Holy Communion A Symposium:

The Holy Communion Hugh Martin, 1947 The Holy Communion. A Symposium by David Cairns, G. Ronald Howe ... [and Others.] Edited by Hugh Martin Hugh Martin, 1947 The Lord's supper, a clerical symposium, 1881 Non-church-going. Its Reasons and Remedies; a Symposium William Forbes Gray, 1911 Embodied Liturgy Frank C. Senn, 2016-06-03 Embodied Liturgy marks a return to the body in thinking about Christian liturgy and sacramental practice Rooted in phenomenology and incarnational theology the book gives primary focus to the body as it considers the prayer offices and the liturgical calendar sacrifices and sacraments initiation and vestments ritual theory and play word and meal fasting and feasting penance and celebration rites of passage cultural perspectives and the role of art music dance and drama in worship The author invites readers to return to the experience of their own body through guided yogic exercises As a text for students and liturgical practitioners the volume gives fresh voice to the experience and practice of worship as bodily acts Embodied Liturgy is a dynamic accessible new resource in liturgical and sacramental theology from one of the premiere scholars in the field Frank C Senn distills an established legacy of expertise in an innovative and inviting perspective on bodily acts of worship The Doctrine of Holy Communion and Its Expression in Ritual Church of England. Fulham Conference, 1900 Holy Communion in Contagious Times Richard A. Burridge, 2022-01-07 Can the church celebrate the eucharist in contagious times like the coronavirus pandemic and if so how In this book Richard Burridge investigates a wide range of proposed options both in the everyday physical world fasting the eucharist spiritual communion solo and concelebrated communions lay presidency drive in and drive thru eucharists and extended communion and in cyberspace computer services for avatars broadcast eucharists online and narrowcast communions using webinar software like Zoom Along the way he tackles the whole range of concepts of the church ordination and the eucharist This book is essential reading for anyone desiring an informed and provocative guide to the theology and practice of holy communion in our challenging times Subversive Meals Streett R Alan, 2016-11-24 In Subversive Meals Alan Streett follows on from James C Scott's idea of a hidden transcript to argue that the Lord's Supper was a subversive non violent act against the Roman Empire Primarily through exegesis of the writings of Luke and Paul Streett examines the political nature of the meal in the context of first century Roman domination In his widely researched argument Streett illuminates for the reader why understanding the Lord's Supper as a purely symbolic act overlooks the political significance it would have had in the first century CE Subversive Meals analyses how the structure of the Lord's Supper followed that of a Roman banquet by having a deipnon and a symposium the latter being the time when anti resistance discussions would take place Streett examines several aspects of the history context and theological significance of the Lord's Supper He discusses such topics as the identification of Passover as an anti imperial meal against the Pharaoh's rule the Roman domination system the meal practices of Jesus the eschatological meaning of the Last Supper the practice of this anti imperial work ethic in the early church and the gift of prophecy as a symposium activity By seeing the Lord's Supper as a political act readers will be able to study Scriptural passages more closely and precisely

The Lambeth Conference Paul Avis, Benjamin M. Guyer, 2017-12-28 Originating in 1867 under the presidency of the Archbishop of Canterbury the Lambeth Conference has proactively shaped the modern world by influencing areas as diverse as the ecumenical movement post war international relations and the spiritual lives of hundreds of millions A team of distinguished scholars from around the world now detail the historical legacy theological meaning and pastoral purpose of the Anglican Communion's decennial councils The next Lambeth Conference will be crucial for the Anglican Communion which is currently afflicted by destructive tensions over matters long central to Christian identity such as the nature of holy orders the definition of sexual morality and the scope of ecclesial authority Whether in supplication or celebration both nurtured by diverse cultural contexts and furthered by the scope of ecumenical horizons these essays break new ground The Lambeth Conference is a faithful testament to generations past and a spur to the ongoing restoration of Anglican theology and devotion in the present

Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World R. Mary Hayden Lemmons, 2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism's need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity's prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture Vernon Lee Vineta Colby,2003 In her last years she watched with dismay the emergence of fascism Abridged catalogue of books in New college library Edinburgh new coll, libr,1893 The Preparatory Schools & Religion in Our Time, a Symposium Lisbeth Gertrude Angell,1947 Primacy of Christ Vincent C. Anyama,2021-03-02 What comes to mind when you hear the term primacy of Christ Perhaps that Jesus is number one or that he is the Lord of the universe Using the wealth of our tradition on Christ s primacy this book compels us to pause and search the profound depths of our basic Christian claim on the universal preeminence of Christ Upholding the writings of Joseph Ratzinger Pope Benedict XVI as exemplary representation of how the early Christian awareness of Christ s primacy helps us to interpret the present age this book displays a symphonic harmony between our ancient Christian heritage and the ongoing conversations about the authentic interpretation of Scripture the human person the last things and the church Central to this symphonic harmony of our tradition is the use of analogy whereby the incarnation helps us to better understand the similarity between the created things and the mystery of God To better understand how Ratzinger uses the writings of the fathers of the church to draw us more deeply into the depths of Christ is what the correctives offered to some scholars in this book intends to accomplish What emerges is the ecumenical significance of Joseph Ratzinger s contribution to the modern debate on analogy of being analogia entis identifying Christ s primacy as the point of synthesis between analogia entis and analogia fidei Politeia Anne J. Mamary,Meredith Trexler Drees,2025-07-01 Innovative readings and creative reinterpretations of significant works in the field of ancient philosophy In classical Greece the word politeia in its largest sense meant the citizens engagement with the shared project that is the lived life of their polis city civic society Ancient philosophers poets historians and orators constantly reflected on what this shared project should be and how citizens could participate in it The chapters in this collection inspired by the work of Anthony Preus examine some of the products of their reflections both the written works themselves and the variety of comparative contexts into which they can be put from the Greeks neighboring Asian polities to contemporary philosophical engagements with similar issues The essays in Politeia hope to inspire readers to think about their own lives in conversation with the lives of the many communities to which we belong to not only demonstrate the idea of politeia but to bring to life politeia s connection of the individual to the collective something that seems to be of central importance in a world of division and to be the beating heart of the discipline of philosophy Remembering the Liberation Struggles in Cape Verde Miguel Cardina,Inês Nascimento Rodrigues,2022-10-06 Remembering the Liberation Struggles in Cape Verde A Mnemohistory takes as its reference from the anti colonial struggles against the Portuguese colonial empire in Africa in the 1960s and 1970s and the ways this period has been publicly remembered Drawing on original and detailed empirical research it presents novel insights into the complex entanglements between colonial pasts and political memories of anti colonialism in shaping new nations arising out of liberation struggles Broadening postcolonial memory studies by emphasising underdeveloped research cases it provides the first comprehensive research into how the liberation struggle is memorialised in Cape Verde and why it changes over time Proposing an innovative approach to thinking about this historical event as a political subject the book argues that the struggle constitutes a mnemonic device mobilised while negotiating contemporaneous representations related to the Cape Verdean nation state and society As such it will appeal to scholars of history sociology anthropology and politics with interests in memory studies and public memory postcolonialisms and African studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Goethe's Concept of the Daemonic Angus James Nicholls, 2006 The first book to examine Goethe's writings on the daemonic in relation to both Classical philosophy and German Idealism For Plato the daemonic is a sensibility that brings individuals into contact with divine knowledge Socrates was also inspired by a divine voice known as his daimonion Goethe was introduced to this ancient concept by Hamann and Herder who associated it with the aesthetic category of genius This book shows how the young Goethe depicted the idea of daemonic genius in works of the Storm and Stress period before exploring the daemonic in a series of later poetic and autobiographical works Reading Goethe's works on the daemonic through theorists such as Lukács, Benjamin, Gadamer, Adorno and Blumenberg Nicholls contends that they contain arguments concerning reason, nature and subjectivity that are central to both European Romanticism and the Enlightenment Angus Nicholls is Claussen Simon Foundation Research Lecturer in German and Comparative Literature at the Centre for Anglo-German Cultural Relations in the Department of German, Queen Mary University of London
