

subcommittee: large and small firms smaller companies: fewer firms and more firms and greater the operations

How to choose between subcommittee and committee?

1. 1990s

Small House Committee: _____

2. Why are government committees and subcommittees established about their jurisdiction?

- specialized a subcommittee allows Congress to deal with specific policy issues and
- control spending: a natural extension of jurisdictional authority over fiscal matters with budgeting
- this is a subcommittee's primary job: provide a key legislative authority over the House
- strategy

3. How do committees and subcommittees differentiate themselves? They play have evolved from simple "fact-finding" bodies to "policy-making" committees. Committees are also known as "majority and minority caucuses".
James Thurmond (senator) is one of the most famous American political strategists and independent politician who was elected by South Carolina in 1954 as a change for the Senate. He was a member of Senate subcommittee on Indian Affairs.

4. Committee subcommittee often might make similar "fact-finding" committees:

- compare subcommittee jurisdictional authority with that of the group
- the two groups have jurisdictional areas are different from each other
- the subcommittee usually focus on a specific issue, the committee often covers broader issues
- subcommittee often have a specific jurisdiction
- effect on the legislative body: the subcommittee provides input, provides different facts
- the subcommittee often have jurisdictional authority, they often control a specific issue
- suggest legislation

effect on the legislative body: the subcommittee provides input, provides different facts, they often control a specific issue
