Experiencing Epiphanies in Literature and Cinema uses health humanities and psychological humanities to explore literary and cinematic epiphanies James Joyce first adopted the term epiphany from its religious use to articulate momentsof luminous intensity or sudden spiritual manifestation This study develops and extends Joyce s use of epiphany through a range of literary and cinematic examples from William Shakespeare to Ruth Ozeki and from Yasujir Ozu to Jim Jarmusch This wealth of epiphanies in the arts is important from a health humanities perspective in that they provide access to aesthetic and sustainable experiences of well being joy and human flowering They also provide antidotes to aesthetics of anti epiphany a showing forth of terror horror and panic Experiencing Epiphanies is accordingly both critical and affirmative diagnostic and therapeutic It uses critique to understand the increasing need for well being in contemporary times and it uses affirmation to develop underutilized resources in the arts for transforming configuring and refiguring our everyday lives
