Luke Zondervan Exegetical Commentary On The New Testament Series Book 3:

NEW TESTAMENT CONTEXTUAL COMMENTARY Dr. Robert R. Seyda, 2024-03-26 The Apostle John tells his readers he has an important message to tell them It is about a person who was already there before the beginning of the world We heard him speak We've seen Him with our own eyes We watched Him and we touched Him He is the Word that gives us life with God This is the message God is completely good and pure He is like light There is nothing dark about Him Amazingly John tells us that one of the things Jesus wanted us to understand is that by loving others we love God Yes we do make mistakes and so do other believers but we are not to hold that against them because just as we were given forgiveness by God's mercy and grace since we are in union with His Son so can they What we are not to do is claim access to this privilege but then live like those in the world Our goal is not just life but eternal life After all we are God's children and no child of God keeps on sinning after they are born again through Jesus the Anointed One

Old Testament Conceptual Metaphors and the Christology of Luke's Gospel Gregory R. Lanier, 2018-08-23 Extensive scholarship has been devoted to Jesus' depiction in the Gospels and how such depiction is influenced by the Old Testament Gregory R Lanier presents a new case for the importance of conceptual metaphor arguing that the Gospel of Luke employs certain metaphors reflected in Israel's traditions such as horn of salvation dawn from on high mother bird gathering Jerusalem's children and crushing stone in order to portray the identity of Jesus as both an agent of salvation and more provocatively the one God of Israel Setting his argument at the intersection of three sub-fields of New Testament scholarship early Christology the use of Israel's Scriptures in the New Testament and contemporary metaphor theory Lanier suggests ways to overcome the low-high binary and perceive the Gospel's Christology as multi-faceted Applying metaphor theory to the influence of the Old Testament metaphors on Luke's Christology Lanier adds methodological rigor to the tracing of such influences in cases where standard criteria for quotations and allusions echoes are stretched thin
