Bogdanovich on the early years of Wayne's career when he was working as a prop man Well I've naturally studied John Ford professionally as well as loving the man Ever since the first time I walked down his set as a goose herder in 1927 They needed somebody from the prop department to keep the geese from getting under a fake hill they had for Mother Machree at Fox I'd been hired because Tom Mix wanted a box seat for the USC football games and so they promised jobs to Don Williams and myself and a couple of the players They buried us over in the properties department and Mr Ford's need for a goose herder just seemed to fit my pistol These twenty six portraits and conversations are unsurpassed in their evocation of a certain kind of great movie star that has vanished Bogdanovich's book is a celebration and a farewell Wizard's Creed -
