 NATIONAL BESTSELLER NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD WINNER Startlingly observed beautifully written this book is a contemporary classic of the American West As good a book as I have read about rural America in a very long time The New York Times Book Review In 1909 maps still identified eastern Montana as the Great American Desert But in that year Congress lobbied heavily by railroad companies offered 320 acre tracts of land to anyone bold or foolish enough to stake a claim to them Drawn by shamelessly inventive brochures countless homesteaders many of them immigrants went west to make their fortunes Most failed In Bad Land Jonathan Raban travels through the unforgiving country that was the scene of their dreams and undoing and makes their story come miraculously alive In towns named Terry Calypso and Ismay which changed its name to Joe Montana in an effort to attract football fans and in the landscape in between Raban unearths a vanished episode of American history with its own ruins its own heroes and heroines its own hopeful myths and bitter memories Horse-Powered Farming for the 21st Century Stephen Leslie, 2015 Now is a time of exciting new developments for live animal power As the numbers of adherents to this way of life grow ecologically minded farmers in their fields are developing efficient horse drawn systems and equipment manufacturers in small shops all across North America and Europe are coming forth with new innovations in ground drive technology that have us poised on the cusp of another agricultural revolution with working horses mules donkeys and oxen at the heart of it Publisher Driving Home Jonathan Raban, 2013-07-30 For more than thirty years Jonathan Raban has written with infectious fascination about people and places in transition or on the margins about journeys undertaken and destinations never quite reached and as an expat about what it means to feel rooted in America Spanning two decades Driving Home charts a course through the Pacific Northwest American history and current events as witnessed by a super sensitive all seeing eye Proving that an outsider is the keenest observer of the scene that natives take for granted this collection of Jonathan Raban's essays affirms his place as the most literate perceptive and humorous commentator on the places characters and obsessions that constitute the American scene Raban spots things we might otherwise miss he calls up the apt metaphors that transform things into phenomena He is one of our most gifted observers Newsday Environmental Law, 2008 The Saturday Evening Post, 1926 Farmers' Guide, 1907
