Great Philosophy Quotes A Cravens, 2015-12-17 A Critical Companion to Wes Craven John Darowski, Fernando Gabriel Pagnoni Berns, 2023-08-08 In A Critical Companion to Wes Craven contributors use a variety of theoretical frameworks to analyze distinct areas of Craven's work including ecology auteurism philosophy queer studies and trauma This book covers both the successes and failures contained in Craven's extensive filmography ultimately revealing a variegated portrait of his career Scholars of film studies horror and ecology will find this book particularly interesting The Sporting review, ed. by 'Craven'. John William Carleton, 1839 The Long Roots of Formalism in Brazil Luiz Renato Martins, 2018-01-09 The present studies on Brazilian modern art seek to specify some of the dominant contradictions of capitalism's combined but uneven development as these appear from the global periphery The grand project of Brasília is the main theme of the first two chapters which treat the ideal city as a case study in the ways in which creative talent in Brazil has been made to serve in the reproduction of social iniquities whose origins can be traced back to the agrarian latifundia Further chapters scrutinise the socio-historical basis of Brazilian art and develop against the grain of the most prominent art historical approaches to modern Brazilian culture a critical approach to the distinctly Brazilian visual language of geometrical abstraction The book contends that from the fifties up to today formalism in Brazil has expressed the hegemony of the market "The" Athenaeum, 1895 Life of Braxton Craven Jerome Dowd, 1896 Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1873 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1876

Theology and Wes Craven David K. Goodin, 2023-08-08 Theology and Wes Craven explores the religious themes in the movies television shows and other works of the man who redefined the horror genre with such landmark and notorious films as The Last House on the Left 1972 The Hills Have Eyes 1977 A Nightmare on Elm Street 1984 The Serpent and the Rainbow 1988 The People Under the Stairs 1991 and Scream 1996 This volume provides a retrospective for his entire career and then spotlights his most theologically intriguing works in chapters devoted to revealing Craven's narrative intent This collection brings together established scholars and new emergent voices in academia including feminist and LGBTQ perspectives who explore Craven's vision in relation to contemporary political social and economic issues especially as they related to children visible minorities the excluded and the disenfranchised This volume is sure to be appreciated both by academics and horror enthusiasts everywhere Daily Life in the Colonial City Keith T. Krawczynski, 2013-02-20 An exploration of day to day urban life in colonial America The American city was an integral part of the colonial experience Although the five largest cities in colonial America Philadelphia New York Boston Charles Town and Newport held less than ten percent of the American population on the eve of the American Revolution they were particularly significant for a people who resided mostly in rural areas and wilderness These cities and other urban hubs contained and preserved the European traditions habits customs and institutions from which their residents had emerged They were also centers of commerce transportation and communication held seats of colonial government and were conduits for the transfer of Old World cultures With a focus on the five largest cities but also including life in smaller urban centers Krawczynski's nuanced treatment will fill a significant gap on the reference shelves and serve as an essential source for students of American history sociology and culture In depth thematic chapters explore many aspects of urban life in colonial America including working conditions for men women children free blacks and slaves as well as strikes and labor issues the class hierarchy and its purpose in urban society childbirth courtship family and death housing styles and urban diet and the threat of disease and the growth of poverty

The Island Sanctuary Michelle MacQueen, Ann Maree Craven, 2022-02-03 Some stories change the world Others change the storyteller Leyla Priestly has spent her life chasing conflict camera in hand truth in focus As an award winning photojournalist she's seen the darkest corners of the world and captured the images that made headlines But one haunting photo leaves a mark even she can't outrun Burned out and spiraling Leyla is sent on a puff piece assignment to a remote island sanctuary off the coast of Maine home to a herd of wild horses and the gruff camera shy vet who cares for them Conrad Ashford doesn't need the press He needs peace But when Leyla storms into his world her sharp edges and haunted eyes stir something he's kept buried As Leyla tries to find a story worth telling she begins to see that healing doesn't come from headlines it comes from hope community and learning to stay still long enough to feel it Set against windswept shores and galloping hooves Island Sanctuary is a romantic women's fiction story of second chances quiet redemption and the kind of beauty that doesn't need to be chased to be found ACROSS BORDERS AND TIME: JONATHAN SWIFT Csaba Maczelka, David Clare, Andrew C. Rouse, Gabriella Hartvig, 2022-12-16 The volume Across Borders and Time: Jonathan Swift contains the papers delivered at the conference The World of Swift: Swift and his World which was dedicated to the 350th anniversary of the birth of Jonathan Swift. The conference was held on 24-25 November 2017 at the House of Arts and Literature, Pécs, and jointly organised by the Institute of English Studies of Pécs University and SPECHEL, the latter of which is also the publisher of this volume in its series SPECHEL editions. It also benefited from the support provided by the Irish Embassy in Budapest. That year also marked the 650th anniversary of Hungary's first university founded in Pécs in 1367 and so the conference honoured that event too. In this, the fifth SPECHEL edition series, editor Rouse joins up once again with SPECHEL member Gabriella Hartvig, an internationally respected scholar of the period and colleague at Pécs University, together with Irish Swiftian scholar David Clare. The volume comprises a selection of essays emanating from papers delivered at the conference celebrating the 350th anniversary of the Anglo-Irish writer Jonathan Swift, held in the anniversary year of 2017 and includes a paper delivered by the Irish Ambassador to Hungary that opened the conference. We are grateful to the Irish Embassy for their financial support as well as to a number of local businesses and the Mayor's Office of Pécs. The conference was organised by SPECHEL as part of the British and Irish Autumn 2017 series of events and included a recital of the music of the Irish harper Turlough O'Carolan 1670-1738.

The Founding of English America John May, 2024-05-24 In 1577 John Dee, a scientist who served as an advisor to Queen Elizabeth I, proposed to her the creation of colonies in the New World. Neither Elizabeth nor Walter Raleigh imagined the task would be so difficult or take more than 30 years. The effort started with an exploration of the coast of today's North Carolina and the settlement of a colony on Roanoke Island in 1585. This ended tragically and became known as The Lost Colony; its fate a mystery to this day. James I resumed the effort with the founding of Jamestown in 1607 on an island in the James River in today's Virginia. This book relates the histories of the Roanoke and Jamestown colonies to enable a full understanding of the founding of English America. Important events in America's beginnings, including the wreck of the Sea Venture which inspired William Shakespeare's The Tempest, the Algonquin chief Powhatan's plans to make the newcomers useful to him and the relationship between Pocahontas and English Captain John Smith are highlighted.

Horror at the Drive-In Gary D. Rhodes, 2015-09-03 Drive-in movie theaters and the horror films shown at them during the 1950s, 60s, and early 70s may be somewhat outdated but they continue to enthrall movie buffs today. More than just fodder for the satirical cannons of Joe Bob Briggs and Mystery Science Theatre 3000, they appeal to knowledgeable fans and film scholars who understand their influence on American popular culture. This book is a collection of eighteen essays by various scholars on the classic drive-in horror film experience. Those in Section One emphasize the roles of the drive-in theater in the United States and its cultural cousin Australia. Section Two examines how horror operated at the drive-in, the rhetoric used in coming attraction trailers, horror film premieres at drive-ins, double features and the preproduction production and marketing of Last House on the Left Section Three addresses the effects of the Vietnam War and counter culture on The Texas Chainsaw Massacre and the Cold War on Cat Women of the Moon Section Four explores gender issues and sexuality two of the most common and most important subjects of horror film analysis Section Five covers drive in culture via Hush Hush Sweet Charlotte 2000 Maniacs and the films of Mario Bava Section Six investigates a variety of issues such as the drive in horror film s embrace of DNA the use of cinematic form to create a non Hollywood look in Wizard of Gore and the many different prints and running times of I Drink Your Blood

Philosophical Readings of Shakespeare Margherita Pascucci,2015-12-24 This book offers a close philosophical reading of King Lear and Timon of Athens which provides insights into the groundbreaking ontological discourse on poverty and money Analysis of the discourse of poverty and the critique of money helps to read Shakespeare philosophically and opens new reflections on central questions of our own time The Philosophical magazine and journal ,1815 Moral Talk Joe Spencer-Bennett,2018-05-01 This book is about moral talk in contemporary British political discourse drawing on speeches debates and radio phone ins Using a critical sociolinguistic approach Spencer Bennett explores the language people use to communicate moral judgement and highlights the relations between the things that people say the contexts in which they are said and the circulating ideologies about meaning and morality This is key reading for students and scholars studying language politics and critical discourse analysis within linguistics and anthropology Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven,2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910 40 in Cuba 1959 89 and in Nicaragua 1979 90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement s artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution s attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process
