CHAPTER 2 COURTS AND COURT PROCEDURE

Answers to Learning Objectives

(Page 11)

1. The function of the courts is to declare and apply judicial precedents and to interpret the laws passed by the legislative branch of government.
2. In our society, courts are bound by decisions of higher appellate courts. Therefore appellate courts bind trial courts and all courts, both federal and state, are bound by decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court.
3. The first step in filing a lawsuit is for the plaintiff to file a complaint or petition with the clerk of the court.
4. In a jury trial, the jury is selected and sworn in. The plaintiff and then the defendant make an opening statement. The plaintiff calls witnesses and they testify. The defendant then calls witnesses to testify. After all witnesses have testified and all the evidence has been presented, closing statements are made, the judge instructs the jury, and then the jury deliberates its verdict.

Lesson Outline

1. It is the function of courts to interpret and apply the law to a given situation.
2. The power or authority each court has to hear cases is called its jurisdiction. Courts must have jurisdiction over the subject matter of the case and over the person of the parties. The location in a court system in which the case is tried is called the venue.
3. Courts are classified as:
  - a. Federal courts
  - b. State courts
  - c. Municipal courtsCourts may also be classified as trial courts and appellate courts.
4. Appellate courts exercise considerable authority over the courts under them.
5. Federal courts are classified as:
  - a. Special federal courts to business people Covid-19 and Business Law Adnan Trakic, 2021-09-07 Harmonisation of law a term that refers to an effort to bring two different legal traditions in harmony with one another has developed a rather negative connotation over time when mentioned in the context of Shari ah and common law Harmonisation began to be looked at as an attempt by one legal system to impose its values on the other A major reason for that is the lack of understanding of the scope to which these two legal traditions converge One of the principal findings of this book is that Shari ah and common law have many more commonalities than differences As a result the need for harmonisation between the two might have been exaggerated The similarities do not need to be harmonised Rather they need to be acknowledged and appreciated If the differences between Shari ah and common law which undoubtedly exist as evidenced in this book are approached from the position of appreciation for commonalities the ambiance to reconcile the differences would be more conducive to the harmonisation process which would in that case be reflective of compromise This book is intended to help readers better understand Shari ah and common law and aid harmonization efforts when needed Scholarly Communication and the Publish or Perish
