

GUN CONTROL LEGISLATION IN 2018

OVERVIEW

Every state has introduced gun control legislation in some form in 2018. Here's a sampling of gun control legislation passed since Jan. 1, 2018.

KEY TERMS DEFINED

RED FLAG LAWS

These laws are known as extreme risk protection orders (ERPOs) or gun violence restraining orders when a judge is able to issue an order that enables law enforcement to confiscate guns from individuals deemed a risk to themselves or others.

BUMP STOCKS

A bump stock is a piece of plastic or metal attached to a semi-automatic weapon that fires like an automatic weapon, allowing a shooter to fire dozens of rounds in seconds by bumping the gun against their hand.

ASSAULT-STYLE WEAPONS

What constitutes an assault weapon is a point of contention and often varies on the jurisdiction. When the House first reintroduced Federal Assault Weapons Ban passed in 1994, the U.S. House voted to further add, "In general, assault weapons are semiautomatic firearms with a large magazine of ammunition that were designed and configured for rapid fire and combat use."

FLORIDA

Florida Gov. Rick Scott signed a bill in March that raises the minimum age to purchase a firearm to 21 from 18, requires a three-day waiting period for firearm purchases, bans the sale or possession of bump-fire stocks, and allows some teachers to be armed.

WASHINGTON

Gov. Jay Inslee signed a bill in March making it a crime to manufacture or sell the bump stocks starting in July 2018. Starting in July 2018, it will be illegal to buy, own, furnish, assemble, repair, loan, transport or possess bump stocks in the state. The Washington State Patrol is creating a bump stock buyback program for $150 per device.

NEW JERSEY

Gov. Phil Murphy signed an executive order on April 3 requiring some information related to gun offenses be made available to the public, including quarterly reports on what states guns used in crimes had come from. More than 80 percent of the guns used in crimes committed in New Jersey came from outside the state, according to the New Jersey's Office of the Attorney General.

NEW YORK

Gov. Andrew M. Cuomo announced in March the passage of legislation to remove guns from domestic abusers. The legislation closes a loophole in state law in order to ensure domestic abusers are required to surrender all firearms, not just handguns. The legislation also ensures individuals wanted for a felony or other serious offense are not able to obtain or own a firearm license.

OREGON

Gov. Kate Brown signed a measure that bans people convicted of stalking and domestic violence or under restraining orders from buying or owning firearms and ammunition.

RHODE ISLAND

Gov. Gina Raimondo signed an executive order establishing a "red flag" policy to prevent people from having guns if they are deemed a danger to themselves or others.

SOUTH DAKOTA

Gov. Dennis Daugaard in March signed an act to require a National Instant Criminal Background Check for certain convicted carry permits.

Gun Control Controlling The Governments Guns:

Guns and Contemporary Society Glenn H. Utter, 2015-12-01 This three volume set examines various approaches to firearms including constitutional and legal issues public health and criminal justice concerns and perspectives on personal safety and self defense Recent mass shootings have led to renewed calls for additional legislation at the state and federal levels to address gun access and control In this hard hitting compilation experts delve into various aspects of firearms in America from gun control and gun rights to militia movements to school related shootings and to the recent trends in gun ownership by women Authors from varied backgrounds and viewpoints share their perspectives on the pros and cons of firearm ownership as all of the following a constitutional right a key instrument of self defense a guarantee of political freedoms and as a major factor in crime and personal injury The reference is divided into three volumes The first volume covers firearm history legislation and policy the second volume explores public opinion gun ownership trends international laws and self defense and the third considers popular debates about firearm policy including concealed carry of firearms terrorism and the ownership of firearms background checks for purchasing guns and stand your ground laws The work concludes with an informed debate on gun policy between Richard Feldman president of the Independent Firearm Owners and Paul Helmke former president of the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence

Firearms control Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2010-12-20 The Home Affairs Committee reports that well designed legislation which regulates and restricts the legal supply of firearms can help to reduce gun crime The committee recognises that thousands of people use firearms responsibly for recreation and in their work It has no intention of restricting such activity However the committee today concludes that interpreting and applying the current 34 pieces of legislation governing the control of firearms places an onerous burden on the police and on members of the public who wish to abide by the law because it is so complex and confused In particular the committee recommends introducing one licensing system to cover all firearms which require a licence and identifies age restrictions on firearms use as a particular area of uncertainty Although the majority of firearms related crimes are not committed with licensed firearms the committee is also concerned about the use of legally owned weapons in domestic shootings including those related to domestic abuse The Committee has several recommendations including a review of the minimum age limits on the use of firearms and eligibility for firearms certificates recommends tighter restrictions and clearer guidance to the police on the granting of firearms and shotgun licences to individuals who have engaged in criminal activity considering requiring the police to consult the domestic partners of licence applicants in making the decision as to whether to grant a licence suggests that the Government considers requiring advocates raising the fees charged to applicants so that it covers the costs of licensing to ensure that police spending cuts do not jeopardise the rigour of the licensing process Finally the committee was concerned at evidence of the significant criminal threat posed by reactivated and converted firearms in response to tighter regulations on genuine lethal weapons Gun Culture or Gun Control? Peter Squires, 2012-12-06 n 1996 the shooting and killing of 16 young children in a Dunblane primary school provoked wide reaching parliamentary reform to British gun laws Within months virtually all privately owned handguns had been outlawed Gun Culture or Gun Control presents the first substantial analysis of the social and political reactions to events in Dunblane and also examines many of the wider issues relating to gun control in the United Kingdom Rigorously comparative throughout Peter Squires provides a non partisan exploration of the differences between attitudes to firearms and their control in Britain and in the United States Amongst the topics the author considers are the social history of firearms on both sides of the atlantic the differing policy directions adopted in Britain and the USA media coverage of the gun question firearms and policing the future of the gun in society The Bias Against Guns John R. Kent Weaver, 2003-04-01 Democratic government is about making choices Sometimes those choices involve the distribution of benefits At other times they involve the imposition of some type of loss a program cut increased taxes or new regulatory standards Citizens will resist such impositions if they can or will try to punish governments at election time The dynamics of loss imposition are therefore a universal if unpleasant element of democratic governance The Government Taketh Away examines the repercussions of unpopular government decisions in Canada and the United States the two great democratic nations of North America Pal Weaver and their contributors compare the capacities of the U S presidential system and the Canadian Westminster system to impose different types of losses symbolic losses gun control and abortion geographically concentrated losses military base closings and nuclear waste disposal geographically dispersed losses cuts to pensions and to health care and losses imposed on business telecommunications deregulation and tobacco control Theory holds that Westminster style systems should all things being equal have a comparative advantage in loss imposition because they concentrate power and authority though this can make it easier to pin blame on politicians too The empirical findings of the cases in this book paint a more complex picture Westminster systems do appear to have some robust abilities to impose losses and US institutions provide more opportunities for loss avoiders to resist government policy in some sectors But in most sectors outcomes in the two countries are strikingly similar The Government Taketh Away is essential for the scholar and students of public policy or comparative policy It is also an important book for the average citizen who wants to know more about the complexities of living in a democratic society where the government can give but how it can also sometimes painfully taketh away
