Forgiveness John Lippitt, 2020 Love's Forgiveness combines a discussion of the nature and ethics of forgiveness with a discussion inspired by Kierkegaard of the implications of considering interpersonal forgiveness as a work of love. It introduces the reader to some key questions that have exercised recent philosophers of forgiveness, discussing the relationship between forgiveness and an extended notion of resentment, considering whether forgiveness should be conditional or unconditional, showcasing a particular understanding of the latter and arguing that there are legitimate forms of third-party forgiveness. It then introduces the idea of forgiveness as a work of love through a discussion of Kierkegaard's key New Testament passages on forgiveness and some contemporary work on the philosophy of love. Drawing on both philosophy and the New Testament, it offers an understanding of forgiveness that incorporates both agapic love and a proper concern for justice. John Lippitt explores religious and secular uses of key metaphors for forgiveness and the idea of forgivingness as a character trait, suggesting that seeking to correct for various cognitive biases is key to the development of such a virtue and connecting it to other putative virtues such as humility and hope. Lippitt draws on both Kierkegaard's discourse literature and contemporary philosophical work on these latter characteristics before turning to a discussion of the nature of self-forgiveness. Throughout the book, the philosophical and theological literature is rooted in a discussion of various forgiveness narratives, including Helen Prejean's Dead Man Walking, Thordis Elva and Tom Stranger's South of Forgiveness, and Ian McEwan's Atonement.

Canon,

Covenant and Christology Matthew Barrett, 2020-03-24 The divine inspiration of Scripture may be confidently affirmed from Paul's epistles However it is hard to find such an explicit approach from Jesus and the Gospels In this NSBT volume Matthew Barrett argues that Jesus and the apostles have just as convictional a doctrine of Scripture as Paul or Peter but it will only be discovered if the Gospels are read within their own canonical horizon and covenantal context

Luke's

Rhetorical Compositions Paul Elbert, 2022-07-19 Luke's Rhetorical Compositions offers new ideas in Lukan scholarship especially in regard to Aelius Theon's first century rhetoric manual Progymnasmata and inter textual Lukan Pauline biblical studies Two chapters deserve special mention the material in chapter 3 is a groundbreaking discussion of Acts 2:38 in which its Greek verb tense speaks to the subsequent reception of the gift of the Holy Spirit following salvation not coincident with salvation In Acts 2:38 it is Luke's intention to portray Peter as promising the gift of the Holy Spirit to hearers and to those beyond narrative time as a Pentecostal experience Chapter 9 discusses Luke s use of progymnasmatic examples in his descriptions of the salvation experience It also discusses Luke s clarification of Paul using narrative persuasion from Jesus tradition and history Also Luke s use of basic soteriological vocabulary provides clarity and plausibility His distinctive selection of examples from the Jesus tradition and his duplication of Paul s soteriological vocabulary is very helpful
