Guide Novel:

A Reader's Guide to the Novels of Louise Erdrich Peter G. Beidler, Gay Barton, 2006 A revised and expanded comprehensive guide to the novels of Native American author Louise Erdrich from Love Medicine to The Painted Drum Includes chronologies genealogical charts complete dictionary of characters map and geographical details about settings and a glossary of all the Ojibwe words and phrases used in the novels Provided by publisher A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L. Harner's Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse's volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal

The Fountainhead Reference Guide: a to Z Emre Gurgen, 2020-08-28 This Reference Guide takes the form of a Fountainhead Encyclopedia with several independent sections a complete character dictionary a dictionary of relationships between characters a lexicon of the book's buildings and media outlets a catalogue of the novel's various groups and associations a timeline of the book's events a classification of Ayn Rand's symbols and a directory of the Fountainhead's locations Besides organizing most of the Fountainhead's facts logically this Reference Guide also provides a table of Ayn Rand's fiction nonfiction a spreadsheet of works by Objectivist Intellectuals and a glossary of architectural terms It also analyzes some of the book's themes with reference to plot specifics So that Fountainhead scholars can cite neutral book facts to support their intellectual hopefully objectivist positions

Adams's pocket London guide book Edward Litt L. Blanchard, 1851 Landscape in American Guides and View Books Herbert Gottfried, 2013 Landscape in American Guides and View Books Visual History of Touring and Travel is vested in the American relationship to landscape and the role guidebooks and view books played in touring and travel experiences including immigration Early in the history of the republic the relationship to landscape turns visual that is landscapes inspire artistic responses in the form of written descriptions and visual representations The predominant element is the scene From the 1820s on scenic thinking within an emerging industrial economy characterizes a major cultural and social development As immigration increases within the country and from abroad publishers and trade groups create souvenir guidebooks and view books to facilitate the movement of people and to encourage economic expansion and tourism Guide and view book analysis centers on pictures of landscape transformations and includes the cultural basis of scenes changing from pastoral and picturesque expressions to the documentation of managed views The general acceptance of managed views as replacements for romantic ones illustrates a commitment to landscapes that denote utility and the influence of commercial and industrial urban centers on American life Guidebook and view book imagery composed of durable schemas promotes visual thinking across social classes and time The primary medium for souvenirs is the photograph which printing methods like photolithography transform into printed products The visual history of touring and travel is part of America's first visual culture as well as the social formation of landscape the emergence of a collective vision among souvenir producers and consumers and the role visual information plays in landscape commentary which is the literary context for printed souvenirs
