Euro-CASE Annual Conference 2010. Value Creation through Innovation. European Best Practice Case Studies

Speaker:

- Reinhard Hüttel, President acatech – German Academy of Science and Engineering; Deutsches GeoForschungsZentrum GFZ

Dear Excellencies, distinguished guests, dear colleagues, ladies and gentlemen,

It is a true pleasure for me to welcome you to the third Euro-CASE Annual Conference, this time in Berlin. I am very grateful to you, Professor Martin Schuumanns, President of the EIT, for taking time off from your busy schedule to attend this important conference. I also wish to thank Mrs. Professor Treschow-Torrel, chair of Euro-CASE for agreeing to preside over this event.

It is also an honour for us to welcome representatives from our partner academies as well as experts from science, business and politics to the conference today. And I would like to greet the representatives from the Federal Government and the European Union.

I am especially honoured to welcome you here to the Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences – the birthplace of acatech. In this regional scientific academy, one of seven – now eight in Germany, a bottom-up process was started in early 1997 to establish a national scientific academy in the Federal Republic of Germany.

And it is no wonder indeed that this process started here: the BBAW originated from the "Preussischen" Academy of Sciences initiated by Leibniz in the year 1700 under the paradigm: "Theoria cum praxi". And in this academy an engineer becomes an ordinary member: von Siemens.

Ten years later, in 2007, the Federal and then 16 State Governments of Germany decided to commonly fund acatech as an official institution and, thus, on the 1st of January 2008 acatech became the first national academy of science and engineering of a unified Germany under the patronage of our Bundespräsident.

Now, in 2010, we are proud to host the Euro-CASE Annual Conference for the first time.

In my opinion the time is now right to reflect on a number of questions. Today, Europe is at the crossroads of its future: Did we choose the right instruments in the crisis? Have our recovery programmes had the intended effects? How can we secure lasting and sustainable growth? How do we produce long-term value creation?

Diplomacy and Deception Bruce Elleman, 2016-09-16 During the Soviet period the USSR conducted diplomatic relations with incumbent regimes while simultaneously cultivating and manipulating communist movements in those same countries The Chinese case offers a particularly interesting example of this dual policy for when the Chinese Communists came to power in 1949 their discovery of the nature of Moscow's imperial designs on Chinese territory sowed distrust between the two revolutionary powers and paved the way to the Sino Soviet split Drawing on newly available documents from archives in China Taiwan Russia and Japan this study examines secret agreements signed by Moscow and the Peking government in 1924 and confirmed by a Soviet Japanese convention in 1925 These agreements essentially allowed the Bolsheviks to reclaim most of tsarist Russia's concessions and privileges in China including not only Imperial properties but also Outer Mongolia the Chinese Eastern Railway the Boxer Indemnity and the right of extraterritoriality Each of these topics is analyzed in this volume and translations of the secret protocols themselves are included in a documentary appendix Additional chapters discuss Sino Soviet diplomacy and the parallel history of Soviet relations with the Chinese Communist Party as well as the origins and purpose of the United Front policy Daily Report, 1995 Confirmation Hearings on Federal Appointments United States. As a City on a Hill Daniel T. Rodgers, 2018-11-13 How an obscure Puritan sermon came to be seen as a founding document of American identity and exceptionalism For we must consider that we shall be as a city upon a hill John Winthrop warned his fellow Puritans at New England's founding in 1630 More than three centuries later Ronald Reagan remade that passage into a timeless celebration of American promise How were Winthrop's long forgotten words reinvented as a central statement of American identity and exceptionalism In As a City on a Hill leading American intellectual historian Daniel Rodgers tells the surprising story of one of the most celebrated documents in the canon of the American idea In doing so he brings to life the ideas Winthrop's text carried in its own time and the sharply different yearnings that have been attributed to it since As a City on a Hill shows how much more malleable more saturated with vulnerability and less distinctly American Winthrop's Model of Christian Charity was than the document that twentieth century Americans invented Across almost four centuries Rodgers traces striking shifts in the meaning of Winthrop's words from Winthrop's own anxious reckoning with the scrutiny of the world through Abraham Lincoln's haunting reference to this almost chosen people to the city on a hill that African Americans hoped to construct in Liberia to the era of Donald Trump As a City on a Hill reveals the circuitous unexpected ways Winthrop's words came to lodge in American consciousness At the same time the book offers a probing reflection on how nationalism encourages the invention of timeless texts to straighten out the crooked realities of the past
