Great Commission Companies The Emerging Role Of Business In Missions:

Great Commission Companies Steven Rundle, Tom A. Steffen, 2013-04-23 In this landmark book economist Steve Rundle and missiologist Tom Steffen offer their paradigm for the convergence of business and missions the Great Commission Company This revised and expanded edition provides new and updated case studies of Great Commission Companies in diverse contexts around the world Discovering the Mission of God Mike Barnett, Robin Martin, 2012-07-03 Written by a team of 21st century scholar practitioners Discovering the Mission of God explores the mission of God as presented in the Bible expressed throughout church history and in cutting edge best practices being used around the world today Business as Mission C. Neal Johnson, 2011-10-10 C Neal Johnson offers the first comprehensive guide to business as mission BAM for practitioners He provides conceptual foundations for understanding BAM s unique place in global mission and prerequisites for engaging in it Then he offers practical resources for how to do BAM including strategic planning and step by step operational implementation Doing God's Business R. Paul Stevens, 2006-08-10 Stevens explores the potential of business as both a location for practicing everyday spiritual disciplines and a source of creativity and deeper relationship with God This volume should encourage and challenge businesspersons in all segments of the marketplace to more faithfully integrate their faith and work lives The Cape Town Commitment: A Confession of Faith, A Call to Action Darrell L. Bock, 2013-06-14 The Cape Town Commitment which arose from The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Cape Town 2010 stands in the historic line of The Lausanne Covenant 1974 and The Manila Manifesto 1989 It has been translated into twenty five languages and has commanded wide acceptance around the world The Commitment is set in two parts Part 1 is a Confession of Faith crafted in the language of covenantal love Part 2 is a Call to Action The local church mission agencies special interest groups and Christians in the professions are all urged to find their place in its outworking This annotated bibliography of The Cape Town Commitment arranged by topic has been compiled by specialists in a range of fields As such it is the first bibliography of its kind Arranged in sections for graduate level teaching Equally useful for research students Business As Mission Tom Steffen, Mike Barnett, 2002-09-01 To put it bluntly business as mission BAM is a work in progress It is a field that needs definition theological clarity and missiological focus Our call for papers for our regional conferences is timely to make a pivotal contribution in a sea of some confusion and even controversy Doug Pennoyer Dean of SIS Biola University and President of EMS This volume will provide some definition and precision while identifying areas that demand further discussion The Coming Revolution in Church Economics Mark DeYmaz, 2019-10-15 Our entire understanding of funding and sustainability must change Tithes and offerings alone are no longer enough to provide for the needs of the local church enable pastors to pursue opportunities or sustain long term ministry impact Growing financial burdens on the middle class marginal increases in contributions to religious organizations shifting generational attitudes toward giving and changing demographics are having a negative impact on church budgets

Given that someday local churches may be required to pay taxes on the property they own and or lose the benefit of soliciting tax deductible gifts the time to pivot is now What s needed is disruptive innovation in church economics For churches to not only survive but thrive in the future leaders must learn to leverage assets bless the community empower entrepreneurs and create multiple streams of income to effectively fund mission You ll learn why you should and how to do so in The Coming Revolution in Church Economics A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon,2005 Business in Islam

Robert J. Stefan,2020-02-23 We are pleased to offer this fifth title in our APTS Press Monograph Series This is the publication of the author s doctoral dissertation done through the Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne Indiana USA The purpose of this series is to give our readers broader access to good scholarship that would otherwise be unavailable outside of the academic community This is part of our ongoing commitment to discipleship through publishing Christian mission organizations have enthusiastically embraced business as a means of entry for Christian workers who might not otherwise be able to get into these nations especially MMNs However the embracing of business raises some immediate concerns In light of existing tensions between business and Islam won t missions connected businesses be under the same cloud of conflict More importantly isn t the Gospel put under this cloud thereby negatively impacting the spread of the kingdom of God Also if the business and mission companies expatriate owners and employees are western especially American won t the conflicts inevitably intensify And if so are there ways such entities can be operated in order to minimize the conflict with Islamic sensitivities This book will address these and other related questions Mission Partnership in Creative Tension Samuel

Cueva,2015-04-14 Samuel Cueva has refined his concept of partnership in mission by advocating the use of reciprocal contextual collaboration in this important contribution to scholarly reflection on contemporary missiology Referencing historical theological and functional aspects of how mission has been carried out as well as analyzing it s impact on the evangelical movement the author identifies that mission always develops with positive and negative tensions Emphasizing an understanding of current missions which include traditional networking and emergent models and how they can be combined interconnected and interchanged the author proposes a fresh model that ensures the suitability for every mission context

Brazilian Evangelical Missions in the Arab World Edward L. Smither,2012-07-20 From a mission field to a missions sender These words capture the story of the Brazilian evangelical church which has gone from receiving missionaries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to becoming a movement that presently sends out more global laborers than the churches of England or Canada do After narrating Brazil s missional shift in this volume Smither addresses one fascinating element of the story Brazilian evangelical efforts in the Arab world How have Brazilians adapted culturally among Arabs how have they approached ministry and how have they cultivated a theology of mission in the process Brazilian Evangelical Missions in the Arab World gives the reader insights from one emerging missions movement with an eye toward a more comprehensive view of the global church BAM Global Movement Gea Gort,2018-04-18 Business as Mission BAM is a growing global movement

Christians active in the arena of business charity and ministry are on a journey to integrate business with holistic mission But what exactly is BAM In this book Gea Gort and Mats Tunehag explain the BAM concept through theory and theology with stories to show what it looks like in real life The authors explain that Business as Mission is an expression of a much broader movement Ideas regarding mission church and charity are shifting and growing number of Christians are aiming for a missional way of living out the whole incarnated gospel in their daily lives where they work and live The inspiring stories of thirty practitioners active on all continents provide insight into how the gospel can be shared in innovative and practical ways in challenging settings in developing nations secularized Western cities or even closed countries This book will not only capture your mind and heart as you learn about Business as Mission in theory and praxis but it will also give you a broad overview of this remarkable movement This book provides insight into this global movement and is of interest for a broad range of people pioneers early adapters and leaders within church missionaries and business leaders as well as for Bible schools and universities Dr Gea Gort a trained journalist studied Transformational Leadership in the Global Urban Context at Bakke Graduate University in Seattle where she serves as adjunct faculty and regional board member She is passionate about innovative mission in an urban and global context In her hometown of Rotterdam Holland she initiated City Prayer directed a Christian leaders network and advised the government on multicultural affairs Gea has authored several books in Dutch and in English Mats Tunehag is a speaker writer and consultant from Sweden For over twenty years he has focused on developing the Business as Mission BAM concept as well as national regional and global strategic alliances of people and BAM initiatives A global lecturer he is also a BAM senior leader in the Lausanne Movement and the World Evangelical Alliance

The Mission of Development, 2018-05-29 The Mission of Development interrogates the complex relationships between Christian mission and international development in Asia from the 19th century to the new millennium Through historically and ethnographically grounded case studies contributors examine how missionaries have adapted to and shaped the age of development and processes of technocratisation as well as how mission and development have sometimes come to be cast in opposition The volume takes up an increasingly prominent strand in contemporary research that reverses the prior occlusion of the entanglements between religion and development It breaks new ground through its analysis of the technopolitics of both development and mission and by focusing on the importance of engagements and encounters in the field in Asia

Missiology John Mark Terry, 2015-09-01 Thoroughly updated and revised with half of the chapters new to the second edition Missiology equips the reader with a vast graduate level resource on contemporary missions

Effective Engagement in Short-Term Missions Robert J. Priest, 2008-09-15 Effective Engagement in Short term Missions represents the single most ambitious effort to date to understand and improve upon patterns of ministry in STM In six sections the authors explore topics such as the links between STM and older patterns of long term missions engagement with people of other cultures international partnerships specialized ministries such as medical missions legal and financial liabilities and last but not least the impact of STM on participants The goal of this book is to improve the ways in which STM is carried out and to improve the understandings needed on the part of all who engage in the ministry In short this book attempts to provide a knowledge base for those who provide leadership within the short term missions movement Youth pastors mission pastors lay leaders college and seminary students and missiologists will all find information that is helpful and relevant to their concerns

The Facilitator Era Tom Steffen,2011-01-01 Some time ago Ralph Winter brilliantly identified three eras of modern missions Era 1 William Carey focused on the coastlands Era 2 Hudson Taylor focused on the inlands Era 3 Donald McGavran and Cameron Townsend focused on unreached peoples With all the fast and furious changes swirling around us today in twenty first century missions have we entered a Fourth Era If so who are the people primarily involved How are they selected How are they trained How long do they serve Has the Third Era ministry focus reaching the unreached changed If so to what Are there any successful case studies out there Have McGavran and Townsend passed the baton to a new leader s If so to whom This book seeks to answer these and related questions Contributors include Dr Ben Beckner Dr Monroe Brewer Dr Don Finley Mike Griffis Dr Gary Hipp MD Jerry Hogshead Kaikou Maisu Judy Manna Kenn Oke Dr A Sue Russell Dr Robert Strauss Peter Swann Bryan Thomas Diane Thomas Dr Mike Wilson Dr Sherwood G Lingenfelter

On Kingdom Business Tetsunao Yamamori,Kenneth A. Eldred,2003 This book provides a conceptual foundation for kingdom entrepreneurship and explores its development using case studies of kingdom businesses and reflecting on the lessons kingdom entrepreneurs have already learned

"Kingdom-Minded" People Denise Austin,2011-09-20 During the early twentieth century in China a number of key economic leaders converted to Christianity Whilst strongly influenced by cultural heritage powerful modernizing forces and tumultuous political changes the new Christian identity inculcated by Protestant missionaries motivated these entrepreneurs to modify their business practices improve their social environment and extend the influence of Christianity Protestant and Catholic sojourners likewise made significant contributions into their adopted communities With unprecedented economic growth in China today a fascinating contemporary parallel can be seen particularly through the influence of Pentecostal charismatic and evangelical training Previous research has explored the emergence of the urban Christian lite in modern China However this systematic study provides new understanding of how Christian identity motivates Chinese business Christians toward economic social and religious contribution

Labor Evangelicals Ken Estey,2024-10-12 Labor Evangelicals studies theologically conservative working class evangelicals in the United States who resist the common preconception that they eagerly embrace deregulation unfettered markets and globalized capital Methodologically this book studies evangelical workers at the grassroots level to discern the complexity of their perspectives about work unions class and power This book shows how white and African American evangelicals think about labor in working class communities in Bethlehem Pennsylvania and Moncure North Carolina

Roots and Remedies of the Dependency Syndrome in World Missions Robert Reese,2010-06-17 The Christian movement is entering a new postcolonial era with centers of the faith on all continents American Christians have often felt uniquely qualified to lead this growing movement because of a long history of sending missionaries and funding mission projects Yet something is hampering the relationship between Western and non Western churches preventing the dynamic synergism that Christians might expect

Roots and Remedies of the Dependency Syndrome in World Missions Robert Reese identifies this hindrance as the Dependency Syndrome a relic of colonial mission methods With three decades of experience in Zimbabwe Reese explains the roots of dependency and how this continues to cloud the vision of many well meaning Western Christians He documents the tragic results of relying too much on foreign ideas institutions personnel and funding that sideline non Western churches from fulfilling the Great Commission Reese addresses remedies for dependency examining healthy mission models tried and tested since the days of the apostle Paul From issues that arise from globalization to best mission practices in the twenty first century Roots and Remedies aims to achieve what most Christians are seeking but find elusive how all parts of the diverse Body of Christ around the world can cooperate productively to bring Christ where He is not now known without creating dependency
