Fieldworks Lytle Shaw, 2013-01-22 Fieldworks offers a historical account of the social rhetorical and material attempts to ground art and poetry in the physicality of a site Arguing that place oriented inquiries allowed poets and artists to develop new experimental models of historiography and ethnography Lytle Shaw draws out the shifting terms of this practice from World War II to the present through a series of illuminating case studies Beginning with the alternate national genealogies unearthed by William Carlos Williams in Paterson and Charles Olson in Gloucester Shaw demonstrates how subsequent poets sought to ground such inquiries in concrete social formations to in effect live the poetics of place Gary Snyder in his back to the land familial compound Kitkitdizze Amiri Baraka in a black nationalist community in Newark Robert Creeley and the poets of Bolinas California in the capacious now of their poet run town Turning to the work of Robert Smithson who called one of his essays an appendix to Paterson and who in turn has exerted a major influence on poets since the 1970s Shaw then traces the emergence of site specific art in relation both to the poetics of place and to the larger linguistic turn in the humanities considering poets including Clark Coolidge Bernadette Mayer and Lisa Robertson By putting the poetics of place into dialog with site specificity in art Shaw demonstrates how poets and artists became experimental explicators not just of concrete locations and their histories but of the discourses used to interpret sites more broadly It is this dual sense of fieldwork that organizes Shaw s groundbreaking history of site specific poetry Black Writers Linda Metzger,1989 Biographical and bibliographical entries on some 400 black authors active in the 20th century Some of the sketches are updated from Gale s Contemporary authors series others were written especially for this volume Covers not only contemporary American authors but also earlier 20th century writers social figures e g Malcolm X Desmond Tutu and important African and Caribbean writers In addition to the descriptive personal and career information there are illuminating biographical critical essays including comments often by the authors themselves on personal interests aspirations motivations and thoughts on writing Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Maximum Feasible Participation Stephen Schryer,2018-06-05 This book traces American writers contributions and responses to the War on Poverty Its title comes from the 1964 Opportunity Act which established a network of federally funded Community Action Agencies that encouraged maximum feasible participation by the poor With this phrase the Johnson administration provided its imprimatur for an emerging model of professionalism that sought to eradicate boundaries between professionals and their clients a model that appealed to writers especially African Americans and Chicanos as associated with the cultural nationalisms gaining traction in the inner cities These writers privileged artistic process over product rejecting conventions that separated writers from their audiences Participatory professionalism however drew on a social scientific conception of poverty that proved to be the paradigm s undoing the culture of poverty thesis popularized by Oscar Lewis Michael Harrington and Daniel Moynihan For writers and policy experts associated with the War on Poverty this thesis described the cultural gap that they hoped to close Instead it eventually led to the dismantling of the welfare state Ranging from the 1950s to the present the book explores how writers like Jack Kerouac Amiri Baraka Gwendolyn Brooks Oscar Zeta Acosta Alice Walker Philip Roth and others exposed the War on Poverty s contradictions during its heyday and kept its legacy alive in the decades that followed Library Journal ,2008 Books in Series ,1980 The Publishers Weekly , The Publishers Weekly ,1910 Reprint Expediting Service Bulletin ,1975
