Women Writing Jewish Modernity, 1919-1939 Allison Schachter, 2021-12-15 Finalist 2023 National Jewish Book Award
Winners in Women's Studies
In Women Writing Jewish Modernity 1919-1939 Allison Schachter rewrites Jewish literary modernity from the point of view of women. Focusing on works by interwar Hebrew and Yiddish writers, Schachter illuminates how women writers embraced the transgressive potential of prose fiction to challenge the patriarchal norms of Jewish textual authority and reconceptualize Jewish cultural belonging. Born in the former Russian and Austro-Hungarian Empires and writing from their homes in New York, Poland, and Mandatory Palestine, the authors central to this book—Fradl Shtok, Dvora Baron, Elisheva Bikhovsky, Leah Goldberg, and Debora Vogel—seized on the freedoms of social revolution to reimagine Jewish culture beyond the traditionally male world of Jewish letters. The societies they lived in devalued women's labor and denied them support for their work. In response, their writing challenged the social hierarchies that excluded them as women and as Jews. As she reads these women, Schachter upends the idea that literary modernity was a conversation among men about women, with a few women writers listening in. Women writers revolutionized the very terms of Jewish fiction at a pivotal moment in Jewish history, transcending the boundaries of Jewish minority identities. Schachter tells their story and, in so doing, calls for a new way of thinking about Jewish cultural modernity.

Makers of Jewish Modernity Jacques Picard, Jacques M. Revel, Michael P. Steinberg, Idith Zertal, 2016-08-09
A unique reference to leading Jewish figures who helped shape the modern world. This superb collection presents more than forty incisive portraits of leading Jewish thinkers, artists, scientists, and other public figures of the last hundred years who, in their own unique ways, engaged with and helped shape the modern world. Makers of Jewish Modernity features entries on political figures such as Walther Rathenau, Rosa Luxemburg, and David Ben-Gurion; philosophers and critics such as Walter Benjamin, Hannah Arendt, Isaiah Berlin, Jacques Derrida, and Judith Butler; and artists such as Mark Rothko. The book provides fresh insights into the lives and careers of novelists like Franz Kafka, Saul Bellow, and Philip Roth; the filmmakers Joel and Ethan Coen; social scientists such as Sigmund Freud; religious leaders and thinkers such as Avraham Kook and Martin Buber; and many others. Written by a diverse group of leading contemporary scholars from around the world, these vibrant and frequently surprising portraits offer a global perspective that highlights the multiplicity of Jewish experience and thought. No one else is quite as intimately knowledgeable with this material, the ambiguous legacy of one of the most inventive and poignant episodes of creativity in the life of the Diaspora Divided Passions is a collection of published and unpublished essays and articles by Paul Mendes Flohr from the past decade In a manner that underscores their continued relevance and significance Mendes Flohr writes about the problems that Buber Rosenzweig Bloch Simon Scholem and others tried to crystallize and resolve Mendes Flohr moves with effortless authority among the disciplines of theology philosophy literature history and sociology Fitted with these interdisciplinary resources he enriches his treatment of themes and figures in ways that exceed the scope to say nothing of the execution found in other literature The book conveys a rare metaphysical depth for questions of faith identity and Dasein explored by the intellectual figures of the past are also personal ones for the author as well Mendes Flohr s exceptional ability to keep this body of work alive and available provides an outstanding source of commentary on the subjects that dominate the agenda of modern Jewish studies

Jewish Cryptotheologies of Late Modernity Agata Bielik-Robson, 2014-08-13 This book aims to interpret Jewish Philosophy in terms of the Marrano phenomenon as a conscious clinamen of philosophical forms used in order to convey a secret message which cannot find an open articulation The Marrano phenomenon is employed here in the domain of modern philosophical thought where an analogous tendency can be seen the clash of an open idiom and a secret meaning which transforms both the medium and the message Focussing on key figures of late modern twentieth century Jewish thought Hermann Cohen Gershom Scholem Walter Benjamin Franz Rosenzweig Theodor Adorno Ernst Bloch Jacob Taubes Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida this book demonstrates how their respective manners of conceptualization swerve from the philosophical mainstream along the Marrano secret curve Analysing their unique contribution to the unfinished project of modernity including issues of the future of the Enlightenment modern nihilism and post secular negotiation with religious heritage this book will be essential reading for students and researchers with an interest in Jewish Studies and Philosophy

Modern Jewish Literatures Sheila E. Jelen, Michael P. Kramer, L. Scott Lerner, 2011-06-06 Is there such a thing as a distinctive Jewish literature While definitions have been offered none has been universally accepted Modern Jewish literature lacks the basic markers of national literatures it has neither a common geography nor a shared language though works in Hebrew or Yiddish are almost certainly included and the field is so diverse that it cannot be contained within the bounds of one literary category Each of the fifteen essays collected in Modern Jewish Literatures takes on the above question by describing a movement across boundaries between languages cultures genres or spaces Works in Hebrew and Yiddish are amply represented but works in English French German Italian Ladino and Russian are also considered Topics range from the poetry of the Israeli nationalist Natan Alterman to the Russian poet Osip Mandelstam from turn of the century Ottoman Jewish journalism to wire recorded Holocaust testimonies from the intellectual salons of late eighteenth century Berlin to the shelves of a Jewish bookstore in twentieth century Los Angeles The literary world described in Modern Jewish Literatures is demarcated chronologically by the Enlightenment the Haskalah and the French Revolution on one end and the fiftieth anniversary of the State of Israel on the other The particular terms of the encounter between a Jewish past and present for modern Jews has varied greatly by continent country or village by language and by social standing among other things What unites the subjects of these studies is not a common ethnic religious or cultural history but rather a shared endeavor to use literary production and writing in general as the laboratory in which to explore and represent Jewish experience in the modern world
