Modern Egypt Hilary Kalmbach,2020-10-22 This historical study transforms our understanding of modern Egyptian national culture by applying social theory to the history of Egypt s first teacher training school It focuses on Dar al Ulum which trained students from religious schools to teach in Egypt s new civil schools from 1872 During the first four decades of British occupation 1882 1922 Egyptian nationalists strove to emulate Europe yet insisted that Arabic and Islamic knowledge be reformed and integrated into Egyptian national culture despite opposition from British officials This reinforced the authority of the alumni of the Dar al Ulum the daramiyya as arbiters of how to be modern and authentic a position that graduates Hasan al Banna and Sayyid Qutb of the Muslim Brotherhood would use to resist westernisation and create new modes of Islamic leadership in the 1930s 40s and 50s Establishing a 130 year history for tensions over the place of Islamic ideas and practices within modernized public spaces tensions which became central to the outcomes of the 2011 Arab Uprisings Hilary Kalmbach demonstrates the importance of Arabic and Islamic knowledge to notions of authority belonging and authenticity within a modernising Muslim majority community Muhammad in History, Thought, and Culture Coeli Fitzpatrick Ph.D.,Adam Hani Walker,2014-04-25 This in depth examination of the life history and influence of Muhammad as discussed by leading scholars provides a wide ranging look at the prophet s legacy unlike any other in the field of Islamic and culture studies Within the Islamic world the prophet Muhammad s influence is profound But even outside of the religion of Islam this visionary had a wide ranging impact on history society literature art philosophy and theology Within this work s more than 200 A Z entries internationally recognized scholars summarize views of Muhammad from the earliest editors of the Qu ran to contemporary Muslim theologians This detailed resource explores the traditions ceremonies and beliefs of Islam as they have spread worldwide and examines Muhammad s role in other religious traditions as well as the secular world Muhammad in History Thought and Culture An Encyclopedia of the Prophet of God distills 14 centuries of thinking about Muhammad fully capturing his enduring legacy This encyclopedia will benefit any reader seeking a greater understanding of the founder of Islam the fastest growing religion in the world No other publication discusses Muhammad at such a high level of detail while remaining easily accessible to non specialist Western audiences The Sunna and the Hadith Through the Lens of the Qur'an Joseph The Monotheist,2024-09-22 This book is the second in a series that presents an attempt to understand the Qur anic revelation published concurrently with the first and third volumes It continues on the work presented in the first volume of this series to propose a new interpretation of the Qur anic revelation that is claimed to constitute a more accurate representation of the revelation The first three volumes of this series argue that the religion of

Islam or rather the numerous interpretations of Islam are unacceptable representations of the Qur'anic revelation. The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation challenges the standpoints of Traditional Islam on three key issues: inclusiveness, the sources of religious knowledge, and the composition of any acceptable Qur'anic based interpretation of religion. Each of the first three volumes of this series is dedicated to one of these topics respectively. In this book, the stance of the proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation in regard to the Sunna teachings of Prophet Muhammad and the Hadith reports on the Sunna is addressed. The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation recognizes in reference to the followers of the Qur'an that the Qur'an to be the sole source of religious knowledge. It does not consider the Sunna to represent an independent or complementary source of religious knowledge. Furthermore, it does not consider the Hadith to represent the Sunna nor does it consider the Hadith a source of religious knowledge. What Islam is the book talking about? Is it one Islam that around one quarter of the world's population follows? Is the Sunna a source of religious knowledge? Does the Hadith actually report on the Sunna? What of the Hadith is certain in its attribution to Prophet Muhammad? These questions and a multitude of others are addressed in this volume of the series. This book is self-contained. It can be read as part of the series or independently. It does not require the reader to have previous knowledge in any of the topics discussed. The book discusses topics you do not find in your typical book about the Qur'an or Islam. It would interest those who want to learn about the Qur'an, its message, the Sunna, and the Hadith. Among this group would be those searching for a reformed understanding of the Qur'an and how it applies today, those interested to learn about the Sunna and the Hadith, what they are and what they are not, and those interested in monotheistic religions in general.

Encounters: Medieval Islamic History in 50 Objects Marcus Milwright, 2025-10-27 This book consists of fifty case studies and offers an innovative approach to the study of Medieval Islamic history, concentrating on the analysis of physical objects from the seventh to the eighteenth centuries and across most of the regions that make up the pre-Modern Islamic world. These include a wide range of objects from portable items like coins, vessels, and books to major constructions including mosques, tombs, castles, dams, and canal systems. The central argument is that the interdisciplinary study of physical objects provides invaluable perspectives that can deepen or challenge the evidence in the written record. Object-based study can also shed light on the lives of social groups who are seldom discussed in Islamic texts written before the modern period. To demonstrate these points, each case study focusses on a single object or small group of related objects. The case studies combine close analysis of the material and visual characteristics with a discussion of the wider context in which such objects were commissioned, made, used, adapted, and exchanged. The book is intended as an introduction to the historical study of Islamic objects, employing perspectives from the fields of art history, archaeology, numismatics, ethnography, and epigraphy. Written with a minimum of technical language and supported by a critical introduction, an extensive glossary, a timeline, and a guide for further reading, the book is aimed at students and general readers who are interested in the political, economic, social, cultural, religious, and intellectual histories of the Islamic world Producing Islamic Knowledge Martin van Bruinessen, 2013-06-17 Featuring contributions from leading sociologists and anthropologists and presenting the findings of empirical research from a range of European countries this book provides a discussion on the production and or reproduction of Islamic knowledge and gives a new perspective on Islam and Muslims in Europe Intercultural Communication Education and Research in the Middle East and North Africa Hamza R'boul, 2025-01-31 This edited volume gathers insights into the production of knowledge about interculturality in education and research in the Middle East and North Africa MENA The MENA region is seen in this book as a space with unique circumstances conditions and complexities that need to be thoroughly explored and further unpacked The book defines intercultural communication education and research broadly but focuses on how teaching and researching interculturality is understood and practiced in MENA formal education classrooms and in various training situations such as business politics media and communication This edited volume aims to a navigate representations of intercultural communication in education and research starting from the premise that interculturality is not only a theory of analysis but also an activism for social and epistemic justice b investigate specific phenomena challenges and issues in education and research including concepts notions such as acculturation and intercultural understanding empathy and c explore subfields of knowledge such as sense making and intercultural pragmatics and specific contexts of interculturality such as immigrants exchange programs and student mobilities This book will be valuable read for students educators scholars and policymakers interested in intercultural communication and education in the region as well as language and sociology more broadly African Spirituality, Politics, and Knowledge Systems Toyin Falola, 2022-03-10 Focusing on the three leading religious traditions in Africa African Traditional Religion Islam and Christianity this book shows how belief in the supremacy of sacred words compels actions and influences practices in contemporary Africa Sacred words are taken to mean holy texts as in divination the Quran and the Bible Toyin Falola evaluates how religious leaders engage with sacred words both orals and texts engendering practices that reveal the expression of religious beliefs the impact of those beliefs and the knowledge contained in them Attention is given to the key ideas in the words chosen by religious leaders and how they form a continuous knowledge system impacting the politics of managing society and people The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature Esad Durakovic, 2015-04-24 Through analysing ancient and classical Arabic literature including the Qur'an from within the Arabic literary tradition this book provides an original interpretation of poetics and of other important aspects of Arab culture Ancient Arabic literature is a realm of poetry prose literary forms emerged rather late and even then remained in the shadow of poetic creative efforts Traditionally this literature has been viewed through a philologist's lens and has often been represented as materialistic in the sense that its poetry lacked imagination As a result Arabic poetry was often evaluated negatively in relation to other poetic traditions The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature argues that old Arabic literature is remarkably coherent in poetical terms and has its own individuality and that claims of its materialism arise from a failure to grasp the poetic principles of the Arabic tradition Analysing the Qur'an which is known for confronting the poetry of the time this book reveals that post Qur'anic literature came to be defined against it Thus the constitution and interpretation of Arabic literature imposed itself as a particular exegesis of the sacred Text Disputing traditional interpretations by arguing that Arabic literature can only be assessed from within and not through comparison with other literary traditions this book is of interest to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Arabic Studies and Literary Studies

Muslim and Christian Understanding W. El-Ansary, D. Linnan, 2010-11-26 This book explores A Common Word Between Us and You a high level ongoing Christian Muslim dialogue process The Common Word process was commenced by leading Islamic scholars and intellectuals as outreach in response to the Pope's much criticized Regensburg address of 2007

The Illusion of Eternal Religious Law Joseph The Monotheist, 2024-09-22 This book is the third in a series that presents an attempt to understand the Qur'anic revelation published concurrently with the first and second volumes It continues on the work presented in the first two volumes of this series to propose a new interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation that is claimed to constitute a more accurate representation of the revelation The first three volumes of this series argue that the religion of Islam or rather the numerous interpretations of Islam are unacceptable representations of the Qur'anic revelation The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation challenges the standpoints of Traditional Islam on three key issues inclusiveness the sources of religious knowledge and the composition of any acceptable Qur'anic based interpretation of religion Each of the first three volumes of this series is dedicated to one of these topics respectively In this book the stance of the proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation on law is addressed This position will prove to be of special significance particularly in the context of modernity and the modern state Furthermore Islamic law and its relationship to the religion of Islam is explored The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation does not see religion to be the source of law but rather it sees religion to be a source of ethics It sees that any acceptable interpretation of religion that is based on revealed scripture should have no law component It rejects religious law altogether and calls for the implementation of secular law In consequence the proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation would be redefining the role of religion and its domain of operation What Islam is the book talking about Is it one Islam that around one quarter of the world's population follows Are all of the commands in the Qur'an of eternal applicability What is Islamic law commonly referred to as Shari'a Why study Islamic law and why is it important to study it Is there only one Islamic law How does Islamic law relate to Islam Why does this book call for comprehensive religious reform and not religious law reform These questions and a multitude of others are addressed in this volume of the series This book is self contained It can be read as part of the series or independently It does not require the reader to have previous knowledge in any of the topics discussed The book discusses topics you do not find in your typical book about the Qur'an or Islam It would interest those who want to learn about the Qur'an its message and Islamic law Among this group would be those searching for a reformed understanding of the Qur'an and how it applies today those interested to learn about Islamic law what it is and what it is not and those interested in monotheistic religions in general This book will prove to be particularly useful to those seeking to understand the problems in the contemporary interpretations of Islam and consequently how such problems reflect on the Muslim individual and societies in general Keywords Islam Islamic law eternal law revealed scriptures interpretations of scripture theology the Qur'an Quran Koran al Qur'an el Coran Sunna Hadith Shari'ah Fiqh monotheism inclusiveness secularism philosophy of law philosophy of religion religious reform religious law reform Arab spring comparative religion philology semantics Muslim Women Online Anna Piela, 2013-06-17 While issues surrounding Muslim women are common in the international media the voices of Muslim women themselves are largely absent from media coverage and despite the rapidly increasing presence of Muslim women in online groups and discussions it is still a relatively unexplored topic This book examines Muslim women in transnational online groups and their views on education culture marriage sexuality work dress code race class and sisterhood Looking at both egalitarian and traditionalist Muslim women's views the author considers their interpretations of Islam and identifies a new category of holists who focus on developing the Islamic sisterhood Drawing on detailed analysis of online transcripts she highlights women's rhetorical techniques and the thorough knowledge of Islamic sources which they use to justify their points in online discussions She details how in the online context as opposed to offline interactions Muslim women are much more willing to cross boundaries between traditionalist and egalitarian interpretations of Islam and women's Islamic rights and responsibilities and to develop collaborative interpretations with supporters of different views Shedding light on a candid and forthright global community this book is an important contribution to the debate on women in Islam and as such will be of interest to scholars and students of Islamic studies gender studies media studies and the Middle East

Female Islamic Education Movements Masooda Bano, 2017-08-31 This book challenges the assumptions of creative agency and the role of Islamic education movements for women across the wider Muslim world Islam: Understanding Our Religious World Thomas Robinson, 2021-01-01 An introduction to Islam covering its History Beliefs Structure and Practices Richly illustrated with colourful photos illustrations maps and charts as well as audio files and a selection of relevant ancient texts This eBook provides a solid jargon free introduction to Islam for college level classes or for any reader seeking a neutral presentation of Islam by an author who has taught extensively in the field of religion for over three decades The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict: A Comprehensive Introduction Julian Gen, 2023-10-15 The Israeli Palestinian Conflict A Comprehensive Introduction This book provides a thorough introduction to the complex and longstanding Israeli Palestinian conflict covering its history current situation and potential solutions The book begins with an overview of the conflict's origins including the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948 and the subsequent displacement of Palestinians known as the Nakba or catastrophe in Arabic It then delves into the various conflicts and uprisings that have taken place over the years including the Six Day War the First and Second Intifadas and the ongoing protests and marches The book also examines the political and social dynamics at play including the role of religious and nationalist ideologies the impact of foreign intervention and the struggles faced by Palestinians living in the West Bank Gaza and East Jerusalem It discusses the various peace proposals and negotiations that have taken place such as the Oslo Accords and the Arab Peace Initiative and assesses their successes and failures Throughout the book the author presents a balanced and nuanced perspective on the conflict acknowledging the legitimate claims and grievances of both Israelis and Palestinians The book concludes by considering potential solutions to the conflict including the two state solution the one state solution and the possibility of a binational state television has triggered a debate about the rise in transnational political and religious identification as individuals and groups negotiate this new triad of media religion and culture This book examines the implications of new media on the rise of political Islam and on Islamic religious identity in the Arab Middle East and North Africa as well as among Muslim Arab Diasporas Undoubtedly the process of globalization especially in the field of media and ICTs challenges the cultural and religious systems particularly in terms of identity formation Across the world Arab Muslims have embraced new media not only as a source of information but also as a source of guidance and fatwas thereby transforming Muslim practices and rituals This volume brings together chapters from a range of specialists working in the field presenting a variety of case studies on new media identity formation and political Islam in Muslim communities both within and beyond the MENA region Offering new insight into the influence of media exposure on national political and cultural boundaries of the Islamic identity this book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern politics specifically political Islam and political communication

Islam and Travel in the Middle Ages Houari Touati, 2010-08 In the Middle Ages Muslim travelers embarked on a rihla or world tour as surveyors emissaries and educators On these journeys voyagers not only interacted with foreign cultures touring Greek civilization exploring the Middle East and North Africa and seeing parts of Europe they also established both philosophical and geographic boundaries between the faithful and the heathen These voyages thus gave the Islamic world which at the time extended from the Maghreb to the Indus Valley a coherent identity Islam and Travel in the Middle Ages assesses both the religious and philosophical aspects of travel as well as the economic and cultural conditions that made the rihla possible Houari Touati tracks the compilers of the hadith who culled oral traditions linked to the prophet the linguists and lexicologists who journeyed to the desert to learn Bedouin Arabic the geographers who mapped the Muslim world and the students who ventured to study with holy men and scholars Travel with its costs discomforts and dangers emerges in this study as both a means of spiritual growth and a metaphor for progress Touati's book will interest a broad range of scholars in history literature and anthropology

Narratives in Conflict Matthew Aaron Bennett, 2019-11-18 Did Jesus die on the cross for our sins as the Gospels describe Or as Muslims often contend was Jesus rescued to heaven in order to avoid the shameful crucifixion that would be unbecoming of a messenger of God This debate has raged for generations and has caused no shortage of frustration among those seeking to explain the central teaching of the Christian faith to those influenced by the Qur'an What this book aims to do is uncover four barriers to understanding the biblical teaching on atonement that likely exist in the minds of our Muslim friends prior to asking about the historical reality of the Christ event What we will discover is that the Qur'an diverges from the biblical teaching on atonement at the lexical ritual narrative and worldview levels Each of these points of divergence presents a barrier to communication Therefore before arguing with our Muslim friends that Jesus died on the cross we must provide an answer to the prior question why would it matter This book argues that the Letter to the Hebrews provides a particularly helpful biblical starting point for overcoming all four barriers

Two Arabs, a Berber, and a Jew Lawrence Rosen, 2015-12-02 In this remarkable work by seasoned scholar Lawrence Rosen we follow the fascinating intellectual developments of four ordinary Moroccans over the span of forty years Walking and talking with Haj Hamed Britel Yaghnik Driss Hussein Qadir and Shimon Benizri in a country that in a little over a century has gone from an underdeveloped colonial outpost to a modern Arab country in the throes of economic growth and religious fervor Rosen details a fascinating plurality of viewpoints on culture history and the ways both can be dramatically transformed Through the intellectual lives of these four men this book explores a number of interpretative and theoretical issues that have made Arab culture distinct especially in relationship to the West how nothing is ever hard and fast how everything is relational and always a product of negotiation It showcases the vitality of the local in a global era and it contrasts Arab notions of time equality and self with those in the West Likewise Rosen unveils his own entanglement in their world and the drive to keep the analysis of culture first and foremost even as his own life enmeshes itself in those of his study An exploration of faith politics history and memory this book highlights the world of everyday life in Arab society in ways that challenge common notions and stereotypes
