People in Crisis Lee Ann Hoff,Lisa Brown,Miracle R. Hoff,2011-02-25 The first edition of People in Crisis published in 1978 established success as a comprehensive and user friendly text for health and social service professionals The book and its following incarnations included critical life events and life cycle transition challenges clearly pointing out the interconnections between such events stressful developmental changes and their potential for growth but also danger of suicide and or violence toward others This revised edition includes new case examples and expanded coverage of cross cultural content including commonalities and differences in origins manifestations and crisis responses The authors illustrate the application of crisis concepts assessment and intervention strategies across a wide range of health and mental health settings as well as at home school workplace and in the community Each chapter contains a closing summary that includes discussion questions references and online data sources for maximum application and learning Updated chapters discuss new research based content on workplace violence and abuse youth violence in schools and higher education settings the use of psychotropic drugs including for very young children in the absence of comprehensive assessment the crisis vulnerability of war veterans and the hazards of pathologizing what should be considered a normal response to the repeated and catastrophic trauma of war the intersection of socio political factors with individuals psychological healing from catastrophic experiences such as war and natural disaster

Human Rights-Based Approaches to Clinical Social Work S. Megan Berthold, 2014-12-12 This groundbreaking Brief brings a rights based perspective to social work as opposed to the charity and needs based formats traditional to the field Core principles for effective practice are discussed in the context of global human rights advocacy from addressing individuals immediate issues to challenging the structures that allow continued injustices to marginalized populations Focusing specifically on interventions with survivors and some perpetrators of torture human trafficking and domestic violence coverage explores and explodes myths about these issues some of which survivors themselves may believe and illustrates the immediate application and long term benefits of rights based therapy Case examples discussion questions resource links and a clinician self care section reinforce the salience of this approach modeling practice that is ethical in its outlook and empowering in its healing Clinician skills emphasized in Human Rights Based Approaches to Clinical Social Work Reframing client needs as human rights Cultural humility versus cultural competence Building the therapeutic relationship and reconstructing safety Developing trauma informed practice and avoiding re traumatization Forensic and activist roles for social workers Burnout prevention for practitioners

Towards Glocal Social Work in the Era of Compressed Modernity Timo Harrikari, Pirkko-Liisa Rauhala, 2018-10-03 This book addresses the change of social work in the frame of modernisation Through Mary Richmond s classical idea of social work the book seeks to set current societal trends affecting social work into the context of a long historical line opening spaces for the new debates within the social work discipline as well as proposing and taking some new directions in the current era of compressed modernity From the viewpoint of social work there still is an individual in a situation however the situation has profoundly changed during the past hundred years Divided into seven chapters topics covered include firstly the rethinking of Richmond s original idea revisiting the modernisation theories and social transformations as well as discussion on the social work theories and mandates according to the chosen classics Secondly the book continues with sketching the pillars of compressed modernity and rethinking the global and local relations During the era of glocalisation polycentrism digitalisation and hybridisation the previous conceptualisations of social theory have to be reconsidered Finally a proposal for glocal social work vision is represented by setting questions which should be taken under scrutiny Academics researchers practising social workers and students of social work as well as of social policy administration social law and other social sciences will find this book to be an essential text for understanding the current societal changes trends and tendencies The book provides a lot of information for policymakers and citizens interested in the background knowledge for the contemporary societal situation Empowerment Practice with Families in Distress Judith Bula Wise, 2005-02-05 This book integrates time honored approaches to empowerment practice with today s more modest goals mindful of what empowerment can and cannot do Synthesizing several theoretical supports the strengths perspective system theory theories of family well being and theories of coping the author responds to the question What works with today s families in need Practice illustrations are provided throughout
