Presenting poetry in storytime encourages a love of language and the chance to play with words. Written by authors with a combined 25 years of experience working with children and books in a library setting, Get Real With Storytime: 52 Weeks of Early Literacy Programming goes far beyond the typical storytime resource book by providing books and great ideas for using nonfiction and poetry with preschool children. This book provides a complete year-long programming guide for librarians who work with preschool children in public libraries and school librarians who run special programs for preschoolers as well as parents, childcare providers, and camp counselors. Each of the 52 broad storytime topics, one for each week of the year, includes a sample storytime featuring an opening poem, a nonfiction title picture book, songs, rhymes, or fingerplays, and a follow-up activity. Early literacy tips that are based on the authors' extensive experience and the principles of Every Child Ready to Read (ECRR) are presented throughout the book.

Empowering Families Judy Bradbury, Susan E. Busch, 2015-04-24 The home-school connection is important to student literacy achievement. However, it can be time-consuming to develop and implement programming that keeps families engaged and involved. Empowering Families makes it easier to accomplish these goals. Chock-full of step-by-step plans for arranging a variety of parent-caregiver meetings and literacy booster events, the book enables educators to get families involved in their children's learning in ways that are fun and non-intimidating. By hosting these events at your school, you'll be empowering families to read aloud to their children at home, minimize the summer slide, encourage male involvement in literacy, help their children avoid homework hassles, and much, much more. Bonus: The book includes ready-to-use handouts for your events, such as announcement sheets, follow-up evaluations, and tipsheets that describe ways parents can reinforce literacy at home. These handouts are photocopyable, and the tipsheets are also available for easy download from our website at www.routledge.com. 9781138803114. Spanish versions of the tipsheets are available on our website as well.
