Islam In Global Politics Conflict And Cross Civilizational Bridging:

Islam in Global Politics Bassam Tibi, 2012-03-12 This book examines global and local politics and how Islam impacts on civilizational relations between different groups and polities In particular he examines how Islamism as opposed to Islam becomes an immediate source of tension and conflict between the secular and the religious Tibi rejects the clash of civilizations theory and argues for the revival of Islamic humanism to help bridge the gap Islam in Global Politics Bassam Tibi, 2012-03-12 Reaching beyond traditionally politicised scholarship to provide a unique perspective on the place of religion and culture in global and local politics this book examines the impact of Islam on civilizational relations between different groups and polities Bassam Tibi takes a highly original approach to the topic of religion in world politics exploring the place of Islam in society and its frequent distortion in world politics to the more radical Islamism Looking at how this becomes an immediate source of tension and conflict between the secular and the religious Tibi rejects the clash of civilizations theory and argues for the revival of Islamic humanism to help bridge the gap Chapters expand on inter civilizational conflict in global politics dialogue between religious and secular East and West western concepts of Islamism euro Islam and the Islamic diaspora in Europe Islamic humanism as a tool for bridging civilizations Shedding new light on the highly topical subject of Islam in politics and society this book is an essential read for scholars and students of international politics Islamic studies and conflict resolution Freedom of Speech and Islam Erich Kolig, 2016-04-15 Freedom of speech and expression is considered in the West a high public good and an important social value underpinned by legislative and ethical norms Its importance is not shared to the same extent by conservative and devout Muslims who read Islamic doctrines in ways seemingly incompatible with Western notions of freedom of speech Since the Salman Rushdie affair in the 1980s there has been growing recognition in the West that its cherished value of free speech and associated freedoms relating to arts the press and media literature academia critical satire etc episodically clash with conservative Islamic values that limit this freedom for the sake of holding religious issues sacrosanct Recent controversies such as the Danish cartoons the Charlie Hebdo affair Quran burnings and the internet film The Innocence of Muslims which have stirred violent reactions in the Muslim world have made the West aware of the fact that Muslims religious sensitivities have to be taken into account in exercising traditional Western freedoms of speech Featuring experts across a spectrum of fields within Islamic studies Freedom of Speech and Islam considers Islamic concepts of blasphemy apostasy and heresy and their applicability in the modern world Routledge Handbook of Political Islam Shahram Akbarzadeh, 2020-12-29 This updated second edition of the Handbook of Political Islam covers a range of political actors that use Islam to advance their cause While they share the ultimate vision of establishing a political system governed by Islam their tactics and methods can be very different Capturing this diversity this volume also sheds light on some of the less known experiences from South East Asia to North Africa Drawing on expertise from some of the top scholars in the world the chapters examine the main issues surrounding political Islam across the world including Theoretical foundations of political Islam Historical background Geographical spread of Islamist movements Political strategies adopted by Islamist groups Terrorism Attitudes towards democracy Relations between Muslims and the West in the international sphere Challenges of integration Gender relations Capturing the geographical spread of Islamism and the many manifestations of this political phenomenon make this book a key resource for students and researchers interested in political Islam Muslim affairs and the Middle East The Sharia State Bassam Tibi, 2013-07-18 Set against the backdrop of the Arab Spring The Sharia State examines the Islamist concept of political order This order is based on a new interpretation of sharia and has been dubbed the Islamic state by Islamists The concept of the Islamic state has been elevated to a political agenda and it is this agenda that is examined here In contrast to the prevailing view which sees the Arab Spring as a revolution this book argues that the phenomenon has been neither a Spring nor a revolution The term Arab Spring connotes a just rebellion that led to toppling dictators and authoritarian rulers yet in The Sharia State Bassam Tibi challenges the unchecked assumption that the seizure of leadership by Islamists is a part of the democratization of the Middle East Providing a new perspective on the relationship between the Arab Spring and democratization this book is an essential read for students and scholars of Middle Eastern Studies Islamic Studies and Politics Africa in Global International Relations Paul-Henri Bischoff, Kwesi Aning, Amitav Acharya, 2015-10-05 Recent scholarship in International Relations IR has started to study the meaning and implications of a non Western world With this comes the need for a new paradigm of IR theory that is more global open inclusive and able to capture the voices and experiences of both Western and non Western worlds This book investigates why Africa has been marginalised in IR discipline and theory and how this issue can be addressed in the context of the emerging Global IR paradigm To have relevance for Africa a new IR theory needs to be more inclusive intellectually negotiated and holistically steeped in the African context In this innovative volume each author takes a critical look at existing IR paradigms and offers a unique perspective based on the African experience Following on from Amitav Acharya and Barry Buzan s work Non Western International Relations Theory it develops and advances non Western IR theory and the idea of Global IR This volume will be of key interest to scholars and students of African politics international relations IR theory and comparative politics The Practice of Mission in Global Methodism David W. Scott, Darryl W. Stephens, 2021-04-19 This book brings together Methodist scholars and reflective practitioners from around the world to consider how emerging practices of mission and evangelism shape contemporary theologies of mission Engaging contemporary issues including migration nationalism climate change postcolonial contexts and the growth of the Methodist church in the Global South this book examines multiple forms of mission including evangelism education health and ministries of compassion A global group of contributors discusses mission as no longer primarily a Western activity but an enterprise of the entire church throughout the world This volume will be of interest to researchers studying missiology evangelism global Christianity and Methodism and to students of Methodism and mission The Levant Express Micheline R. Ishay, 2019-08-20 A surprisingly hopeful assessment of the prospects for human rights in the Middle East and a blueprint for advancing them The enormous sense of optimism unleashed by the Arab Spring in 2011 soon gave way to widespread suffering and despair Of the many popular uprisings against autocratic regimes Tunisia s now stands alone as a beacon of hope for sustainable human rights progress Libya is a failed state Egypt returned to military dictatorship the Gulf States suppressed popular protests and tightened control and Syria and Yemen are ravaged by civil war Challenging the widely shared pessimism among regional experts Micheline Ishay charts bold and realistic pathways for human rights in a region beset by political repression economic distress sectarian conflict a refugee crisis and violence against women With due attention to how patterns of revolution and counterrevolution play out in different societies and historical contexts Ishay reveals the progressive potential of subterranean human rights forces and offers strategies for transforming current realities in the Middle East Living With Civilisations: Reflections On Southeast Asia's Local And National Cultures Gungwu Wang, 2023-12-04 Professor Wang Gungwu is the Institute of Policy Studies 12th S R Nathan Fellow for the Study of Singapore This book is an edited collection of his four IPS Nathan Lectures delivered from November 2022 to March 2023 and includes highlights of his question and answer segments with our audience The Southeast Asian region is home to a set of diverse local cultures and distinct local identities In this lecture series Professor Wang looks at how great civilisations came into contact with our region and shaped its local identities and cultures Being at the centre of Southeast Asia Singapore s national identity and development have also been moulded by great ancient civilisations namely the Indic Sinic and Islamic Later on the idea of modernity brought about by Christian European civilisation greatly impacted our region Understanding the history of Singapore from this perspective will give us insight to how the country s modern identity is being shaped and enable us to better understand our region s place in the modern world order The IPS Nathan Lecture series was launched in 2014 as part of the S R Nathan Fellowship for the Study of Singapore named after Singapore s sixth and longest serving president It seeks to advance public understanding and discussion of issues of critical national interest for Singapore Empire, Religion, and Identity Soumen Mukherjee, 2024-02-19 This collection brings together case studies that cover a wide spectrum from Hindu Buddhist Jaina traditions through reformist ventures such as the Brahmos to issues in modern Islam and Judaism The first part of the book explores idioms of self fashioning in global platforms and religious congresses The second part explicates the nature of movements of such ideas Cumulatively they offer fresh and invaluable insights into their histories in modern South Asia against the backdrop of and in relation to wider transcultural global flows Contributors Soumen Mukherjee Toshio Akai Jeffery D Long Arpita Mitra Philip Goldberg Ankur Barua Oyndrila Sarkar Madhuparna Roychowdhury Navras J Aafreedi and Faridah Zaman Cultural Turns Doris Bachmann-Medick, 2016-01-15 The contemporary fields of the study of culture the humanities and the social sciences are unfolding in a dynamic constellation of cultural turns This book provides a comprehensive overview of these theoretically and methodologically groundbreaking reorientations It discusses the value of the new focuses and their analytical categories for the work of a wide range of disciplines In addition to chapters on the interpretive performative reflexive postcolonial translational spatial and iconic turns it discusses emerging directions of research Drawing on a wealth of international research this book maps central topics and approaches in the study of culture and thus provides systematic impetus for changed disciplinary and transdisciplinary research in the humanities and beyond e g in the fields of sociology economics and the study of religion This work is the English translation by Adam Blauhut of an influential German book that has now been completely revised It is a stimulating example of a cross cultural translation between different theoretical cultures and also the first critical synthesis of cultural turns in the English speaking world

Religion, Extremism and Violence in South Asia Imran Ahmed,Zahid Shahab Ahmed,Howard Brasted,Shahram Akbarzadeh,2022-02-04 This book sheds light on religiously motivated extremism and violence in South Asia a phenomenon which ostensibly poses critical and unique challenges to the peace security and governance not only of the region but also of the world at large The book is distinctive in so far as it reexamines conventional wisdom held about religious extremism in South Asia and departs from the literature which centres its analyses on Islamic militancy based on the questions and assumptions of the West s war on terror This volume also offers a comprehensive analysis of new extremist movements and how their emergence and success places existing theoretical frameworks in the study of religious extremism into question It further examines topical issues including the study of social media and its impact on the evolution and operation of violent extremism The book also analyses grassroots and innovative non state initiatives aimed to counter extremist ideologies Through case studies focusing on Bangladesh India Pakistan and Sri Lanka this collection examines extremist materials methods of political mobilisation and recruitment processes and maps the interconnected nature of sociological change with the ideological transformations of extremist movements

Is there a Judeo-Christian Tradition? Emmanuel Nathan,Anyia Topolski,2016-03-21 The term Judeo Christian in reference to a tradition heritage ethic civilization faith etc has been used in a wide variety of contexts with widely diverging meanings Contrary to popular belief the term was not coined in the United States in the middle of the 20th century but in 1831 in Germany by Ferdinand Christian Baur By acknowledging and returning to this European perspective and context the volume engages the historical theological philosophical and political dimensions of the term s development Scholars of European intellectual history will find this volume timely and relevant

Political Islam, World Politics and Europe Bassam Tibi,2014-07-11 The new and updated edition of Political Islam World Politics and Europe focusses on the shift within political Islam in light of 9 11 and the events of the Arab Spring from a jihadist struggle to institutional Islamism Refuting what has often been referred to by commentators as the moderation of Islamism the second edition of this book introduces the concept of institutional Islamism a process which Tibi argues was accelerated in the aftermath of the Arab Spring Both jihadist and institutional Islamism pursue the same goal of an Islamist state but disagree fundamentally on the strategy for achieving it Whilst jihadism is committed to the idea of a violent Islamic world revolution institutional Islamism embraces political institutions as a means to an end Turning to the events of the Arab Spring in Tunisia Libya and Egypt this book attempts to determine whether an abandonment of violence is enough to underpin a shift to genuine democracy Analysing the fall of Morsi in particular Tibi questions what lessons can be learnt from his presidency and argues that this event will not change the overall trend of development from jihadism to institutional Islamism A timely addition to existing literature this book will be of interest to students and scholars studying Middle Eastern and European Politics Political Islam and International Relations
