Combat Lifesaver Course The Army Institute for Professional Development,2016-02-27 Combat Lifesaver Course Student Self Study ISO871 contains information needed to pass the written performance and performance examinations for combat lifesaver certification and recertification All of the tasks contain important lifesaving information The Army battle doctrine was developed for a mobile and widely dispersed battlefield The doctrine recognizes that battlefield constraints will limit the ability of trained medical personnel including combat to provide immediate far forward care Therefore a plan was developed to provide additional care to injured combat soldiers The combat lifesaver is part of that plan The combat lifesaver is a bridge between the self aid buddy aid first aid training given all soldiers during basic training and the medical training given to the combat medic Act in a Split Second - First Aid Manual of the US Army U.S. Department of Defense,2024-01-15 In Act in a Split Second First Aid Manual of the US Army the U S Department of Defense provides a comprehensive guide designed to equip soldiers with essential first aid skills required in combat situations This manual is distinguished by its direct unembellished prose presenting explicit instructions and visuals that prioritize clarity and immediacy Rooted in military necessity it reflects the exigent conditions of battlefield care while adhering to contemporary medical practices showcasing how critical rapid response can be to saving lives under extreme pressure The U S Department of Defense as the backbone of national security and military education draws from extensive research and practical experiences in writing this manual Their expertise combines insights from medical professionals extensive fieldwork and historical precedents of combat medicine making this text a vital resource The manual s creation underscores a broader commitment to enhancing soldiers preparedness and confidence in high stakes environments reinforcing the crucial role of medical training within military operations Readers interested in the intersection of medicine and military strategy will find this manual invaluable Whether for academics medical professionals or those with a keen interest in military studies Act in a Split Second serves as an authoritative reference emphasizing the significance of immediate care and situational awareness

Advanced Life Support Instructor's Manual for Instructor-Led Training American Red Cross,2019-05-29 U. S. Military First Aid Manual Department of Defense,2002-12-23 This manual meets the first aid training needs of individual service members Because medical personnel will not always be readily available the nonmedical service members must rely heavily on their own skills and knowledge of life sustaining methods to survive on the integrated battlefield This publication outlines both self aid and aid to other service members buddy aid More importantly it emphasizes prompt and effective action in sustaining life and preventing or minimizing further suffering and disability First aid is the emergency care given to the sick injured or wounded before being treated by medical personnel The term first aid can be defined as urgent and immediate lifesaving and other measures which can be performed for casualties by nonmedical personnel when medical personnel are not immediately available Nonmedical service members have received basic first aid training and should remain skilled in the correct procedures for giving first aid This manual is directed to all service members The procedures discussed apply to all types of casualties and the measures described are for use by both male and female service members This publication is in consonance with the following North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO International Standardization Agreements STANAGs and American British Canadian and Australian Quadripartite Standardization Agreements QSTAGs Medical Training in First Aid Basic Hygiene and Emergency Care First Aid Kits and Emergency Medical Care Kits Medical First Aid and Hygiene Training in NBC Operations First Aid Material for Chemical Injuries When a nonmedical service member comes upon an unconscious or injured service member he must accurately evaluate the casualty to determine the first aid measures needed to prevent further injury or death He should seek medical assistance as soon as possible but he should not interrupt the performance of first aid measures To interrupt the first aid measures may cause more harm than good to the casualty Remember that in a chemical environment the service member should not evaluate the casualty until the casualty has been masked After performing first aid the service member must proceed with the evaluation and continue to monitor the casualty for development of conditions which may require the performance of necessary basic lifesaving measures such as clearing the airway rescue breathing preventing shock and controlling bleeding He should continue to monitor the casualty until relieved by medical personnel Service members may have to depend upon their first aid knowledge and skills to save themselves self aid or other service members buddy aid combat lifesaver They may be able to save a life prevent permanent disability or reduce long periods of hospitalization by knowing WHAT to do WHAT NOT to do and WHEN to seek medical assistance NOTE The prevalence of various body armor systems currently fielded to US service members and those in development for future fielding may present a temporary obstacle to effective evaluation of an injured service member You may have to carefully remove the body armor from the injured service member to complete the evaluation or administer first aid Begin by removing the outer most hard or soft body armor components open unfasten or cut the closures fasteners or straps then remove any successive layers in the same manner Be sure to follow other notes cautions and warnings regarding procedures in contaminated situations and when a broken back or neck is suspected Continue to evaluate
