Drysdale,2024-10-15 This contemporary text the first in over a decade on the region presents the geography of the Middle East and North Africa defined as the Arab World Israel Turkey Iran and Afghanistan Thematically organized the book s eleven chapters focus on the region s physical and climatic setting demographic characteristics migration patterns religious and linguistic diversity political map offshore claims oil and gas resources and subregions and states Within this framework Drysdale emphasizes pressing current problems the impact of climate change in a region where some areas already suffer from extreme summer heat and aridity the challenge of providing additional water in a region where per capita availability of freshwater is already the lowest in the world the impact of high fertility and rapid population growth in a fragile environment where economies are often unable to absorb young workers entering the labor force the looming prospect of an aging population the effects of out and in migration the diverse impact and role of Islam in daily and public life the integrative consequences of linguistic and ethnic diversity the evolution and imperfections of the political map ongoing territorial and boundary disputes that often have global repercussions external dependence on the region s prolific oil and gas resources and the extreme regional inequalities associated with their presence or absence This timely and insightful analysis is essential reading for students of the region who need a better understanding of key regional characteristics challenges and issues Creating Spaces of Hope Caroline Seymour-Jorn,2020-12-15 An exploration of how young artists imagine and maintain hope in post revolutionary Egypt Creating Spaces of Hope explores some of the newest most dynamic creativity emerging from young artists in Egypt and the way in which these artists engage contest and struggle with the social and political landscape of post revolutionary Egypt How have different types of artists studio artists graffiti artists musicians and writers responded personally and artistically to the various stages of political transformation in Egypt since the January 25 revolution What has the political or social role of art been in these periods of transition and uncertainty What are the aesthetic shifts and stylistic transformations present in the contemporary Egyptian art world Based on personal interviews with artists over many years of research in Cairo Caroline Seymour Jorn moves beyond current understandings of creative work primarily as a form of resistance or political commentary providing a more nuanced analysis of creative production in the Arab world She argues that in more recent years these young artists have turned their creative focus increasingly inward to examine issues having to do with personal relationships belonging and inclusion and maintaining hope in harsh social political and economic circumstances She shows how Egyptian artists are constructing spaces of hope that emerge as their art or writing becomes a conduit for broader discussion of social political personal and existential ideas thereby forging alternative perspectives on Egyptian society its place in the region and in the larger global context The Woman

Question in Islamic Studies Kecia Ali, 2024-09-17 The interconnected ways that sexism functions in academic Islamic studies and how to shift professional norms toward parity Despite remarkable shifts in the demographics of Islamic studies in recent decades the field continues to be dominated by men who often relegate other scholars and their work particularly research on gender to its periphery while treating subfields in which men predominate as more rigorous and central In The Woman Question in Islamic Studies Kecia Ali explores the interconnected ways that sexism functions in academic Islamic studies Examining publications citations curricula and media representations Ali finds that despite the growth and depth of scholarship on Islam and gender men continue to overlook women s scholarship even in work that purports to discuss gender issues Moreover media and social media dynamics make talking about Islam and Muslims for broader audiences especially fraught for scholars who are not men particularly when the topic is gender or sexuality Combining broad surveys with more focused analyses of a smaller set of texts Ali shows that textbooks and syllabi continue to exclude women as historical actors and scholars and to marginalize gender and sexuality as subject matter Finally she provides a Beginner s Guide to Eradicating Sexism in Islamic Studies offering practical strategies to help scholars avoid common pitfalls in their own work and contribute to broader professional transformations
