Guattari Reframed Interpreting Key Thinkers For The Arts Contemporary Thinkers Reframed:

Guattari Reframed Paul Elliott, 2012-05-22 Guattari Reframed presents a timely and urgent rehabilitation of one of the twentieth century's most engaged and engaging cultural philosophers. Best known as an activist and practising psychiatrist, Guattari's work is increasingly understood as both eerily prescient and vital in the context of contemporary culture. Employing the language of visual culture and concrete examples drawn from it, this book introduces and reassesses the major concepts developed throughout Guattari's writings and his call to transform the deadening homogeneity of contemporary existence into the universe of creative enchantments. Paul Elliott asserts the significance of Guattari as a revolutionary philosopher and cultural theorist and invites the reader to transform both their understanding of his work and their lives through his ideas.

Deleuze Reframed Damian Sutton, David Martin-Jones, 2013-02-05 Are your students baffled by Baudrillard? Dazed by Deleuze? Confused by Kristeva? Other beginners' guides can feel as impenetrable as the original texts to students who think in images. Contemporary Thinkers Reframed instead uses the language of the arts to explore the usefulness in practice of complex ideas. Short, contemporary and accessible, these lively books utilise actual examples of artworks, films, television shows, works of architecture, fashion and even computer games to explain and explore the work of the most commonly taught thinkers. Conceived specifically for the visually minded, the series will prove invaluable to students right across the visual arts.

Deleuze disdains easy answers. Yet easy answers to Deleuze are what students need. Without reducing Deleuze's complex body of thought to simplistic solutions, this very contemporary guide leads the reader into the world of Deleuze's spiralling thought through concrete examples from art, film, TV and even computer games. From Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind and The Cell to Pac Man and Doom and from the work of Matthew Barney and Helen Chadwick to Lost and Doctor Who, this easily digestible introduction looks at the key ideas promoted by Deleuze both in his own work and in his notoriously difficult collaborations with Félix Guattari to make them both fresh and relevant to the visual arts today.

Badiou Reframed Alex Ling, 2016-12-18 He has been regarded with suspicion by some as an anti postmodernist who dared to write about unfashionable concepts such as truth and meaning. But in recent years the philosopher Alain Badiou has risen in prominence, pioneering new ways to produce, conceptualise and discover art. Badiou Reframed is an original book about an original thinker which applies for the first time Badiou's philosophy to the visual arts. The six central concepts of this philosophy being and appearing event and subject and truth and ethics are elucidated through detailed analysis of a range of visual artworks including Marcel Duchamp's readymades the abstract paintings of Kazimir Malevich and Mark Rothko Banksy's contemporary street art the sculpture of Alberto Giacometti Stephane Mallarme's visual poetry and Victor Fleming's classic film The Wizard of Oz. In focusing on Badiou's critical relationship with the visual arts Alex Ling reinterprets and represents not only the man but art itself. Lyotard Reframed Graham Jones, 2013-12-13. Lyotard's claims concerning the postmodern have often been misunderstood or misrepresented. Lyotard Reframed provides an analysis of Lyotard's most influential writings on the postmodern alongside a detailed commentary on his broader philosophy demonstrating and clarifying his work's ongoing relevance to creative endeavour and debates concerning the value and significance of the visual arts. It also situates Lyotard's discussion of the postmodern within the context of his other key concepts the figural the libidinal and the sublime. Accessible in style and approach Lyotard Reframed employs numerous examples drawn from the arts to critically examine and evaluate the nature history and significance of these important concepts and explore their respective links with phenomenology Marxism structuralism psychoanalysis and deconstruction.

Adorno Reframed Geoff Boucher, 2012-10-15. Dismissed as a miserable elitist who condemned popular culture in the name of high art Theodor W. Adorno 1903-1969 is one of the most provocative and important yet least understood of contemporary thinkers. This book challenges this popular image and re-examines Adorno as a utopian philosopher who believed authentic art could save the world. Adorno Reframed is not only a comprehensive introduction to the reader coming to Adorno for the first time but also an important re-evaluation of this founder of the Frankfurt School. Using a wealth of concrete illustrations from popular culture Geoffrey Boucher recasts Adorno as a revolutionary whose subversive irony and profoundly historical aesthetics defended the integrity of the individual against social totality. Bakhtin Reframed Deborah J. Haynes, 2013-03-18. Legendary philosopher and literary critic Mikhail Bakhtin 1895-1975 developed concepts which are bywords within poststructuralist and new historicist literary criticism and philosophy yet have been under utilised by artists art historians and art critics. Deborah Haynes aims to adapt Bakhtin's concepts particularly those developed in his later works to an analysis of visual culture and art practices addressing the integral relationship of art with life the artist as creator reception and the audience and context intertextuality. This provides both a new conceptual vocabulary for those engaged in visual culture ideas such as answerability unfinalizability heteroglossia chronotope and the carnivalesque defined in the glossary and a new practical approach to historical analysis of generic breakdown and narrative re-emergence in contemporary art. Haynes uses Bakhtinian concepts to interpret a range of art from religious icons to post Impressionist painters and Russian modernists to demonstrate how the application of his thought to visual culture can generate significant new insights. Rehabilitating some of Bakhtin's neglected ideas and reframing him as a philosopher of aesthetics Bakhtin Reframed will be essential reading for the huge community of Bakhtin scholars as well as students and practitioners of visual culture

Beckett's Intuitive Spectator Michelle Chiang, 2018-07-16 Beckett's Intuitive Spectator Me to Play investigates how audience discomfort instead of a side effect of a Beckett pedagogy is a key spectatorial experience which arises from an everyman intuition of loss With reference to selected works by Henri Bergson Immanuel Kant and Gilles Deleuze this book charts the processes of how an audience member's habitual way of understanding could be frustrated by Beckett's film radio stage and television plays Michelle Chiang explores the ways in which Beckett exploited these mediums to reconstitute an audience response derived from intuition

Mutating Ecologies in Contemporary Art Christian Alonso, 2019-01-08 What role might art exert in light of the challenges posed by climate change resource depletion and the diverse political and cultural crises our societies face in the twenty first century The hypothesis guiding this book is born of Félix Guattari's claim that in confronting the multi faceted problems of our global political economy we need to develop a more complex analysis of nature culture and technology shifting from catastrophic end of the world narratives to productive generative trans species alliances for the sake of the sustainability of life on the planet Because capitalism is no longer understood merely as a mode of production but as a system of semiotization homogenization and of transmission of forms of power over goods labour and individuals only the emergence of other relational subjective formations would be able to counteract the fixation of desire towards capital and its diverse crystallizations of power New social practices new aesthetic practices and new practices of the self in relation to the other are summoned to undertake an ethical political reinvention of life As Guattari argues it is about reappropriating universes of value and paving the way for the emergence of processes of singularization involving a mutating subjectivity a mutating socius and a mutating environment This book is engaged in thinking about the conjunction of the ecological turn in contemporary art and the attention given to matter in recent humanist scholarship as a way of exploring how new configurations of the world suggest new ways of being and acting in that world Contributors investigate the means by which art can act as an existential catalysist providing ways of changing our modes of relation beyond traditional modes of representation and in doing so instituting transformation

Culture, Experience, Care: Re-Centring the Patient Eric Sandberg, Maren Scheurer, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Susan Sontag claimed that everyone who is born holds dual citizenship in the kingdom of the well and the kingdom of the sick and while we all prefer to use only the good passport sooner or later each of us is obliged at least for a spell to identify ourselves as citizens of that other place We are all in other words past present or future patients This collection examines the many ways in which the idea of the patient can be conceptualized in different cultural professional intellectual and emotional contexts as part of an on going multidisciplinary and international attempt by scholars health care professionals and indeed patients themselves to rethink and re examine patienthood and patient care These chapters attempt to put the patient at the centre not just although clearly not least at the centre of the processes institutions and ideologies of medical care but of a wide range of intellectual and social practices Felix Guattari's Schizoanalytic Ecology Hanjo Berressem, 2020-05-28 Hanjo Berressem establishes the notion of a schizoanalytic ecology as the most consistent conceptual spine of Felix Guattari's work. He covers the whole range of Guattari's solo work and the books co-authored with Gilles Deleuze primarily a rigorous explication and analysis of Schizoanalytic Cartographies Heidegger Reframed Barbara Bolt, 2010-12-02 It is frequently commented that Heidegger writes impenetrable texts that are difficult to read and comprehend but he also as Barbara Bolt demonstrates in this clear original guide to his oeuvre provides an artists guide to the world Heidegger Reframed grounds Heidegger's writings in the critical questions confronting contemporary visual artists and students of art. Barbara Bolt takes the most relevant of his texts including his most famous work Being and Time and sets out ways of thinking about art in a post-medium digital technocratic and post-human age. She does so through the frame of works by international artists including Sophie Calle, Anish Kapoor and Anselm Kiefer. A glossary of terms completes this full and clear companion to Heidegger Aberrant Nuptials Paulo de Assis, Paolo Giudici, 2019-12-11 Unique focus on the relation between artistic research and the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze. Aberrant Nuptials explores the diversity and richness of the interactions between artistic research and Deleuze studies. Aberrant nuptials is the expression Gilles Deleuze uses to refer to productive encounters between systems characterised by fundamental difference. More than imitation, representation or reproduction, these encounters foster creative flows of energy generating new material configurations and intensive experiences. Within different understandings of artistic research, the contributors to this book—architects, composers, film makers, painters, performers, philosophers, sculptors and writers—map current practices at the intersection between music, art and philosophy, contributing to an expansion of horizons and methodologies. Written by established Deleuze scholars who have been working on interferences between art and philosophy and by musicians and artists who have been reflecting Deleuzian and Post-Deleuzian discourses in their artworks, this volume reflects the current relevance of artistic research and Deleuze studies for the arts A Feminist Companion to the Posthumanities Cecilia Åsberg, Rosi Braidotti, 2018-05-17 This companion is a cutting edge primer to critical forms of the posthumanities and the feminist posthumanities aimed at students and researchers who want to catch up with the recent theoretical developments in various fields in the humanities such as new media studies, gender studies, cultural studies, science and technology studies, human-animal studies, postcolonial critique, philosophy and environmental humanities. It contains a collection of nineteen new and original short chapters introducing influential concepts, ideas and approaches that have shaped and developed new materialism, inhuman theory, critical posthumanism, feminist materialism and posthuman philosophy. A resource for students and teachers, this comprehensive volume brings together established international scholars and emerging theorists for timely and astute definitions of a moving target: posthuman humanities and feminist posthumanities Aesthetic Hybridity in Mughal Painting, 1526-1658 Valerie Gonzalez, 2016-03-03 The first specialized critical aesthetic study to be published on the concept of hybridity in early Mughal painting this book investigates the workings of the diverse creative forces that led to the formation of a unique Mughal pictorial language Mughal pictoriality distinguishes itself from the Persianate models through the rationalization of the picture's conceptual structure and other visual modes of expression involving the aesthetic concept of mimesis If the stylistic and iconographic results of this transformational process have been well identified and evidenced their hermeneutic interpretation greatly suffers from the neglect of a methodologically updated investigation of the images conceptual underpinning Valerie Gonzalez addresses this lacuna by exploring the operations of cross fertilization at the level of imagistic conceptualization resulting from the multifaceted encounter between the local legacy of Indo Persianate book art the freshly imported Persian models to Mughal India after 1555 and the influx of European art at the Mughal court in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The author's close examination of the visuality metaphysical order and aesthetic language of Mughal imagery and portraiture sheds new light on this particular aspect of its aesthetic hybridity which is usually approached monolithically as a historical phenomenon of cross cultural interaction That approach fails to consider specific parameters and features inherent to the artistic practice such as the differences between doxis and praxis conceptualization and realization intentionality and what lies beyond it By studying the distinct phases and principles of hybridization between the variegated pictorial sources at work in the Mughal creative process at the successive levels of the project intention the practice realization and the result product the author deciphers the modalities of appropriation and manipulation of the heterogeneous elements Her unique Thinking Through Fashion Agnès Rocamora, Anneke Smelik, 2015-10-23 Learning how to think through fashion is both exciting and challenging being dependent on one's ability to critically engage with an array of theories and concepts This is the first book designed to accompany readers through the process of thinking through fashion It aims to help them grasp both the relevance of social and cultural theory to fashion dress and material culture and conversely the relevance of those fields to social and cultural theory It does so by offering a guide through the work of selected major thinkers introducing their concepts and ideas Each chapter is written by an expert contributor and is devoted to a key thinker capturing the significance of their thought to the understanding of the field of fashion while also assessing the importance of this field for a critical engagement with these thinkers ideas This is a guide and reference for students and scholars in the fields of fashion dress and material culture the creative industries sociology cultural history design and cultural studies Black Screens, White Frames Tanya Shilina-Conte, Assistant Professor Department of English Tanya Shilina-Conte, 2024-11-22 Black Screens White Frames offers a new understanding of blank screens in cinema Drawing on Gilles Deleuze's film philosophy and pursuing an affirmative approach to non images through the concept of the filmmaking machine author Tanya Shilina Conte shows how absence can be a productive mode that alters the way we study film Agamben Reframed Dan Smith, Ten Contemporary Thinkers, 1968 Key Contemporary Thinkers #Jbt Standing Order Staff,
