The Methuen Drama Book of Post-Black Plays Eisa Davis, Christina Anderson, Marcus Gardley, Robert O'Hara, J. Nicole Brooks, Nikkole Salter, Danai Gurira, Diana Son, Young Jean Lee, 2013-12-02. Post-black refers to an emerging trend within black arts to find new and multiple expressions of blackness unburdened by the social and cultural expectations of blackness of the past and moving beyond the conventional binary of black and white. Reflecting this multiplicity of perspectives, the plays in this collection explode the traditional ways of representing black families on the American stage and create new means to consider the interplay of race with questions of class, gender and sexuality. They engage and critique current definitions of black and African American identity as well as previous limitations placed on what constitutes blackness and black theatre. Written by the emerging stars of American theatre such as Eisa Davis and Marcus Gardley, the plays explore themes as varied as family and individuality, alienation and gentrification and reconciliation and belonging. They demonstrate a wide range of formal and structural innovations for the American theatre and reflect the important ways in which contemporary playwrights are expanding the American dramatic canon with new and diverse means of representation. Edited by two leading US scholars in black drama, Harry J. Elam Jr. (Stanford) and Douglas A. Jones Jr. (Princeton), this cutting-edge anthology gathers together some of the most exciting new American plays selected by a rigorous academic backbone and explored in depth by supporting critical material.

Annual Review of Jazz Studies 2: 1983 Lewis Porter, 1995-05-23. Features Thelonious Monk, McCoy Tyner, Count Basie and John Coltrane. Fact and Fiction Dennis J. Carroll, 2011-11-14. My non-fiction is primarily drawn from childhood memories of Yulan, New York, a hamlet in Sullivan County during the late 1950s and early 60s. They are anchored in a clarity dictated by subjects illustrating and implying specific points. I consider writing an important and responsible act, part skill, part art, but always an enjoyable activity as seen through the lens of time and memory. In reading fiction, I have always been most interested in character-driven as opposed to plot-driven stories. Consequently, my written fictive efforts generally reflect this preference. My characters are drawn both from my experience as well as from my imagination. Their conflicts, characteristics as well as the way they speak, act and see themselves stem from experience and imagination as well. These characters are generally hybrids of more than one person, either female or male, often functioning in their everyday environments. Some are soldiers, lawyers, police officers, teachers, photographers, painters, functioning within varied settings from urban to rural, often reflecting a blue-collar nuance.
