Death of A Beauty Queen E.R. Punshon,2015-06-01 Description Mr Sargent the manager of the Brush Hill Central Cinema wished he had never held a Beauty Competition Caroline Mears the predicted winner had already caused trouble with one of the other girls Paul Irwin a strong Puritan and influential councillor had taken it into his head to come backstage to look for his son Leslie who hoped to marry Caroline against his father s wishes Just as the winner of the competition was being announced different news spread through the cinema like lightning Caroline Mears had been murdered Superintendent Mitchell of Scotland Yard and his young sergeant Bobby Owen were faced with one of the most puzzling cases of their careers There were at least seven suspects against four of whom an equally good case could be made out There was Paul Irwin s maddening reiteration that he had nothing to say to all questions and a multitude of confusing evidence none of which fitted the main jigsaw puzzle Conundrums abound in this whodunit one which will keep even the most seasoned mystery reader guessing right to the very last page Death of A Beauty Queen is the fifth of E R Punshon s acclaimed Bobby Owen mysteries first published in 1935 and part of a series which eventually spanned thirty five novels This edition features a new introduction by crime fiction historian Curtis Evans What is distinction The few who achieve it step plot or no plot unquestioned into the first rank We recognized it in Sherlock Holmes and in Trent's Last Case in The Mystery of the Villa Rose in the Father Brown stories and in the works of Mr E R Punshon we salute it every time Dorothy L Sayers African Church Fathers - Ancient and Modern Hans S. A. Engdahl, 2021-01-26 This critical and close reading of two African theologians Origen 185-254 and Mbiti 1931-2019 focuses on the following areas philosophy African philosophy and religion and Platonic cosmology ecclesiology and eschatology a parallel presentation of these three themes leads to a fourth theme that of the resurrection where it is argued that there exists a consensus and a convergence between the two This reading also highlights two convictions that partly have caused strong criticism Mbiti has suggested that African philosophy and religion have a conception of time of their own Origen that all and everything is gradually moving towards an apokatastasis at which point all will be saved Yet the contention is that even more important to both Mbiti and Origen is the resurrection of Jesus Christ In order to establish the impact of the resurrection on their lives as Christians and as theologians a contrast reading has been undertaken i.e. texts are identified which underline the need to forge a link between the resurrection and the earthly ministry of Jesus These texts also underwrite the conviction of Mbiti as well as Origen of the resurrection as something which must be lived in church and society corporately as well as in personal devotion The fact of resurrection creates a new mode of life American Pigeon Journal, 1928 Christ, Church and World Michael Mawson, Philip G.
