Faced with a classroom of 25 students each with very different needs, how can we possibly keep every student on track and motivated? Through formative assessment and efficient follow-up instruction, this start-to-finish guide will show you how through seven classroom-tested practices for maximizing student learning. Experts on this subject, Leslie Laud and Pooja Patel, demonstrate how to establish new classroom norms, involve students in the use of assessment data and feedback to inform their next steps, clarify end-of-unit criteria to help map learning progression, apply assessment data to group students for tiered activities, differentiate assignments based on student readiness characteristics and interest. Best of all, Using Formative Assessment to Differentiate Middle School Literacy Instruction is packed with vignettes, sample worksheets, and charts to assist you through each step in the process. Armed with this tool kit, you'll quickly discover new ways to keep all students engaged in their learning. Book jacket      Reading & Writing in the Middle Years David Booth, 2001 An exploration of the latest and most successful approaches to teaching reading and writing to students in grades four to eight, students in these middle school years are already reading and writing, but they need help in continuing to develop their literacy strategies and in constructing meaning with a variety of resources. It begins with the basic information that teachers need for understanding the reading and writing processes and offers techniques for making literacy events meaningful to these growing students. Suggestions are made for how to make connections to print texts and the students' world, how to expand and monitor comprehension, and how to design instructional frameworks for supporting developing readers and writers and effective ways to make nonfiction more meaningful for them. Rubrics, assessment checklists, and a bibliography complement this accessible resource.      Writing Anchors Jan Wells, Janine Reid, 2004 This comprehensive handbook shows teachers how to build a foundation for writing with effective lessons that are the key to powerful writing workshops. Writing Anchors demonstrates how to create a supportive classroom model, writing experiences, and create enthusiasm for writing among students. The practical lessons explore the major elements of writing with explicit strategies for teaching the major forms of writing: informational writing, detailed descriptions of ways to take and organize notes, use text features, and create reports that have voice; Poetry and personal writing; language choice; imagery using the senses; and finding the personal pulse of the writer. Narrative extends writing skills with lessons on story sequence, problem solving, and character development. The lessons form metacognitive anchors that build an understanding of the elements of powerful writing. Each lesson comes with an anchor cue card that prompts students to apply their growing understandings independently in writing workshops and in assessing their own writing. In addition, the book provides more than thirty effective tools that are ready to copy and use in the classroom: writing checklists, rubrics for assessment, graphic organizers, note-taking grids, semantic maps, story maps, tips for proofing, and student examples collected from grade 2-7 classrooms.
