Navarro, 2023-01-26 Liturgical theology tends towards the anthropocentric focussing primarily on the behaviour of the worshippers The theology of Thomas F and James B Torrance however provides an alternative approach a Trinitarian and Christocentric study of liturgy which decentralises the worshippers position in liturgy and focusses instead on Christ the One who is worshipped In Trinitarian Doxology Kevin J Navarro examines the Torrances theology explicating and illuminating their work whilst simultaneously providing critical analysis which provides a lens for deeper understanding

Young, 2015-10-20 This book reconsiders ways in which the cross of Christ was construed before atonement theories narrowed the categories The typology of Passover is explored as probably the very first way in which Christians came to understand the passion The use of sacrificial imagery is re examined The significance of identifying the cross with the Tree of Life is traced across the centuries into medieval times along with other surprising links with the Eden narrative The validity of seeking imaginative insights to grasp what the cross signifies is given theological consideration in a chapter that moves into literary and liturgical reflections and is punctuated with cruciform poems The overall outcome is a quite paradoxical focus not on death but on life
