- Direct foreign aid is unambiguously beneficial to poor people. It is especially true in countries with corrupt governments (because aid goes to the poor and not to the government).
- Direct aid is an economically inefficient way of providing aid. Charities better provide aid through a financial intermediary.
- Direct foreign aid is not needed. The rich will do what is best.
- Changes to the foreign aid system will be a net negative to the world. The aid system is a net negative to the world. It is a net negative to the world. It is a net negative to the world.
