century Feminisms in Children's and Adolescent Literature Roberta Seelinger Trites, 2018-01-17 Over twenty years after the publication of her groundbreaking work Waking Sleeping Beauty Feminist Voices in Children's Novels Roberta Seelinger Trites returns to analyze how literature for the young still provides one outlet in which feminists can offer girls an alternative to sexism Supplementing her previous work in the linguistic turn Trites employs methodologies from the material turn to demonstrate how feminist thinking has influenced literature for the young in the last two decades She interrogates how material feminism can expand our understanding of maturation and gender especially girlhood as represented in narratives for preadolescents and adolescents Twenty First Century Feminisms in Children's and Adolescent Literature applies principles behind material feminisms such as ecofeminism intersectionality and the ethics of care to analyze important feminist thinking that permeates twenty first century publishing for youth The structure moves from examinations of the individual to examinations of the individual in social environmental and interpersonal contexts The book deploys ecofeminism and the posthuman to investigate how embodied individuals interact with the environment and via the extension of feministic ethics how people interact with each other romantically and sexually Throughout the book Trites explores issues of identity gender race class age and sexuality in a wide range of literature for young readers such as Kate

DiCamillo's Flora and Ulysses Jacqueline Woodson's Brown Girl Dreaming and Rowell's Eleanor Park She demonstrates how shifting cultural perceptions of feminism affect what is happening both in publishing for the young and in the academic study of literature for children and adolescents

Diversity and Multiculturalism Shirley R. Steinberg, 2009 This reader demands that we understand diversity and multiculturalism by identifying the ways in which curriculum has been written and taught and by redefining the field with an equitable lens freeing it from the dominant cultural curriculum The book problematizes the issue of whiteness for instance as not being the opposite of blackness or person of color but rather a meta description for our dominant culture Issues are also addressed that are usually left out of the discussion about diversity and multiculturalism this reader includes essays on physical diversity geographic diversity and difference in sexualities This is the quintessential collection of work by critical scholars committed to redefining the conversation on multiculturalism and diversity

Rage: A Love Story Julie Anne Peters, 2010-12-28 A National Book Award Finalist offers an intense portrait of an abusive relationship Johanna is steadfast patient reliable the go to girl the one everyone can count on But always being there for others can't give Johanna everything she needs it can't give her Reeve Hartt Reeve is fierce beautiful wounded elusive a flame that draws Johanna's fluttering moth Johanna is determined to get her against all advice and to help her against all reason But love isn't always reasonable right In the precarious place where attraction and need collide a teenager experiences the dark side of a first love and struggles to find her way into a new light

Serving LGBTQ Teens Lisa Houde, 2018-06-04 There are few places an LGBTQ teen can turn for help searching the internet at home leaves a potentially discoverable trail teachers may condemn youth who seek their help and certainly in many cases a teen's parents are not an option While there have been advancements in acceptance of the LGBTQ population there is still a firm stronghold on discrimination and teens still face the fear of potential alienation This leaves one of the only safe places for a teen to find information and indeed find themselves in the context of the world at the library Serving LGBTQ Teens offers the librarian a practical guide to library service to LGBTQ teens from collection development understanding terminology dealing with censorship issues programming and outreach readers advisory and even to creating welcoming displays librarians will find the tools they need to offer exceptional services for LGBTQ teens

Women Writing the American Artist in Novels of Development from 1850-1932 Rickie-Ann Legleitner, 2021-05-06 In nineteenth and early twentieth century artist novels American women writers challenge cultural social and legal systems that attempt to limit or diminish women's embodied capabilities outside of the domestic. Women writers such as E. D. E. N. Southworth, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Kate Chopin, Willa Cather, Jessie Fauset, and Zelda Fitzgerald use the artist novel to highlight the structural and material limitations that women artists face when attempting to achieve critical success while navigating inequitable marriages and social codes that restrict women's mobility, education, and pursuit of vocation. These artist-rebel protagonists find that their very bodies demand an outlet to articulate desires that defy patriarchal rhetoric, and this demand becomes an artistic drive to express an embodied knowledge through artistic invention. Ultimately, these women writers empower their heroines to move beyond prescribed patriarchal identities in order to achieve autonomous subjectivity through their artistic development, challenging stereotypes surrounding gender, race, and ability, and beginning to reshape cultural notions of marriage, motherhood, and artistry at the turn of the twentieth century.
