Animality and Humanity in French Late Modern Representations of Black Femininity Elodie Silberstein, 2022-08-25 This volume examines the evolution of the depictions of black femininity in French visual culture as a prism through which to understand the Global North's destructive relationship with the natural world Drawing on a broad spectrum of archives extending back to the late 18th century paintings fashion plates prints photographs and films this study traces the intricate ways a patriarchal imperialism and a global capitalism have paired black women with the realm of nature to justify the exploitation both of people and of ecosystems These dehumanizing and speciesist strategies of subjugation have perpetuated interlocking patterns of social injustice and environmental depletion that constitute the most salient challenges facing humankind today Through a novel approach that merges visual studies critical race theory and animal studies this interdisciplinary investigation historicizes the evolution of the boundaries between human and non human animals during the modern period The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies critical race theory colonial and post colonial studies animal studies and French studies

Radical Religious Thought in Black Popular Music. Five Percenters and Bobo Shanti in Rap and Reggae Martin A. M. Gansinger, 2017-12 This book is discussing patterns of radical religious thought in popular forms of Black music The consistent influence of the Five Percent Nation on Rap music as one of the most esoteric groups among the manifold Black Muslim movements has already gained scholarly attention However it shares more than a strong pattern of reversed racism with the Bobo Shanti Order the most rigid branch of the Rastafarian faith globally popularized by Dancehall Reggae artists like Sizzla or Capleton Authentic devotion or calculated marketing Apart from providing a possible answer to this question the historical shift of Bobo adherents from shunned extremists to firmly anchored personifications of authenticity in mainstream Rastafarian culture is being emphasized A multi layered comparative case study attempts to shed light on the re contextualization of language as well as expressed dogmatic perceptions and symbolism attitude towards other religious groups and aspects of ethnic discrimination Further analysis includes the visibility of artists and their references to practical and moral issues directly derived from two obscure ideologies that managed to conquer airwaves and concert halls

Semiconducting Black Phosphorus Han Zhang, Nasir Mahmood Abbasi, Bing Wang, 2021-10-24 Black phosphorus BP based two dimensional 2D nanomaterials are used as components in practical industrial applications in biomedicine electronics and photonics There is a need to controllably shape engineered scalable structures of 2D BP building blocks and their assembly organization is desired for the formation of three dimensional 3D forms such as macro and hybrid architectures as it is expected that these architectures will deliver even better materials performance in applications

Semiconducting Black Phosphorus From 2D Nanomaterial to Emerging 3D Architecture provides an overview of the various synthetic strategies for 2D BP single layer nanomaterials their scalable synthesis properties and assemblies into 3D architecture The book covers defect engineering and physical properties of black phosphorous describes different strategies for the development of 2D nanostructures of BP with other species such as polymers organic molecules and other inorganic materials offers a comparative study of 3D BP structures with other 3D architectures such as dichalcogenides TMDs graphene and boron nitride and discusses in detail applications of 3D macrostructures of BP in various fields such as energy biomedical and catalysis This is an essential reference for researchers and advanced students in materials science and chemical optoelectronic and electrical engineering
