Re-Inventing the Liturgy John Foster, 2004 The liturgy in celebrating its faith in the living creative Word message and work of God incarnate should adapt its message of hope to a continuing change in the human condition In our times there are many voices maintaining that this means a re invention not merely a reform or a renewal of the liturgy The author of The Spirit of the Liturgy published in 1920 Romano Guardini and one of the leaders in the ongoing liturgical movement sent this message to a liturgical congress which he was billed to address a short time before he died in 1964 Instead of talking about renewal ought we not to consider how best to celebrate the sacred mysteries so that modern man can grasp their meaning through his own approach to truth A few years later soon after the Second Council of the Vatican Yves Congar theologian turned Christian anthropologist made the same point but with a greater emphasis with the liturgy seemingly in a deeper impasse adaptation of the liturgy is no longer the issue re invention is called for in the changed circumstances of the times

Children's Literature, Domestication, and Social Foundation Layla

AbdelRahim, 2014-12-05 This study of children's literature as knowledge culture and social foundation bridges the gap between science and literature and examines the interconnectedness of fiction and reality as a two way road The book investigates how the civilized narrative orders experience by means of segregation domestication breeding and extermination arguing instead that the stories and narratives of wilderness project chaos and infinite possibilities for experiencing the world through a diverse community of life AbdelRahim engages these narratives in a dialogue with each other and traces their expression in the various disciplines and books written for both children and adults analyzing the manifestation of fictional narratives in real life This is both an inter and multi disciplinary endeavor that is reflected in the combination of research methods drawn from anthropology and literary studies as well as in the tracing of the narratives of order and chaos or civilization and wilderness in children's literature and our world Chapters compare and contrast fictional children's books that offer different real world socio economic paradigms such as A A Milne's Winnie the Pooh projecting a civilized monarcho capitalist world Nikolai Nosov's trilogy on The Adventures of Dunno and Friends presenting the challenges and feats of an anarcho socialist society in evolution from primitivism towards technology and Tove Jansson's Moomin books depicting the harmony of anarchy chaos and wildness AbdelRahim examines the construction transmission and acquisition of knowledge in children's literature by visiting the very nature of literature culture and language and the civilized structures that domesticate the world She brings radically new perspectives to the knowledge culture and construction of human beings making an invaluable contribution to a wide range of disciplines and for those engaged in revolutionizing contemporary debates on the nature of knowledge human identity and the world
