Scania 113 and 143 at Work Patrick W. Dyer,2020-11-01 Patrick Dyer s ninth book in the at work series marks a return to Scania to study the 3 series trucks produced between 1988 and 1996 with the emphasis on the 113 and 143 models In much the same way as these trucks evolved from the previous 2 series and LB 1 series so too does the book taking the story forward from the previous titles covering those ranges For Scania masters of the modular system and evolutionary engineering processes the 3 series represented the pinnacle of development for designs born decades earlier Industry recognition of its achievement came early with the range being awarded the Truck of the Year title in 1989 With over 200 photographs provided by the manufacturer and enthusiasts Scania 113 143 at Work charts the story of the 3 series through informative text in the popular and familiar style of previous at work titles from the same author

Seventy Years of Farm Tractors 1930-2000 Brian Bell,2020-02-20 By the end of the twentieth century there were some half million tractors on British farms more machines than people to drive them Brian Bell s encyclopaedic book traces the evolution of the farm tractor from the days of starting handle and pan seat to current 4 wheel drive machines with air conditioned cabs and computer management systems He deals in particular with developments of the classic period from the 1950s to the 1990s The book is arranged alphabetically by manufacturer from Allis Chalmers to Zetor one hundred marques in total These are all machines to be found on British farms irrespective of their country of manufacture Brian runs concisely through the histories of the companies and their major models illustrated with a wealth of photographs and extracts from sales literature He adds some special features on items such as hydraulic systems and cold starting aids He includes a glossary and full index This book replaces the author s earlier successful Fifty Years of Farm Tractors Many of the photographs are new and the text has been brought up to date to include developments of the early twenty first century

Opencast Images Dave Wootton,2019-10-01 In the United Kingdom surface coal mining began in 1942 in response to a national shortage of deep mined coal By the 1980s when Dave Wootton began touring sites and taking photographs the industry was firmly established with major operations and very large machinery His fully captioned pictures cover the period from 1986 until British Coal Opencast BCO was privatised in 1994 There are panoramic shots showing the scale of operations and fine close ups of individual machines of many kinds at work He includes several walking draglines such as the 4000 ton Ace of Spades the largest of its kind in Europe Another record holder was O K s RH300 hydraulic shovel beautifully photographed by Dave at its Godkin Derbyshire workplace Dave visited some two dozen sites in Derbyshire Northumberland Yorkshire South Wales and elsewhere capturing the full range of surface mining activities The equipment was manufactured by famous names such as Caterpillar Ransomes Rapier and

Demag BCO used contractors so Wimpey Taylor Woodrow Fairclough and others are all seen playing their parts The surface mining industry has changed considerably since 1994 meaning that this collection of photographs has great historic interest for enthusiasts The author also includes a short history of BCO some machine specifications and copies of publicity material

Beyond the Bosphorus: British Drivers on the Middle-East Routes Dave Bowers,2015-07-01 The Middle East has always been one of the most challenging destinations for lorry drivers In the 1970s and 80s many drivers may not have even heard of the destinations they were sent to before heading out eastwards Along the way they endured extreme weather conditions bureaucratic nightmares and the physical trials of keeping themselves and their trucks operational over many thousands of miles of poorly maintained and dangerous roads Their adventures have become legendary within the trucking world In this book Dave Bowers tells with humour and insight the amazing stories of people driving to Middle East destinations battling against all the odds to deliver their loads The inspiration comes from his own experience through those routes and in particular on one adventurous journey homewards from Tehran in 1975 when he happened to be stranded in Iran with no cash to speak of and spending many nights sleeping in abandoned trailers along the way Dave travelled homewards after he was given lifts in trucks returning to Europe These were driven by drivers who had many tales to tell and this book was motivated by the need to keep these fascinating stories alive Illustrated with photographs of the drivers and vehicles taken at the time Beyond the Bosphorus records what it was like for ordinary HGV drivers to get involved in something so dramatically different from their everyday working lives in the UK It will be of interest to lorry drivers general vehicle enthusiasts and also those with a historical and social interest in the Middle East alike
