Independence and Nationalism in the Developing World

Lesson 3 Africa

Review Questions

Directions: Read each main idea. Use your textbook to supply the details that support or explain each main idea.

- A. Main Idea: Free from colonial rule, many African nations faced serious political, economic, social, and health challenges. Apartheid ended in South Africa, and Nelson Mandela became the country's first black president.
- 1. Detail: The Charter of the United Nations states that Colonial people have the right to Self-determination.
 - 2. Detail: South African leader Nelson Mandela and the African National Congress opposed white rule and sought social and political reforms.
 - 3. Detail: Some African nations were drawn into proxy wars as the United States and the Soviet Union took opposing sides in African political struggles during the Cold War.
 - 4. Detail: African nations suffered from drought, disease, wars, corruption, overpopulation, and a reliance on single-crop exports and foreign investment.
 - 5. Detail: Overcrowding and pollution have become major problems in Africa; the HIV/AIDS epidemic is a worldwide problem but has hit Africa south of the Sahara hardest.
- B. Main Idea: Africa is a study in contrasts. Old and new, native and foreign, live side by side. One result is a constant tension between traditional ways and Western culture.
- 1. Detail: About 60% percent of Africa's population live outside cities; they still live much as their ancestors did, in thatched dwellings without plumbing or electricity.
 - 2. Detail: These rural dwellers are dependent upon nature for their livelihoods. Weather conditions such as drought and flooding can sometimes force them to migrate to urban areas in search of work.
 - 3. Detail: Many urban people see rural dwellers as backward, while rural people see cities as corruptive and prize traditional African values.
 - 4. Detail: Most African women can vote and hold office, but they remain in low-paid positions and are subject to traditions like arranged marriages.

Sager, 2003 Hollywood or History? Scott L. Roberts, Charles J. Elfer, 2021-01-01 The challenges of teaching history are acute where we consider the world history classroom Generalized world history courses are a part of many if not most K 12 curricular frameworks in the United States While United States history tends to dominate the scholarship and conversation there are an equally wide number of middle level and secondary students and teachers engaged in the study of world history in our public schools And the challenges are real In the first place if we are to mark content coverage as a curricular obstacle in the history classroom generally then we must underscore that concern in the world history classroom and for obvious reasons The curricular terrain to choose from is immense and forever expanding dealing with the development of numerous civilizations over millennia and across a wide geographic expanse In addition to curricular concerns world historical topics are inherently farther away from most students lives not just temporally but often geographically and culturally Thus the rationale for the present text Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Teach World History The reviews of the first volume Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Teach United States History strategy have been overwhelmingly positive especially as it pertains to the application of the strategy for practitioner Classroom utility and teacher practice have remained our primary objectives in developing the Hollywood or History strategy and we are encouraged by the possibilities of Volume II and the capacity of this most recent text to impact teaching and learning in world history We believe that students connection to film along with teachers ability to use film in an effective manner will
