Greatest Fight World Charles Spurgeon:

The Greatest Fight in the World Charles Spurgeon, Revival Press, 2017-03-23 I may say to you as speakers that I am persuaded we should prepare ourselves with diligence and try to do our very best in our great Master's service I think I have read that when a handful of lion like Greeks held the pass against the Persians a spy who came to see what they were doing went back and told the great king that they were poor creatures for they were busied in combing their hair The despot saw things in a true light when he learned that a people who could adjust their hair before battle had set a great value on their heads and would not bow them to a coward's death If we are very careful to use our best language when proclaiming eternal truths we may leave our opponents to infer that we are still more careful of the doctrines themselves We must not be untidy soldiers when a great fight is before us for that would look like despondency Into the battle against false doctrine and worldliness and sin we advance without a fear as to the ultimate issue and therefore our talk should not be that of ragged passion but of well considered principle It is not ours to be slovenly since we look to be triumphant Do you work well at this time that all men may see that you are not going to be driven from it The Persian said when on another occasion he saw a handful of warriors advancing That little handful of men Surely they cannot mean fighting But one who stood by said Yes they do for they have burnished their shields and brightened their armour Men mean business depend upon it when they are not to be hurried into disorder It was the way amongst the Greeks when they had a bloody day before them to show the stern joy of warriors by being well adorned I think brethren that when we have great work to do for Christ and mean doing it we shall not go to the pulpit or the platform to say the first thing that comes to the lip If we speak for Jesus we ought to speak at our best though even then men are not killed by the glitter of shields nor by the smoothness of a warrior's hair but a higher power is needed to cut through coats of mail To the God of armies I look up May He defend the right But with no careless step do I advance to the front neither does any doubt possess me We are feeble but the Lord our God is mighty and the battle is the Lord's rather than ours Charles Spurgeon GET MORE BOOKS AT REVIVALPRESS.NET The Greatest Fight in the World Charles Haddon Spurgeon, 2018 Based on 1 Timothy 6:12 Fight the good fight of faith this was C H Spurgeon's final address to the students at the Pastors College in 1891 Identifying the great foes to be false doctrine worldliness and sin he focuses on the Bible as our armoury the sole authority for believers in all things the Church as all being involved in the battle and the Holy Spirit upon whom we depend entirely for success in the warfare The preaching ministry of C H Spurgeon saw thousands converted and he also worked tirelessly to inspire preachers to be valiant for the truth through the Pastors College He knew much of the warfare of which he spoke personal health challenges and his costly stand against doctrinal decline and compromise gave him insights which he shares here The clarion call to active service in The Greatest Fight in the World is as relevant today as when first delivered The Greatest Fight in the World Charles H. Campbell Morgan,2019-02-01 Outside of personally living for and loving the Lord there is arguably no greater work Christians can undertake than preaching the good news of Jesus Christ to the lost It may be that you do not yet have that burden on your heart or perhaps eternity itself is not yet a reality to you Or perhaps you have that burden but feel like there are no open doors for ministry available to you Your church may be cold and currently making no great impact in your community No matter your current circumstance only believe that the same One who commissions His people for His work also has sufficient resources to enable the work to move forward Only believe that as you dig into the Scriptures perhaps with the help of this book which serves as a biblical guide that the One who cares most for this work can also put that same burden and love into the hearts of you and your church While this book was originally written more than one hundred years ago it appears that it was written for such a time as this The author first challenges the reader regarding the need Then he addresses the church and how to engage your available help Specifics from inviting your community to your evangelistic events to how to conduct successful evangelism meetings are all covered in this invaluable volume Learn what evangelism is what it should look like and how to obtain the power to perform it using this updated edition of a timeless classic to spur you forward
