Islamism In Indonesia Politics In The Emerging Democracy:

Islamism in Indonesia Bernhard Platzdasch, 2009 The fall of President Soeharto in May 1998 and the introduction of multi party democracy by President BJ Habibie have unleashed religious parties both Islamic and Christian in Indonesian politics This study shows that the Islamist agenda of the Islamist parties is overshadowed by their political pragmatism This book is a must read account on the rise and failure of the Islamist struggle in Indonesia s emerging democracy Platzdasch s work is without a doubt a significant and timely contribution to a better understanding of Islamic politics in contemporary Indonesia Professor Azyumardi Azra Professor of History Director Graduate School Syarif Hidayatullah State Islamic University Jakarta Indonesia Islamist Populism in Turkey and Indonesia: A Comparative Analysis Mustafa Demir, Greg Barton, 2023-12-30 This book focuses on the dynamics of democracy and populism in Muslim majority countries such as Turkey and Indonesia It does so by examining the complexities of democratic development in these areas ranging from flawed to hybrid regimes Despite the aspirations for democratic progress recent democracy indices reveal a concerning trend of backsliding particularly in the last decade This regression can be attributed in part to the ascendancy of populist politics Populist movements have adeptly exploited both real and perceived cultural insecurities to acquire consolidate and maintain political power This phenomenon is especially pronounced in flawed democracies and hybrid regimes within Muslim majority countries such as Turkey and Indonesia Notably religion specifically Islam has emerged as a central tool within the populist playbook Populist actors have constructed a religious civilizational framework that leverages political binaries manipulates insecurities and fosters traditional anti elite and anti other sentiments In this book the authors advance the notion that populism is a multifaceted phenomenon that relies on various pre existing fractures within societies and cultures Once in power populism intensifies these differences to further consolidate its position utilizing various state apparatuses such as state controlled religious institutions This comprehensive analysis offers insights into the growing trend of populism in the Muslim world and its impact on contemporary politics Islamism and the Quest for Hegemony in Indonesia Luqman Nul Hakim, 2023-02-25 This book examines the failure of Islamic politics in becoming a hegemonic force in Indonesia and the far reaching consequences for current practices of democracy and of Islam itself In contrast to the thesis of compatibility between Islam and democracy following the dominant discourse of the Global War on Terror GWOT and neoliberal democracy this study situates Islamic politics in broader social settings by examining its nature and trajectories throughout Indonesia s modern political history The book thus investigates how the practices of Islamic politics or Islamism have shaped and been transformed through political contestations and the formation of coalitions of multiple forces in constructing Indonesia s socio political landscape Using the concept of hegemony from poststructuralist discourse theory the analytical framework applied in this book goes beyond liberal epistemologies of Islamism that prescribe the separation of religion from politics and treat Islamism as an object of intervention Instead the book is premised on the contention that Indonesia is a political construction in which Islam has become one of the major discourses that have defined and transformed Indonesia's nation state throughout history. In this view it is argued that the nature and dynamics of Islamism are not driven primarily by different interpretations of religious doctrines, cultural norms or by the imperative of institutions. Rather the struggles of different Islamist projects in their quest for hegemony are contingent on the outcomes of socio-political changes and contestations that involve multiple political forces both within and beyond the Islamists in specific historical conjunctures.

Islam in Indonesia Jajat Burhanudin, Kees van Dijk, 2013-01-31 While Muslims in Indonesia have begun to turn towards a strict adherence to Islam, the reality of the socio-religious environment is much more complicated than a simple shift towards fundamentalism. In this volume contributors explore the multifaceted role of Islam in Indonesia from a variety of different perspectives drawing on carefully compiled case studies. Topics covered include religious education, the increasing number of Muslim feminists in Indonesia, the role of Indonesia in the greater Muslim world, social activism and the middle class and the interaction between Muslim radio and religious identity.

Islam in Indonesia Carool Kersten, 2015-01-12 Indonesia's Muslims are still pondering the role of religion in public life. Although the religious violence marred the transition towards democratic reform, has ebbed, the Muslim community has polarised into reactionary and progressive camps with increasingly antagonistic views on the place of Islam in society. Debates over the underlying principles of democratisation have further heated up after a fatwa issued by conservative religious scholars condemned secularism, pluralism and liberalism as un-Islamic. With a hesitant government dominated by Indonesia's eternal political elites failing to take a clear stance, supporters of the decision are pursuing their Islamisation agendas with renewed vigour, displaying growing intolerance towards other religions and what they consider deviant Muslim minorities. Extremist and radical exponents of this Islamist bloc receive more international media coverage and scholarly attention than their progressive opponents who are defiantly challenging this reactionary trend. Calling for a true transformation of Indonesian society based on democratic principles and respect for human rights, they insist that this depends on secularisation, religious toleration and freethinking. Conceived as a contemporary history of ideas, this book aims to tell the story of these open-minded intellectuals and activists in the world's largest Muslim country.

Contemporary Developments in Indonesian Islam Martin van Bruinessen, 2013 Once celebrated in the Western media as a shining example of a liberal and tolerant Islam, Indonesia since the end of the Soeharto regime (May 1998) has witnessed a variety of developments that bespeak a conservative turn in the country's Muslim politics. In this timely collection of original essays, Martin van Bruinessen, our most distinguished senior Western scholar of Indonesian Islam, and four leading Indonesian Muslim scholars explore and explain these developments. Each chapter examines recent trends from a strategic institutional perch: the Council of Indonesian Muslim scholars, the reformist Muhammadiyah, South Sulawesi's Committee for the Implementation of Islamic Shari'ah and radical Islamism in Solo. With van Bruinessen's brilliantly synthetic introduction and conclusion, these essays shed a bright light on what Indonesian Muslim politics was and where it seems to be going The analysis is complex and by no means uniformly dire For readers interested in Indonesian Muslim politics and for analysts interested in the dialectical interplay of progressive and conservative Islam this book is fascinating and essential reading Robert Hefner Director Institute on Culture Religion and World Affairs Boston University Rising Islamic Conservatism in Indonesia Leonard C. Arifianto, 2020-10-29 This edited volume argues that the rise of Islamic conservatism poses challenges to Indonesia's continued existence as a secular state with far reaching implications for the social cultural and political fortunes of the country It contributes a model of analysis in the field of Indonesian and Islamic studies on the logic of Islamic conservative activism in Indonesia This volume presents informative case studies of discourses and expressions of Islamic conservatism expressed by leading mainstream and upcoming Indonesian Islamic groups and interpret them in a nuanced perspective All volume contributors are Indonesian based Islamic Studies scholars with in depth expertise on the Islamic groups they have studied closely for years if not decades This book is an up to date study addressing contemporary Indonesian politics that should be read by Islamic Studies Indonesian Studies and more broadly Southeast Asian Studies specialists It is also a useful reference for those studying Religion and Politics and Comparative Politics History of Islam in Indonesia Carool

Kersten, 2017-01-17 Explores the history of Islam in the largest Muslim nation state in the world Located on the eastern periphery of the historical Muslim world as a political entity Indonesia is barely a century old Yet with close to a quarter of a billion followers of Islam it is now the largest and most populous Muslim country in the world As the greatest political power in Southeast Asia and a growing player on the world scene Indonesia presents itself as a bridge country between Asia the wider Muslim world and the West In this survey Carool Kersten presents the Islamisation of Indonesia from the first evidence of the acceptance of Islam by indigenous peoples in the late thirteenth century until the present day He provides comprehensive insight into the different roles played by Islam in Indonesia throughout history including the importance of Indian Ocean networks for connecting Indonesians with the wider Islamic world the religion's role as a means of resistance and tool for nation building and postcolonial attempts to forge an Indonesian Islam Key Features The first comprehensive historical survey of the Islamisation of Indonesia from the arrival of Islam in the 13th century until the present An interdisciplinary study of the place and role of Islam in Indonesia An overview of the religion's growing significance in the formation of what is now the largest and most populous Muslim country in the world Islamic Populism in Indonesia and the Middle East Vedi R. Hadiz, 2016-02-05 In a novel approach to the field of Islamic politics this provocative new study compares the evolution of Islamic populism in Indonesia the country with the largest Muslim population in the world to the Middle East Utilising approaches from historical sociology and political economy Vedi R Hadiz argues that competing strands of Islamic politics can be understood as the product of contemporary struggles over power material resources and the result of conflict across a variety of social and historical contexts Drawing from detailed case studies across the Middle East and

Southeast Asia the book engages with broader theoretical questions about political change in the context of socio economic transformations and presents an innovative comparative framework to shed new light on the diverse trajectories of Islamic politics in the modern world

Dictionary of the Modern Politics of Southeast Asia Joseph Chinyong Liow, 2014-11-20

The past two decades since the end of the Cold War have been years of remarkable change and transformation for Southeast Asia Long seen as an arena for superpower rivalry Southeast Asia is increasingly coming into its own by locating itself at the forefront of regional integration initiatives that involve not only the Association of Southeast Asian Nations but major external powers such as the United States China India Japan and Australia as well At the same time the past two decades has seen the revival of old animosities as well as the emergence of new security challenges confronting the region Old animosities include unresolved territorial disputes while new challenges range from regional and global financial crises terrorism and pandemics Significant changes within the ten Southeast Asian countries covered in this book have also transpired that have affected not only the complexion of domestic politics but have also impacted regional diplomacy as well such as the creation of potentially the eleventh Southeast Asian country Timor Leste Extensively updated and revised in light of these changes and developments this fourth edition of Dictionary of the Modern Politics of Southeast Asia contains profiles of each Southeast Asian country Following this it provides more than 450 alphabetically arranged individual entries providing detailed accounts and analyses on major episodes and treaties political parties and institutions civil society movements and regional and international organizations Biographies of significant political leaders and personalities both past and present are also provided Entries are comprehensively cross referenced and an index by country directs readers to all entries concerning a particular country The Dictionary also includes an extensive bibliography that serves as a guide to further reading It is an essential reference tool for all scholars and students of Asian politics and international affairs and a vital resource for journalists diplomats policy makers and others with an interest in the region

The Politics of Shari'a Law Michael Buehler, 2016-09-01 The Islamization of politics in Indonesia after 1998 presents an underexplored puzzle why has there been a rise in the number of shari a laws despite the electoral decline of Islamist parties Michael Buehler presents an analysis of the conditions under which Islamist activists situated outside formal party politics may capture and exert influence in Muslim majority countries facing democratization His analysis shows that introducing competitive elections creates new pressures for entrenched elites to mobilize and structure the electorate thereby opening up new opportunities for Islamist activists to influence politics Buehler s analysis of changing state religion relations in formerly authoritarian Islamic countries illuminates broader theoretical debates on Islamization in the context of democratization This timely text is essential reading for students scholars and government analysts

Politics and Constitutions in Southeast Asia Marco Bünte, Björn Dressel, 2016-07-15 In recent years the constitutional landscape of Southeast Asia has changed tremendously Against a worldwide background of liberalization globalization and democratization states in the region have begun to alter their constitutions reinforcing human rights provisions and putting in place institutional safeguards such as constitutional courts and human rights commissions On closer examination however the picture is very complex with constitutional developments differing greatly between states This book explores a range of current constitutional developments in the different states of Southeast Asia through a distinct political lens Drawing on comparative and single case studies it considers various constitutional areas including constitution drafting human rights legal safeguards and the continuing role of the military sets constitutional developments in the wider political and historical context of each country and makes comparisons both with Western democracies and with other developing regions The book concludes by assessing overall how far constitutional practices and trajectories are converging towards a liberal Western model or towards a distinctly Southeast Asian model

Islam and the Making of the Nation Chiara Formichi, 2012-06-30 A testament to the relevance of historical research in understanding contemporary politics Islam and the Making of the Nation guides the reader through the contingencies of the past that have led to the transformation of a nationalist leader into a separatist rebel and a martyr while at the same time shaping the public perception of political Islam and strengthening the position of the Pancasila in contemporary Indonesia

Indonesian Women and Local Politics Kurniawati Hastuti Dewi, 2015-03-09 In an important social change female Muslim political leaders in Java have enjoyed considerable success in direct local elections following the fall of Suharto in Indonesia Indonesian Women and Local Politics shows that Islam gender and social networks have been decisive in their political victories Islamic ideas concerning female leadership provide a strong religious foundation for their political campaigns However their approach to women's issues shows that female leaders do not necessarily adopt a woman's perspectives when formulating policies This new trend of Muslim women in politics will continue to shape the growth and direction of democratization in local politics in post Suharto Indonesia and will color future discourse on gender politics and Islam in contemporary Southeast Asia

Religious Diversity in Muslim-majority States in Southeast Asia Bernhard Plattdasch, Johan Saravanamuttu, 2014-08-06 This book fills a gap in authoritative analyses of the causes of inter religious conflict and the practice of religious toleration The rise of more overt expressions of Islamic piety and greater bureaucratization of Islam in both Indonesia and Malaysia over several decades have tested the live and let live philosophy which used to characterize religious expression in these nations The analyses in each chapter of the book break new ground with contextualized studies of particular and recent incidents of conflict or harassment in a variety of areas from urban centres to more remote and even complex locations As these studies show legislation stands or falls on the ability and determination of local authorities to enforce it This volume is essential reading for understanding the dynamics of state religious interaction in Muslim majority nations and the crucial role civil society organizations play in negotiating interfaith toleration Emeritus Professor Virginia Hooker FAHA Department of Political Social Change College of Asia the Pacific The Australian National University A most welcome contribution to the academic discourse of political Islam in Indonesia and

Malaysia For this volume focuses not on Islamic resurgence as many others have done but on the impact of Islamic resurgence upon its non Muslim minority counterparts Buddhists Christians Hindus and also the Syiah Muslims in the two plural societies and the varying responses of those minorities themselves often fragmented to Islamic resurgence The rich case studies highlight the changing character of politics in the two countries and their capacities to deal with religious diversity an aspect of politics often ignored because of the usual concern for economic and political institutional capacities The juxtaposition of Malaysian and Indonesian cases in a single volume and comparisons of contrasting developments in the two countries challenges readers not to resort to easy conclusions and overgeneralizations about rising inter religious tensions but to give more scholarly attention to this politics religion diversity nexus Emeritus Professor Francis Loh Kok Wah Department of Political Science Universiti Sains Malaysia
