second part of this volume some of Selous's friends shed light on the great hunter. Included are essays by Theodore Roosevelt and the great journalist W. T. Stead who gives a fascinating analysis of Selous's entire life. Also included is an article published in 1896 in the Daily News that was written by a pushy journalist who hopped into a hansom cab occupied by Selous. The revealing conversation the journalist recorded as the two rode together through London is not to be missed. You will marvel at how the writings collected in this volume make Selous seem like flesh and blood. As in the other Selous book by Safari Press, this volume is extensively annotated by Dr. James Casada with comments and biographical notes. Handguns 2001 Ken Ramage, 2000-08. The Arctic, the Inuit, and the Polar Bear Dave Hill,2016-03-22 The Arctic The Inuit and the Polar Bear is a account of the most unexpected and incredible experience that I had ever had living with three Inuits well within the Arctic circle I became part of their extended family and for three weeks I worked slept and ate with them eating Inuit food which is high in protein and fat and low in carbohydrates I had to adapt to their diet culture and to twenty four hours of daylight this was very hard to do as there is no dawn or dusk to indicate the start and finish of each day None of this was planned it seemed like fate that I was destined to go and celebrate my sixtieth birthday in a remote part of the world and if I had learned about it earlier in Life I would have jumped in with both feet at such an opportunity I learned first hand of how they cope with a complete change in their lifestyle from being a nomadic race to learning to live in the twenty first century by white man s rules In days gone by they were completely self sufficient but now they have to buy products from the south such as clothes snowmobiles and white man s food which has not done them any favours and has introduced obesity among other illnesses They now have to earn money to pay their way in our world and in their environment it is very difficult to do The hunt was very difficult and all of us were working over eighteen hours each day and only sleeping when we were exhausted At first it was difficult to realise that the temperatures were down to minus forty as the sky was blue and the sunshine made it appear warm but if you removed your gloves you could get frostbite within minutes After a two day journey on snowmobiles pulling our sledges from Arctic Bay to the hunting grounds we made base camp and from then on we reverted to using the dog sleighs this was truly unbelievable and was exciting to say the least it was remarkable how these dogs performed they did all that their master asked of them and even more How the could work as hard as they did on the minimum of food astounded me any other dog would have died For the first time in my life I was living with true hunters these guy do it not for sport but for pure necessity they needed food to survive They were true masters of their art At the start of our hunting day we released the dogs from their chains and harnessed them to their sledge in readiness to start our daily routine which often lasted eighteen hours before we returned to camp and tied the dogs to their chains where they stayed until the next day To be free in such a pristine and frozen wilderness and be as one with nature is something that I would love to repeat it was a remarkable twenty one days we started from Arctic Bay as three Induits with their client after two days I was part of the team and returned as close friends I was now part of their family and will remain so for ever I can t wait to go back in the summer and learn about how they survive and prepare for the winter to come J.A.
