K. Seung,2006-01-01 The author reads Goethe's Faust as the first epic written under Spinoza's influence He shows how its thematic development is governed by Spinoza's pantheistic naturalism He further contends that Wagner and Nietzsche have tried to surpass their mentor Goethe's work by writing their own Spinozan epics of love and power in The Ring of the Nibelung and Thus Spoke Zarathustra These Spinozan epics are designed to succeed the Christian epics in the Western literary tradition Whereas the Christian epics dared to groom human beings for their destiny in the supernatural world the Spinozan epics try to reinstate humanity as the children of Mother Nature and overcome their alienation from the natural world which had been dictated by the long reign of Christianity However it has been well noted that none of these new epics seems to hang together thematically as a coherent work By his Spinozan reading the author not only demonstrates the thematic unity of each of them singly but further illustrates their thematic relation with each other Simone de Beauvoir Elizabeth Fallaize,1998 Simone de Beauvoir was a prolific writer and feminist whose name has attracted a volatile mix of adulation and hostility This collection of critical responses to a wide range of Beauvoir's writing explores the changing perceptions of the woman and explores why her work remains influential today Llewellyn's Complete Book of Chakras Cyndi Dale,2015-11-08 The Ultimate Guide to Chakras and Energy Systems As powerful centers of subtle energy the chakras have fascinated humanity for thousands of years Llewellyn's Complete Book of Chakras is a unique and empowering resource that provides comprehensive insights into these foundational sources of vitality and strength Discover what chakras and chakra systems
