Union in defeating fascism The Cold War shattered these hopes and isolated communist parties and their members By analysing the accounts of communist children Weesjes highlights their struggle to establish communities and define their identities within the specific cultural social and political frameworks of their countries Growing Up in France Colin Heywood,2007-02-15 How did French people write about their childhood between the 1760s and the 1930s Growing Up with America Emily A. Murphy,2020-09-15 When D H Lawrence wrote his classic study of American literature he claimed that youth was the true myth of America Beginning from this assertion Emily A Murphy traces the ways that youth began to embody national hopes and fears at a time when the United States was transitioning to a new position of world power In the aftermath of World War II persistent calls for the nation to grow up and move beyond innocence became common and the child that had long served as a symbol of the nation was suddenly discarded in favor of a rebellious adolescent This era marked the beginning of a crisis of identity where literary critics and writers both sought to redefine U S national identity in light of the nation s new global position The figure of the adolescent is central to an understanding of U S national identity both past and present and of the cultural forms e g literature that participate in the ongoing process of representing the diverse experiences of Americans In tracing the evolution of this youthful figure Murphy revisits classics of American literature including J D Salinger s The Catcher in the Rye and Vladimir Nabokov s Lolita alongside contemporary bestsellers The influence of the adolescent on some of America s greatest writers demonstrates the endurance of the myth that Lawrence first identified in 1923 and signals a powerful link between youth and one of the most persistent questions for the nation What does it mean to be an American Growing Up in Central Australia Ute Eickelkamp,2011-06-01 Surprisingly little research has been carried out about how Australian Aboriginal children and teenagers experience life shape their social world and imagine the future This volume presents recent and original studies of life experiences outside the institutional settings of childcare and education of those growing up in contemporary Central Australia or with strong links to the region Focusing on the remote communities roughly 1 200 across the continent the volume includes case studies of language and family life in small country towns and urban contexts These studies expertly show that forms of consciousness have changed enormously over the last hundred years for Indigenous societies more so than for the rest of Australia yet equally notable are the continuities across generations Multilingual Europe Guus Extra,Durk Gorter,2008-12-10 This book offers an inclusive perspective on the constellation of languages in Europe by taking into account official state languages regional minority languages and immigrant minority languages Although celebrating linguistic diversity is one of the key propositions in the European discourse on multilingualism and language policies this device holds for these three types of languages in a decreasing order All three types of languages however are constituent parts of a multilingual European identity and should be taken into account in any type of language policy Both facts and policies on multilingualism and plurilingual education are addressed in case studies at the national and European level The selection of case studies is based on a careful weighing of geographical spread of countries and languages across Europe on the one hand and availability of established expert knowledge on the other After an Introduction to the theme of the book Guus Extra and Durk Gorter Part I deals with official state languages with a focus on the spread of English as lingua franca across Europe Juliane House on French and France Dennis Ager on Polish in Poland and abroad Justyna Lesniew ka and on language constellations in the Baltic States Gabrielle Hogan Brun Part II deals with regional minority languages with a focus on Catalan in Spain Francesc Xavier Vila i Moreno Frisian in the Netherlands Durk Gorter et al Hungarian as a minority language in Central Europe Susan Gal and Saami in the Nordic countries Mikael Svonni Part III deals with immigrant minority languages in the United Kingdom Viv Edwards Sweden Lilian Nygren Junkin Italy Monica Barni and Carla Bagna and Europe at large Guus Extra and Kutlay Ya mur
