

GREY

A high-contrast, black and white close-up of a woman's eye. The eye is light-colored, possibly blue or green, and is looking directly at the viewer. The eyelashes are dark and well-defined. The skin around the eye is pale and has a soft, grainy texture. The overall mood is intense and mysterious.

by E L James | Summary & Analysis Elite Summaries, Published in 2015 Grey is an erotic romantic book written by E L James Similar books were originally written from a female character's point of view after which James wrote it from the male

Christian character's point of view In this edition we see less erotic info compared to the previous books explaining the same story A 27 year old rich and successful businessman meets with a 21 year old university student Ana Steele during an interview The two developed an attraction for each other and Christian suggested a sadomasochistic relationship with

Anastasia Ana p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 10 0px 0 0px text align justify font 11 0px Trebuchet MS color 000000 webkit text stroke 000000 span s1 font kerning none If you love Fifty Shades of Grey movie I guarantee you will also love this book It is much fun reading the story from Christian's point of view so you get to understand why he was always confused and frustrated In his confusion Christian would also think of Elena most of the time but still held his love for Ana Through this book readers are able to discover some of the things that were not very clear in the movie For example the distractions and confusion affecting Christian are well explained in the book the way he struggles to maintain his relationship with Anastasia while still run the business flawlessly Grey is not just an erotica but also entertaining and educating E L James used symbolic dreams in the most beautiful way to narrate the story Character s thoughts are distinctly italicized all though to make it easy for the readers to differentiate Grey is highly recommended for adult audiences
