Prins, Vasilios Zatsis, 2017-04-21 Irving Penn 1917 2009 was among the most esteemed and influential photographers of the twentieth century Over the course of a nearly seventy year career he mastered a pared down aesthetic of studio photography that is distinguished for its meticulous attention to composition nuance and detail This indispensable book features one of the largest selections of Penn's photographers ever compiled nearly 300 in all including famous and beloved images as well as works that have never been published Celebrating the centennial of Penn's birth this lavish volume spans the entirety of his groundbreaking career An enlightening introduction situates his work in the context of the various artistic social and political environments and events that affected the content of his photographs Lively essays acquaint readers with Penn's primary subjects and campaigns including early documentary scenes and imagery portraits of cultural figures and celebrities fashion female nudes peoples of Peru Dahomey Benin New Guinea and Morocco and still lifes Rounding out the book are discussions of Penn's advertising pictures and his painstaking printing processes as well as an illustrated chronology Irving Penn Centennial is essential for any fan of this artist's work or of the history of twentieth century photography

Paris and the Cliché of History Catherine E. Clark, 2018-07-19 Paris and the Cliché of History traces the changing historical meanings of photographs of this city during a century marked by urban renovation war occupation liberation and visual documentation Challenging the idea that photographs merely document the past it calls for new methods of reading photos as material objects with histories of their own and sheds insight on the capital's reduction to an image in the twentieth century

Street Style Brent Luvaas, 2016-04-07 Winner of the 2019 John Collier Jr Award Street style blogging has experienced a meteoric rise in popularity over the last decade Amateur photographers often with no formal training in fashion have become critical arbiters of taste and trends influencing the representations that appear in magazines and on runways and putting new cities on the fashion world map This cutting edge book documents the evolution of street style photography from the fieldwork photos of early anthropology to the glamorized snapshots that appear on blogs today and explores the structural shifts in the global fashion industry that street style has helped bring about Chronicling author and anthropologist Brent Luvaas' experience over three years of blogging through vivid street imagery and rich ethnographic detail this book turns the lens of street style photography back onto anthropology itself arguing that the phenomenon is a powerful mode of amateur ethnography Bloggers blur the distinction between professional and amateur insider and outsider self and brand This book documents that blur from the ground level from the streets of Philadelphia to the sidewalks of New York Fashion Week Street Style is an essential read for students and scholars of fashion anthropology sociology media and cultural studies and fans of street style photography alike

Martha Stewart's Organizing Martha

Stewart,2019-12-21 How to organize everything from America s most trusted lifestyle authority with color photographs throughout and hundreds of ideas projects and tips The Eye Nathan Williams,2018-10-30 They re often behind the scenes letting their work take center stage But now Nathan Williams founder and creative director of Kinfolk magazine and author of The Kinfolk Table The Kinfolk Home and The Kinfolk Entrepreneur with over 250 000 copies in print combined brings more than 90 of the most iconic and influential creative directors into the spotlight In The Eye we meet fashion designers like Claire Waight Keller and Thom Browne Editorial directors like Fabien Baron and Marie Am lie Sauv Tastemakers like Grace Coddington and Linda Rodin We learn about the books they read the mentors who guided them their individual techniques for achieving success We learn how they developed their eye and how they ve used it to communicate visual ideas that have captured generations and will shape the future As an entrepreneur whose own work is defined by its specific and instantly recognizable aesthetic Nathan Williams has a unique vision of contemporary culture that will make this an invaluable book for art directors designers photographers stylists and any creative professionals seeking inspiration and advice Light, Paper, Process Virginia Heckert,2015-04-14 From its beginnings photography has been shaped by the desire to understand and explore the essence of the medium Light Paper Process features the work of seven artists Alison Rossiter Marco Breuer James Welling Lisa Oppenheim Chris McCaw John Chiara and Matthew Brandt who investigate the possibilities of analog photography by finding innovative surprising and sometimes controversial ways to push light sensitive photographic papers and chemical processing beyond their limits A panoply of practices emerges in the work of these artists Some customize cameras with special lenses or produce images on paper without a camera or film Others load paper rather than film in the camera or create contact printing with sources of light other than the enlarger while still others use expired photographic papers and extraneous materials such as dust and sweat selected to match the particular subject of the photograph All of the artists share a willingness to embrace accident and chance Trial and error contribute to an understanding of the materials and their potential as do the attitudes of underlying curiosity and inventive interrogation The act of making each image is like a performance with only the photographer present The results are stunning This lavish publication accompanies an eponymous exhibition on view at the J Paul Getty Museum from April 14 to September 6 2015 Mario Giacomelli Virginia Heckert,2021-06-15 A new look at the work of Mario Giacomelli one of Italy s foremost photographers of the twentieth century Mario Giacomelli 1925 2000 was born into poverty and lived his entire life in Senigallia a seaside town along the Adriatic coast in Italy s Marche region He purchased his first camera in 1953 and quickly gained recognition for the raw expressiveness of his images His preference for grainy high contrast film and paper produced bold geometric compositions with glowing whites and deep blacks Giacomelli most frequently focused his camera on the people landscapes and seascapes of the Marche and he often spent several years expanding and reinterpreting a single body of work or repurposing an image made for one series for inclusion in another By applying titles derived from poetry and literature to his photographs he transformed ordinary subjects into meditations on time memory and existence Spanning the photographer s earliest pictures to those made in the final years of his life this publication celebrates the J Paul Getty Museum s extensive Giacomelli holdings formed in large part through a significant gift from Daniel Greenberg and Susan Steinhauser Some Aesthetic Decisions
