Islamic Theology Traditionalism And Rationalism:

Islamic Theology Binyamin Abrahamov,1998 Assessing materials from the 3rd 9th century to the 10th 16th century Professor Abrahamov focuses on the foundations of both traditionalism and rationalism the arguments which the two tendencies used against each other and the compromises reached The Cambridge Companion to Classical Islamic Theology Timothy Winter,2008-05-22 Devoting especial attention to questions of rationality scriptural fidelity and the construction of orthodoxy this volume introduces key Muslim theories of revelation creation ethics scriptural interpretation law mysticism and eschatology The treatment is firmly set in the historical social and political context in which Islam's distinctive understanding of God evolved The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Theology Sabine Schmidtke,2016-03-31 Within the field of Islamic Studies scientific research of Muslim theology is a comparatively young discipline Much progress has been achieved over the past decades with respect both to discoveries of new materials and to scholarly approaches to the field The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Theology provides a comprehensive and authoritative survey of the current state of the field It provides a variegated picture of the state of the art and at the same time suggests new directions for future research Part One covers the various strands of Islamic theology during the formative and early middle periods rational as well as scripturalist To demonstrate the continuous interaction among the various theological strands and its repercussions during the formative and early middle period and beyond Part Two offers a number of case studies These focus on specific theological issues that have developed through the dilemmatic and often polemical interactions between the different theological schools and thinkers Part Three covers Islamic theology during the later middle and early modern periods One of the characteristics of this period is the growing amalgamation of theology with philosophy Peripatetic and Illuminationist and mysticism Part Four addresses the impact of political and social developments on theology through a number of case studies the famous mi na instituted by al Ma mun r 189 813 218 833 as well as the mihna to which Ibn Aqil d 769 1367 was subjected the religious policy of the Almohads as well as the shifting interpretations throughout history particularly during Mamluk and Ottoman times of the relation between Ash arism and Maturidism that were often motivated by political motives Part Five considers Islamic theological thought from the end of the early modern and during the modern period Judah Halevi's Fideistic Scepticism in the Kuzari Ehud Krinis,2020-07-06 As scepticism has rarely been studied in the context of the Arabic culture and its Judeo Arabic sub culture it is small wonder that sceptical motifs of Judah Halevi's classic theological The Kuzari written ca 1140 received very little scholarly attention so far Thus the present study seeks to shed light on Halevi's wrestling with the dogmatic rationalistic trends of his period from an angle of this much less studied perspective As a by product this study is a contribution to the mainly uncultivated field of traces of scepticism in the Arabic culture Muslim Perspectives on Islamophobia Zouhir Gabsi,2024-08-06 The Islamic positioning of Islamophobia is presented in this book Through Islamic or Muslim perspectives the book engages with various Islamic texts and discourses spoken and written emanating from preachers and scholars of Islam to discuss the points of convergence and divergence with the Western interpretation of the phenomenon The book aims to look at Islamophobia from a hitherto unexplored angle by first analyzing the points of convergence and divergence between the internal Muslim and external Western perspectives and then by providing new approaches to curbing Islamophobia through a holistic spiritual dimension of Islam and cultural memory The book contends that the bridges of understanding between the East and the West can only be built if some of Islam's theological concepts such as the place of reason in Islam are reinterpreted by considering the Islamic perspectives While the book acknowledges previous work on Islamophobia it contributes to a deeper understanding of Islamophobia in its internal and external manifestations by considering the theoretical frameworks of racism and xenophobia Readers interested in Islamic studies and anti racism narratives would find this book's eclectic approach and balanced perspective of the phenomenon informative and enlightening

Richly illustrated by quotations and images from Muslim scripture, historical chronicles, artistic works, and theological and juridical treatises, it invites the reader to examine this evidence and to form a comprehensive understanding of Islam's evolution from its inception in Arabia to the present day. Combining chronological and thematic principles, this book examines Muslims' political and intellectual struggles over the meaning and practical implications of their faith. It also describes and analyses Muslim devotional practices, emotional responses to the revelation, artistic and intellectual creativity, and patterns of everyday existence.
