Times bestseller Here's the first book in a new middle grade fantasy adventure series from the author of The Unwanteds. Fifteen years ago eight supernatural criminals fled Estero City to make a new life in an isolated tropical hideout. Over time seven of them disappeared without a trace, presumed captured or killed. And now the remaining one has died. Left behind to fend for themselves are the criminals' five children, each with superpowers of their own: Birdie can communicate with animals, Brix has athletic abilities and can heal quickly, Tenner can swim like a fish and can see in the dark and hear from a distance, Seven's skin camouflages to match whatever is around him, Cabot hasn't shown signs of any unusual power yet. Then one day Birdie finds a map among her father's things that leads to a secret stash. There is also a note: Go to Estero, find your mother, and give her the map. The five have lived their entire lives in isolation. What would it mean to follow the map to a strange world full of things they've only heard about, like cell phones, cars, and electricity? A world where, thanks to their parents being supernatural, is a crime.

Troy insists that he has changed for the better, but Tenner isn't sure he can be trusted. Meanwhile, Magdalia Palacio's election campaign is gaining steam.
