G. Wells, 2024-12-12 The War of the Worlds is a science fiction novel by English author H G Wells It was written between 1895 and 1897 and serialised in Pearson's Magazine in the UK and Cosmopolitan magazine in the US in 1897 The full novel was first published in hardcover in 1898 by William Heinemann The War of the Worlds is one of the earliest stories to detail a conflict between humankind and an extraterrestrial race The novel is the first person narrative of an unnamed protagonist in Surrey and his younger brother who escapes to Tillingham in Essex as London and Southern England are invaded by Martians It is one of the most commented on works in the science fiction canon The plot is similar to other works of invasion literature from the same period and has been variously interpreted as a commentary on the theory of evolution imperialism and Victorian era fears superstitions and prejudices Wells later noted that inspiration for the plot was the catastrophic effect of European colonisation on the Aboriginal Tasmanians Some historians have argued that Wells wrote the book to encourage his readership to question the morality of imperialism At the time of publication it was classified as a scientific romance like Wells's earlier novel The Time Machine The Common Sense of War and Peace H. G. Wells, 2016-09-01 This book is a detailed analysis of war within which Wells explores why the Second World War was being fought what would happen when it ended what aims should be set and the possibility of a future where humanity doesn't destroy itself through war A fascinating and thought provoking treatise The Common Sense of War and Peace will appeal to those with an interest in WWII and is not to be missed by fans and collectors of H G Wells work Contents
