Elements of Literature, Grade 7 Holt Rinehart & Winston, Holt, Rinehart and Winston Staff, 2001-11 Elements of Literature, 2000 State adopted textbook 2001 2007 grade 7 Using the Internet to Strengthen Curriculum Larry Lewin, 2001-05-15 Today's students literally grew up with the Internet. For too many students though, the glowing computer screen in front of them is just another game platform, shopping mall, or telephone line. But teachers who can help students use the Internet as a learning tool will improve their instruction and their students' learning. Using the Internet to Strengthen Curriculum is not a technical book; rather, it is a book about teaching. Its focus is on helping teachers learn how to bring the Internet's World Wide Web into their classrooms and to encourage students to tap into this incredible informational resource. Using strategies provided by author Larry Lewin, teachers can help students use search engines effectively. Quickly find Web sites and understand their content. Conduct sound research. Think critically to learn independently. Avoid plagiarism. Construct presentations on what they have learned. Through dozens of examples and strategies such as the Pre-Search, We-Search, and Free-Search, this book serves as an invaluable reference tool for teachers, media specialists, and technology coordinators. The Best for Our Children Maria de la Luz Reyes, John J. Halcon, 2001. This watershed volume brings together the foremost leading authorities and scholars lending their individual voices to a single urgent issue: literacy for Latino students. In a departure from traditional paradigms, Latinos examine their own lived experiences in U.S. schools and offer sound theories born from positions of expertise and first-hand knowledge as researchers and educators. Their discussions and critical perspectives on literacy for Latino students in grades K-12 touch on the important topics of Encouraging biliteracy in the classroom, Constructing theories of possibility, Promoting critically literate youth, Organizing teaching and learning to students' potential, Linking literacy to lived experiences. As insiders in Spanish-speaking communities that are often maligned for their children's alleged failure in schools, these authors offer hope for children's academic potential as well as evidence showing that integration of native language and culture in supportive learning environments can lead to success in literacy in two languages. Contributors: Alma Flor Ada, Hector Alvarez, Maria V. Balderrama, Patricia Baquedano Lopez, Lilia I. Bartolome, Maria Echiburu, Berzins Esteban, Diaz Barbara Flores, Maria E. Frunquiz, Kris D. Gutierrez, Bobbi Ciriza Houtchens, Robert T. Jimenez, Eloise Andrade, Laliberty Alice Lopez, Roberta Maldonado, Carmen I. Mercado, Luis C. Moll, Rosa Zubizarreta. In this illuminating volume, the authors courageously challenge the assumption of a skill-based English-only literacy for Latinos. By shifting the literacy debate to a sociocultural terrain, they urge readers to confront the prevailing issues of racism, classism, gender, and economic deprivation that characterize the literacy of Latino/Latina students in the U.S. public schools. Simply put, this volume provides readers with the necessary political clarity to understand and appreciate what it means to be literate in the changing multilingual and multicultural world of the 21st century.
