Haunting Biology Emma

Kowal,2023-10-13 In Haunting Biology Emma Kowal recounts the troubled history of Western biological studies of Indigenous Australians and asks how we now might see contemporary genomics especially that conducted by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander scientists Kowal illustrates how the material persistence of samples over decades and centuries folds together the fates of different scientific methodologies Blood bones hair comparative anatomy human biology physiology and anthropological genetics all haunt each other across time and space together with the many racial theories they produced and sustained The stories Kowal tells feature a variety of ghostly presences a dead anatomist a fetishized piece of hair hidden away in a war trunk and an elusive white Indigenous person By linking this history to contemporary genomics and twenty first century Indigeneity Kowal outlines the fraught complexities perils and potentials of studying Indigenous biological difference in the twenty first century

STEAM Meets Story Gloria D. Campbell-Whatley,Diane Rodriguez,Jugnu

Agrawal,2021 This innovative STEAM guide will help general and special education teachers to increase effective instruction with adolescents grades 5 10 The authors show teachers how to link STEM concepts with popular fiction and film selections as a catalyst to launch student interactions discussions projects and investigations This approach will promote problem solving and reasoning skills by initiating the scientific process rather than simply presenting established facts The book includes a wealth of lesson plans that connect abstract STEM ideas to realistic experiences that students encounter Sample lessons call on students to produce drawings and models that move STEM to STEAM Grounded in popular film and the 31 books most read by adolescent students the text includes teaching strategies found to be effective with traditionally underserved students and those with disabilities Book Features Standards based STEM lessons are interrelated and interwoven with writing reading speaking and other skills Practical ideas and hands on activities for engaging adolescents in both traditional and virtual environments Guidance for working with diverse populations such as students with different
