Islam in Liberalism Joseph A. Massad, 2015-01-06 Demonstrates that Western liberal democracy portrayed as foreign to Islam necessarily serves an imperial project timely and controversial Politics Religion Ideology Islam is often associated with words like oppression totalitarianism intolerance cruelty misogyny and homophobia while its presumed antonyms are Christianity the West liberalism individualism freedom citizenship and democracy In the most alarmist views the West's most cherished values freedom equality and tolerance are said to be endangered by Islam worldwide Joseph Massad's Islam in Liberalism explores what Islam has become in today's world He seeks to understand how anxieties about tyranny intolerance misogyny and homophobia seen in the politics of the Middle East are projected onto Islam itself Massad shows that through this projection Europe emerges as democratic and tolerant feminist and pro LGBT rights or in short Islam free Massad documents the Christian and liberal idea that we should missionize democracy women's rights sexual rights tolerance equality and even therapies to cure Muslims of their un European un Christian and illiberal ways Along the way he sheds light on a variety of controversial topics including the meanings of democracy and the ideological assumption that Islam is not compatible with it while Christianity is Islam in Liberalism is an unflinching critique of Western assumptions and of the liberalism that Europe and America present as salvation to Islam Essential reading for all scholars of Islam and Middle East politics Cambridge Review of International Affairs Reminds us that in order to move beyond scholarship revolving around a simplistic binarism between West and non West we must never forget how this opposition has shaped and continues to actively influence scholarship today Los Angeles Review of Books

Sex and Desire in Muslim Cultures Aymon Kreil, Lucia Sorbera, Serena Tolino, 2020-12-10 What have different ideas about sex and gender meant for people throughout the history of the Middle East and North Africa This book traces sex and desire in Muslim cultures through a collection of chapters that span the 9th to 21st centuries Looking at spaces and periods where sexual norms and the categories underpinning them emerge out of multiple subjectivities the book shows how people constantly negotiate the formulation of norms their boundaries and their subversion It demonstrates that the cultural and political meanings of sexualities in Muslim cultures as elsewhere emerge from very specific social and historical contexts The first part of the book examines how people constructed discussed and challenged sexual norms from the Abbasid to the Ottoman period The second part looks at literary and cinematic Arab cultural production as a site for the construction and transgression of gender norms The third part builds on feminist historiography and social anthropology to question simplistic dichotomies and binaries Each of the contributions shows how understanding of sexualities and the subjectivities that evolve from them are rooted in the mutually constitutive relationships between gender and political power In identifying the plurality of discourses on desires the book goes beyond the dichotomy of norm and transgression to glimpse what different sexual norms have meant at different times across the Middle East Media Messages Linda Holtzman, Leon Sharpe, 2014-03-15 The new edition of this widely acclaimed book reveals how the popular media contributes to widespread myths and misunderstanding about cultural diversity Along with updated media examples expanded theories and analysis this edition explores even more deeply the coverage of race in two chapters discusses more broadly how men and boys are depicted in the media and socialized and how class issues have become even more visible during the Great Recession of the 21st century and the Occupy movements The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women Asma Afsaruddin, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women offers authoritative contributions from well known scholars whose sophisticated and cutting edge research explores the diversity of Muslim women s lives and their accomplishments challenging common stereotypes that are particularly prevalent in the West Struggling in Good Faith Mychal Copeland, MTS, D'vorah Rose, BCC, 2015-11-20 A comprehensive sourcebook telling the story of the religious struggles and celebrations for LGBTQI inclusion across the American religious landscape Gender Confirmation Surgery Loren S.
