What are we here for?

One of the most interesting questions asked in the Bible is that of hell. It has been asked for centuries and centuries, and the answer has been given in many different ways. Some have said that hell is a place of punishment, and others have said that it is a place of suffering. But what is the truth? What is the purpose of hell? What is the reason for its existence? What is the reason for its punishment? What is the reason for its suffering? What is the reason for its existence? What is the reason for its punishment? What is the reason for its suffering?

There are many different answers to these questions. Some say that hell is a place of punishment, and others say that it is a place of suffering. But what is the truth? What is the purpose of hell?
