Argumentative Writing in a Second Language Alan R. Hirvela, Diane Belcher, 2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors own teaching and research experiences The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context Thus this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings While doing so it provides a comprehensive wide ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens Part I of the volume is topic oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught The book will be of value to pre service and in service teachers in varying instructional contexts as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars researchers Climate Change Education Across Disciplines K-12 Lauren Madden, 2025-02-15 Climate change is one of the greatest challenges humanity has ever faced One of the most effective ways to combat climate change is education In New Jersey standards to support teaching and learning about climate change were introduced for children of all ages beginning in 2022 In this edited volume experts from across the state offer strategies suggestions advice and vignettes to support educators as they begin to implement climate change instruction in their classrooms With a foreword by our state s First Lady Tammy S Murphy it also includes a scientific perspective on the effects of climate change in New Jersey the history of climate change education in the US and perspectives from colleagues in other states who are also beginning to adopt instructional practices to address this important topic Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2015-01-30 Now in its fifth edition Doing History offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The premise is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and analyzing data examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts Grounded in contemporary sociocultural theory and research the text features vignettes in each chapter showing communities of teachers and students doing history in environments rich in literature art writing discussion and debate The authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory Doing History emphasizes diversity of perspectives in two ways readers encounter students from a variety of backgrounds and students themselves look at history from multiple perspectives It provides clear guidance in using multiple forms of assessment to evaluate the specifically historical aspects of children's learning Common Core Curriculum: English, Grades 6-8 Great Minds, 2014-05-06 Common Core's English resources empower educators to meet the expectations of the Common Core State Standards CCSS for English Language Arts ELA and build essential content knowledge for students in grades 6-8 Each grade in The Wheatley Portfolio features a comprehensive coherent sequence of thematic units that engage students in deep study of worthwhile texts and topics Features of this book include Six thematic units for each grade each centered on a curated collection of literary and informational texts Focus standards for each unit that complement the topic and promote student mastery of essential literacy skills Suggested texts and activities to incorporate science art and history into English instruction This revised second edition includes a sample text study that guides students through a close read of an exemplary text updated web resources and refreshed suggested works Educators who create their curriculum based on Common Core's Wheatley Portfolio guarantee that students are exposed to content rich instruction and have ample opportunity to master the reading writing speaking listening and language skills articulated in the CCSS for ELA
