The Sunshade Chapel of Meritaten from the House-of-Waenre of Akhenaten Josef Wegner,2017-01-27 The quartzite architectural block E16230 has been on display in the Penn Museum for 115 years E16230 is one of the few large architectural pieces in the world surviving from the much debated reign of the heretic king Akhenaten This block is one of the most historically significant objects on display in the Egyptian galleries yet it has never been analyzed or published This volume addresses that glaring gap and provides for the first time a translation and discussion of the important texts on the object along with analysis of the architectural evidence it provides The block is part of the once intensely ornamented facade of a solar chapel sunshade dedicated to princess

Meritaten the eldest daughter of Akhenaten and Nefertiti The large 1100 kg block originates in a chapel that was part of a royal ceremonial palace of Akhenaten named Per Waenre the house of the Unique one of Re Later after demolition of the building the block was reused in the city of Heliopolis as the base for a sphinx of king Merenptah Dynasty 19 Subsequently the block underwent a final stage of reuse in Cairo in the Islamic Period where it was found ca 1898 in the Mousky district of central Cairo Because the block is such a major architectural element it provides considerable detail in the reconstruction of the essential appearance decoration and other aspects of the Meritaten sunshade The volume addresses the significance of the piece and the Meritaten sunshade in the context of Akhenaten s monumental program Major implications emerge from the analysis of E16230 providing further evidence on the royal women during Akhenaten s reign The book examines two possibilities for the original location of the Per Waenre in which the Meritaten sunshade stood It may be part of a large Amarna Period cult precinct at Heliopolis which may like the capital city at Tell el Amarna have born the wider name Akhet Aten Horizon of the Aten Alternatively it could derive from Tell el Amarna itself possibly belonging to a hitherto unidentified palatial complex at that site The book is a contribution to the study of one of the most debated eras of ancient Egyptian history focused on this long ignored treasure of the Penn Museum s Egyptian collection University Museum Monograph 144

Islam and the Devotional Object Richard J. A. McGregor,2020-05-28 In this book Richard J A McGregor offers a history of Islamic practice through the aesthetic reception of medieval religious objects Elaborate parades in Cairo and Damascus included decorated objects of great value destined for Mecca and Medina Among these were the precious dress sewn yearly for the Ka ba and large colorful sedans mounted on camels which mysteriously completed the Hajj without carrying a single passenger Along with the brisk trade in Islamic relics these objects and the variety of contested meanings attached to them constituted material practices of religion that persisted into the colonial era but were suppressed in the twentieth century McGregor here recovers the biographies of religious objects including relics banners public texts and coverings for the Ka ba Reconstructing the premodern visual culture of Islamic Egypt and Syria he follows the shifting meanings attached to objects of devotion as well as the contingent nature of religious practice and experience Heaven on Earth Sadakat Kadri, 2025-06-25 Heaven on Earth is a vivid revealing and essential narrative history of shari'a law the widely contested and misunderstood code of Islamic justice and how the application of its concepts has changed over time and with it the face of Islam Some fourteen hundred years after the Prophet Muhammad first articulated God's law the shari'a and its earthly interpreters are still arguing about what it means Hard liners reduce it to amputations veiling holy war and stonings Others say that it is humanity's only guarantee of a just society And as colossal acts of terrorism made the word shari'a more controversial than ever in the early twentieth century the legal historian and human rights lawyer Sadakat Kadri realized that many people in the West harbored ideas about Islamic law that were hazy or simply wrong Heaven on Earth describes his journey through ancient texts and across modern borders in search of the facts behind the myths Kadri brings lucid analysis and enlivening wit to the turbulent story of Islam's foundation and expansion showing how the Prophet Muhammad's teachings evolved gradually into concepts of justice Traveling the Muslim world to see the shari'a's principles in action he encounters a cacophony of legal claims At the ancient Indian grave of his Sufi ancestor unruly jinns are exorcised in the name of the shari'a In Pakistan's madrasas stern scholars ridicule his talk of human rights and demand explanations for NATO drone attacks in Afghanistan In Iran he hears that God is forgiving enough to subsidize sex change operations but requires the execution of Muslims who change religion Yet the stories of compulsion and violence are only part of a picture that also emphasizes compassion and equity Many of Islam's first judges refused even to rule on cases for fear that a mistake would damn them and scholars from Delhi to Cairo maintain that governments have no business enforcing faith The shari'a continues to shape explosive political events and the daily lives of more than a billion Muslims Heaven on Earth is a brilliantly iconoclastic tour through one of humanity's great collective intellectual achievements and an essential guide to one of the most disputed but least understood controversies of modern times Selections from Subh al-A'sha by al-Qalqashandi, Clerk of the Mamluk Court Tarek Galal Abdelhamid, Heba El-Toudy, 2017-04-21 Subh al-A'sha by al-Qalqashandi is a manual for chancery clerks completed in 1412 and a vital source of information on Fatimid and Mamluk Egypt which for the first time has been translated into English The text provides valuable insight into the Mamluk and earlier Muslim eras The selections presented in this volume describe Cairo Fustat and the Cairo Citadel and give a detailed picture of the Fatimid AD 969-1172 Ayyubid AD 1172-1250 and Mamluk AD 1250-1412 court customs rituals and protocols and depict how the Mamluk Sultanate was ruled It also contains a wealth of details covering the geography history and state administration systems of medieval Egypt An introduction preceding the translation contextualizes al-Qalqashandi's role and manuscript as well as introducing the man himself while detailed notes accompany the translation to explain and elaborate on the content of the material The volume concludes with an extensive glossary of terms which forms a mini encyclopaedia of the Fatimid and Mamluk periods This translation will be a valuable resource for any student of medieval Islamic history Papa Sartre

Diane Singerman, Paul Amar, 2009 After a failed study mission in France Abd al Rahman returns home to Iraq to launch an existentialist movement akin to that of his hero. Convinced that it falls upon him to introduce his country's intellectuals to Sartre's thought he feels especially qualified by his physical resemblance to the philosopher except for the crossed eyes and by his marriage to Germaine who he claims is the great man's cousin. Meanwhile his wealth and family prestige guarantee him an idle life spent in drinking debauchery and frequenting a well known nightclub. But is his suicide an act of philosophical despair or a reaction to his friend's affair with Germaine? A biographer chosen by his presumed friends narrates the story of a somewhat bewildered young man who like other members of his generation was searching for a meaning to his life. This parody of the abuses and extravagances of pseudo philosophers in the Baghdad of the sixties throws into relief the Iraqi intellectual and cultural life of the time and the reversal of fortune of some of Iraq's wealthy and powerful families.
