Homeworkers in Global Perspective documents the lives of homeworkers exploring state policies towards them and describing the innovative ways in which homeworkers organize Moving away from well known already explored cases the essays focus on less known but equally compelling examples organize and covers the major geographic regions of the world and illustrates the diversity of home based work and homeworker organizing Home-Based Work and Home-Based Workers (1800-2021) , 2021-11-08 During the Covid 19 pandemic the home as a workplace became a widely discussed topic However for almost 300 million workers around the world paid work from home was not news Home Based Work and Home Based Workers 1800 2021 includes contributions from scholars activists and artists addressing the past and present conditions of home based work They discuss the institutional and legal histories of regulations for these workers their modes of organization and resistance as well as providing new insights on contemporary home based work in both traditional and developing sectors Contributors are Jane Barrett Janine Berg Eloisa Betti Chris Bonner Eileen Boris Patricia Co oman Carrilo Janhavi Dave Saniye Dedeo lu Laura K Ekholm Jenna Harvey Frida H llander K Kalpana Srabani Maitra Indrani Mazumdar Gabriela Mitidieri Silke Neunsinger Malin Nilsson Narumol Nirathron sa Norman Leda Papastefanaki Archana Prasad Maria Tamboukou Nina Trige Andersen and Marlese von Broembsen Towards a Global History of Domestic and Caregiving Workers , 2015-05-26 Domestic and caregiving work has been at the core of human existence throughout history Poorly paid or even unpaid this work has been assigned to women in most societies and occasionally to men often as enslaved indentured adopted workers While some use domestic service as training for their own future independent households others are confined to it for life and try to avoid damage to their identities Part One Employment conditions are even worse in colonizer colonized dichotomies in which the subalternized have to run the households of administrators who believe they are running an empire Part Two Societies and states set the discriminatory rules those employed develop strategies of resistance or self protection Part Three A team of international scholars addresses these issues globally with a deep historical background Contributors are Ally Shireen Eileen Boris Dana Cooper Jennifer Fish David R Goodman Mary Gene De Guzman Jaira Harrington Victoria Haskins Dirk Hoerder Elizabeth Hordge Freeman Majda Hr enjak Elizabeth Hutchison Dimitris Kalantzopoulos Bela Kashyap Marta Kindler Anna Kordasiewicz Ms Lokesh Sabrina Marchetti Robyn Pariser Jessica Richter Magaly Rodriguez Garcia Raffaella Sarti Ad la Souralov Yukari Takai and Andrew Urban Remote Working Alan Felstead, 2022-01-20 The coronavirus pandemic forced work back into the home on a massive scale The long held belief that work and home are separate spheres of economic life was turned on its head overnight Many employees were new to this way of working and many employers had to manage a disparate workforce for the first time This book reviews what impact

this shift had on the lives of millions of employees the organisations which employ them and the societies in which they live It also looks to a future in which more work is carried out remotely at home in the local caf restaurant or bar or while moving from place to place The book synthesises the existing evidence in an accessible and easy to read way It will appeal to all those who want a quick and concise introduction to the major themes associated with remote and hybrid working This will include teachers lecturers students academics and policy makers as well as those who have experienced the challenges and benefits of homeworking first hand In Work, At Home Alan Felstead, Nick Jewson, 2002-01-04 More and more people are choosing to earn a living at home In Work At Home explores the meaning and experience of this type of employment by covering a wide range of issues including social relationships current research methodologies statistical analyses of global labour markets the emotional and psychological processes of self management home relations Presenting statistical analyses of labour markets in North America Europe Asia and Australia In Work At Home provides a valuable introduction to the issues and debates surrounding homeworking and will appeal to students across a range of disciplines including sociology business studies and women s studies

The Global Construction of Gender Elisabeth Prügl, 1999 Gender constructions do not stop at state boundaries Global understandings of masculinity and femininity can emerge out of the matrix of international politics Proposing an innovative conception of global politics by de emphasizing state actors and instead analyzing competing transnational discourses The Global Construction of Gender focuses specifically on people who work at home for pay Prügl explores the debates and rhetoric surrounding home based workers that have taken place in global movements and multilateral organizations since the early 1900s in order to trace changing conceptions of gender over the course of this century As Prügl relates home based workers both urban and rural engage in a broad array of activities they sew garments embroider make lace roll cigarettes weave carpets peel shrimp prepare food polish plastic process insurance claims edit manuscripts and assemble artificial flowers umbrellas and jewelry These mostly female workers are widely recognized as underpaid and exploited In investigating their plight Prügl describes the rules that have separated home and work and in the process created a diverse array of distinctly gendered identities including that of the working mother as a social problem the wage earning worker as a male breadwinner the crafts producing woman as the symbol of Third World nationhood the woman micro entrepreneur as the heroine of structural adjustment and the new androgynous home based consultant freelancer teleworker as the exemplary worker of a flexibly organized global economy

Unheard Voices Farah Naz, Dieter Bögenhold, 2020-09-24 This book explores the restructuring of the labour market and the opportunities that have resulted from economic globalization The historical political geographical and social relationships that female workers have had within the production process and the politics of work are examined to provide an understanding of the positioning of women within the global production system and the international division of employment Unheard Voices Women Work and Political Economy of Global Production aims to give the reader an understanding of new workplace arrangements and the changing gendered patterns of work The book is relevant to those interested in labour economics the political economy and gender studies

Financing Urban Shelter Un-Habitat,2013-06-17 Achieving the goals set by world leaders in the United Nations Millennium Declaration will be difficult without a significant improvement in the lives of slum dwellers and the lives of slum dwellers cannot be improved without the sound and sustainable economic development that is conducive to the establishment of a strong shelter sector As Financing Urban Shelter Global Report on Human Settlements 2005 emphasizes one of the key challenges in meeting the Millennium Declaration Goal on slums is mobilization of the financial resources necessary for both slum upgrading and slum prevention by supplying new housing affordable to lower income groups on a large scale It is my hope that by highlighting the impacts of current shelter financing systems on low income households and by identifying the types of financing mechanisms that appear to have worked for them this report will contribute to the efforts of the wide range of actors involved in improving the lives of slum dwellers including governments at the central and local levels as well as non governmental and international organizations From the Foreword by KOFI ANNAN Secretary General United Nations Financing Urban Shelter presents the first global assessment of housing finance systems placing shelter and urban development challenges within the overall context of macroeconomic policies The report describes and analyses housing finance conditions and trends in all regions of the world including formal housing finance mechanisms microfinance and community funding highlighting their relevance to the upgrading of slums Recent shelter finance policy development is discussed at the international and national levels and the directions that could be taken to strengthen shelter finance systems are examined The Global Report on Human Settlements is the most authoritative and up to date assessment of conditions and trends in the world s cities It is an essential tool and reference for researchers academics public authorities and civil society organizations around the world The preceding issues of the Global Report on Human Settlements have addressed such topics as An Urbanizing World Cities in a Globalizing World and The Challenge of Slums Published with UN HABITAT

Working in Restructured Workplaces Daniel B. Cornfield,Karen Campbell,Holly J. McCammon,2001-07-27 What are the contemporary trends in workplace restructuring and the sociological impact on workers lives Around what concepts will work be organized and groups and individuals motivated in their work into the new century To give you definition and answers to these contemporary questions the editors of the sociological quarterly Work and Occupations assembled Working in Restructured Workplaces It addresses contradictory influences in contemporary workplace restructuring its impact on workers lives and the direction and nature of future changes in the workplace This authentic collection of sociological thought and research consists of previous works in Work and Occupations and some commissioned specifically for this book to focus on the nature causes and consequences of workplace restructuring The editors introduce a new concept of workplace restructuring to broaden your perspective and then assess implications for workers and their lives The chapters address four major themes Reconfiguring workplace status hierarchies Casualization of employment relationships Restructuring and worker marginalization Comparative labor responses to global restructuring The last two chapters chart new research agendas on the boundaries and durability of workplace restructuring Financing Urban Shelter United Nations Human Settlements Programme,2005 Financing Urban Shelter presents the first global assessment of housing finance systems placing shelter and urban development challenges within the overall context of macroeconomic policies and the Millennium Development Goals target on slums a significant improvement in the lives of at least 100 million slum dwellers by 2020 The report describes and analyses housing finance conditions and trends in all regions of the world including formal housing finance mechanisms microfinance and community funding highlighting their relevance to the upgrading of slums Recent shelter finance policy development is discussed at the international and national levels and directions that could be taken to strengthen shelter finance systems are examined Women in Global Migration, 1945-2000 Eleanore O. Hofstetter,2001-03-30 With large numbers of people migrating to other countries after World War II a substantial amount of scholarship has focused on the status problems and successes of women immigrants since 1945 The first comprehensive compilation of the international literature on these women this bibliography with over 5 100 entries reveals the breadth of scholarship on feminist immigration issues Focusing particularly on sources from North America and Western Europe where most immigrant women settled the book includes feminist analyses bibliographies demographic studies economic comparisons educational research health and medical reports legal discussions biographies and autobiographies psychological case studies religious reports sociological investigations and publications dealing with general aspects of female immigration The book covers such legal issues as citizenship international conventions on contract workers the traffic in women and services and government benefits to immigrants Medical entries include such topics as female genital mutilation comparative obstetric results and equity of treatment Education entries cover such subjects as adult education and the second language programs necessary for assimilation With entries in several languages the bibliography includes books journal articles essays and chapters in books dissertations ERIC reports national and international government documents and statistical sources With immigration a major political and social issue in most countries today the book provides an important research tool Gender and Generations Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos,Marcia Texler Segal,2021-03-15 This volume focuses on the ways in which gender interacts with generation Developed as the contributors lived through the Covid 19 pandemic the chapters offer a timely examination of gender related changes that have occurred against the backdrop of changing socio dynamics such as increasing and decreasing fertility and the aging of populations Informal Employment in Advanced Economies Colin C. Williams,Jan Windebank,2002-09-11 Re Placing Informal Employment challenges many of the popular myths surrounding informal economic activities and offers a radical reassessment of their extent growth location and nature The book uses case studies from the UK France Italy the Netherlands the US and Canada to challenge the popular belief that informal employment is growing throughout the advanced economies

the myth that this work is undertaken mostly by marginalized groups the dominant view that we should replace informal with formal employment through enforcement of regulations Examining policy options and their consequences the authors show that conventional approaches only increase inequalities and that a radical alternative solution is essential Shoes, Glues and Homework Pia Markkanen, Charles Levenstein, Robert Forrant, John Wooding, 2017-07-05 This book describes working conditions in informal sector shoemaking in Indonesia and the Philippines their national and international policy implications It provides information on glues an organic solvent found in footwear chemicals and women garment homeworkers in Bulacan The ILO from Geneva to the Pacific Rim Nelson Lichtenstein, Jill M Jensen, 2016-05-12 This volume of original essays considers how the International Labour Organization has helped generate a set of ideas and practices past and present transnational and within a single nation aimed at advancing social and economic reform in the Pacific Rim

Women's Activism and "Second Wave" Feminism Barbara Molony, Jennifer Nelson, 2017-02-09 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Women's Activism and Second Wave Feminism situates late 20th century feminisms within a global framework of women's activism Its chapters written by leading international scholars demonstrate how issues of heterogeneity transnationalism and intersectionality have transformed understandings of historical feminism It is no longer possible to imagine that feminism has ever fostered an unproblematic sisterhood among women blind to race ethnicity class sexuality nationality and citizenship status The chapters in this collection modify the wave metaphor in some cases and in others re-periodize it By studying individual movements they collectively address several themes that advance our understandings of the history of feminism such as the rejection of hegemonic feminism by marginalized feminist groups transnational linkages among women's organizations transnational flows of ideas and transnational migration By analyzing practical activism the chapters in this volume produce new ways of theorizing feminism and new historical perspectives about the activist locations from which feminist politics emerged Including histories of feminisms in the United States Canada South Africa India France Russia Japan Korea Poland and Chile Women's Activism and Second Wave Feminism provides a truly global re-appraisal of women's movements in the late 20th century Cities of the Global South Reader Faranak Miraftab, Neema Kudva, 2014-10-10 The Cities of the Global South Reader adopts a fresh and critical approach to the field of urbanization in the developing world The Reader incorporates both early and emerging debates about the diverse trajectories of urbanization processes in the context of the restructured global alignments in the last three decades Emphasizing the historical legacies of colonialism the Reader recognizes the entanglement of conditions and concepts often understood in binary relations first third worlds wealth poverty development underdevelopment and inclusion exclusion By asking whose city whose development the Reader rigorously highlights the fractures along lines of class race gender and other socially and spatially constructed hierarchies in global South cities The Reader's thematic structure where editorial introductions accompany selected texts examines the issues and concerns that urban dwellers planners and policy makers face in the contemporary world These include the urban economy housing basic services infrastructure the role of non state civil society based actors planned interventions and contestations the role of diaspora capital the looming problem of adapting to climate change and the increasing spectre of violence in a post 9 11 transnational world The Cities of the Global South Reader pulls together a diverse set of readings from scholars across the world some of which have been written specially for the volume to provide an essential resource for a broad interdisciplinary readership at undergraduate and postgraduate levels in urban geography urban sociology and urban planning as well as disciplines related to international and development studies Editorial commentaries that introduce the central issues for each theme summarize the state of the field and outline an associated bibliography They will be of particular value for lecturers students and researchers making the Cities of the Global South Reader a key text for those interested in understanding contemporary urbanization processes
